EDITORIAL

There was a time you could get a pound of stick for the price of an ounce today.

An efficiency expert is paid a good salary for advice, but most people are willing to hand it out for nothing.

By not letting pleasure interfere with business, you sometimes find you have little business and no pleasure.

Wallace, in a recent address, advocates that the earnings of all workmen, including farmers, should be $100 per week.

Where would this country land if it had a man like that in the presidential chair?

Because of a recent drop in prices and the possibility they may go much lower due to bumper crops, farmers are urged to do day-to-day buying. This is not only good advice to farmers but the same rule holds good in almost everything else.

DO THEY SMELL MICE

It's rather alarming but not surprising at the many large daily Democratic newspapers that are declaring for Dewey. Along with many through the South we have several staunch Democratic newspapers in our community. Last week the Steinman's Intelligence Journal at Lancaster, came out in a 2-column editorial for the Republican candidate and later in the week the Harrisburg Patriot, always Democratic, also declared for Dewey.

THE PULL OF AN APPLE

Wasn't it the scientist Newton that studied how an unpeeled apple fell, to draw conclusions about the law of gravity? There's a pull that apples have for us that didn't appear in Newton's report. The appeal to taste and vision is a pull not to be discounted. When the apple harvest is in and the fruit is piled in bushel baskets, in grocery bags, in bowls on the table, we gravitate to the apple. The odor of apples stored in the basement is a fragrance that pulls us, too. There is true beauty in the polished, russet fruit that none denies. Small wonder a child thinks an apple for teacher will bring favorable results. No wonder the words, "apple of his eye," means high praise.

SMOKERS RESPONSIBILITY

The cigarette you just reached for is more than a little paper filled with tobacco. It is a potassium chlorate torch that will burn at a high heat until it is consumed to ashes. The chemical is mixed with the tobacco in order to make it burn steadily.

The significance of this should be clear to anyone. The apparently harmless cigarette is one of the greatest menaces to life and property when carelessly handled. Last year, careless smokers were responsible for 120,000 fires—many of which caused death, injury and high property damage. Will the total be greater this year?

BE VIGILANT

Vigilance is a law for motorists, to protect lives through careful handling of a car and in keeping the car in condition that it is safe to be on the road. Fall and winter months are dangerous driving months. Annually we warn of streets where fallen leaves cause slipping and sliding, when pavements are wet. When snow and ice follow, the hazards are greater. Many people are driving older model cars, and such autos need checking more frequently. Lives depend upon the diligence of drivers. The nation set the lowest traffic death rate in history, during the first five months of 1918, and this despite the considerable increase in the amount of travel. Let us help make the record as good for the final months of 1918.

LIFE-GIVING SOURCE WASTED

Turn a faucet, there it is. Work a pump handle, it is still there.

Water, Water, everywhere, with never a thought but that it will always remain as plentiful. Few of us stop to consider that the water supply in some places is so low, it has reached the danger point. The average person requires more than 100 gallons each day, this being used for the most part by farms and industries that serve the public. Air conditioning has further depleted the water supply. The we are drawing too heavily on our underground water supply, we can save reaching a deadly danger stage by conservation. Nature works to provide it, but man is using it faster than nature provides. We know what it means to cut trees faster than nature provides. We know what it means to continually use land for agriculture and not enrich the soil. Natural resources must be conserved, protected, replenished. We can't live without them.

FREEDOM'S TABLET

October 28 is the birthday anniversary of the Statue of Liberty. The famous poem of Emma Lazarus, inscribed on the tablet, is a fitting memorial.

THE NEW COLOSSUS

Not like the brazen giant of Greek fame,

With conquering limbs astride

From land to land,

Here at our sea-washed, sunset

Gates shall stand

A mighty woman with a torch,

Whose flame

Is the imprisoned lightning, and her name,

Mother of exiles, from her

beacon-hand

Gloves world-wide welcome, her

mild eyes command

The air-bridged harbor that twin islands frame.

"Keep ancient lands, your storied penns!" cries she

With silent lips, "Give me your tired, your poor,

Your huddled masses yearning to

breathe free,

The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.

Bend these, the homeless, tempest-

tast to me,

Lift my lamp beside the golden door!"

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES AT CALVARY CHURCH

The Reverend Rowan Pearce of Philadelphia will conclude this Sunday evening the first week of a three weeks Evangelistic Campaign at the Calvary Bible Church in Mount Joy. He will be speaking Friday night at 7:45 p.m. and Sunday night at 7:30 p.m.

Due to the absence of Mr. Pearce

on Saturday night, the Reverend Lucius B. Compton of Asheville, North Carolina will be the speaker. This service will be at 7:45 p.m. Mr. Compton will be speaking on Sunday morning at the 10:30 a.m. service and beginning November 1 and continuing thru November 14. Mr. Compton is no newcomer to this area having been engaged previously for a campaign in the Shippen Street E. C. Church in Lancaster. He will be speaking in this church on Sunday night October 31. The Evangelist has held Evangelistic Campaigns in some of the largest tabernacles in England on the Continent, Canada and the United States. He also has spent some time in ministry in Jerusalem. Mr. Compton is Founder and President of Elida Home for underprivileged children in Asheville, an institution chartered under the laws of the State of North Carolina. Besides this office which he holds, he is also president of the International Union of Gospel Missions. The Water Street Mission in Lancaster is affiliated with this Union.

An invitation is extended to all the friends of Mr. Compton to share in the inspiration and fellowship of these services.

GOOD RESPONSE TO APPEAL

Trinity Lutheran Church wishes to thank the people of Mount Joy for the fine response to its appeal for clothing for Lutheran World Relief. Many gifts of clothing were received from the people of Mount Joy and Florin, as well as from the members of the congregation. 550 pounds of partly worn clothing, sheets, pillow cases, towels, comforts, blankets, and shoes, were sent to the warehouse at Easton, Pa. Many notes were pinned to the garments and tucked into pockets. We trust we may hear if you have received a response to these notes of friendship.
