

OWL LAFFS BASKET BALL

A WISE OWL

During the recent heavy rains we had around here reminded me of an incident which occurred about a year ago. A certain fellow was out in the woods near Mount Gretna when he was suddenly caught in a severe down-pour of rain. He saw a large hollow log and crawled into it to get out of the rain. Well it rained and rained and finally the log got so wet and swelled so tight the fellow just couldn't get out.

Right then and there his sins began passing before him when suddenly he remembered he had not paid his subscription to The Bulletin for over two years.

Immediately he felt so small that he had no trouble crawling out of that log and go home. He paid his paper next day and his label reads paid in advance ever since.

We still have a few subscribers who should get caught in the rain.

Don't have much time for the column this week, cause it is Farm Show time and I could not miss that. See you at the baked potato stand.

Two small chaps on S. Barbara St., were telling each other what they had requested for Christmas and got. The one said: I got a drum, a pair of roller skates a loud tin horn and a cap pistol! "What do you want those things for?" asked Willie.

"To make money," replied George.

"To make money?" Willie queried.

"Yes, Mother will pay me not to beat the drum, dad will pay me not to leave the skates on the upstairs landing, sister's beaux will bribe me not to blow the horn behind the living room sofa and grandma will make it worth my while not to shoot off the cap pistol," explained Willie.

That boy will get along alright.

Next Christmas give a dachshund—then the entire family can pet it at the same time.

We like the man who comes right out and says what he thinks when he agrees with us.

After his first dancing lesson, little Tom was asked by his mother how he got along. "Aww it's easy, all you got to do is to keep turning around and wiping your shoes on the floor," he explained. —Simple enough.

If you, by any chance were down at the movies one night last week and saw Burton and Nan start up Marietta St., and then do a quick right about face, hiding sheepish grins, it is because Shupp forgot he parked the car down on Main Street, and not on Marietta St. —My! My!

Statistics show that if you drink a glass of water every day for 1,200 months you will live to be a hundred.

When Jake Corll went home and complained of a "strep" throat, he didn't blame it on the see-sawing temperatures, the inclement weather, wet feet, not being dressed warm enough, or the fact that every other person everywhere is on the sick list. Heck no, he had to be different. He blamed it on working too hard.

Secretary Charlie Dillinger notified the members of the Board of Health of a meeting to be held at Sheetz's Funeral Parlor. Sam Miller says the last meeting was held eight years ago, back in 1941 and Doc, Stoner says he hopes the place of meeting is no indication of it being their last one. Let's all hope not.

Last Friday night two local businessmen went to Philly to see

The unique situation was brought about Friday night when both Elizabethtown and Manheim Boro, the two undefeated teams before the holidays, suffered defeats, the former at the hands of Marietta, 42 to 38, and the latter at the hands of Mount Joy, 50 to 48.

As a result of the two games, Marietta moved up a notch to complete the trio of leaders, Mount Joy is fourth, while fifth is East Donegal, which topped East Hempfield, 40 to 29, in the third game in the section.

Mount Joy advanced through the shooting of George McCue, early scoring leader in the league, who added 22 points to his tally as the locals rallied to nip Manheim by one basket in the last minute of play. Manheim led, 18 to 6 at the quarter, 25 to 24 at the half and 36 to 33, going into the last thrilling period at Manheim, Dick Rhoades had 21 points for the losers.

MILLERSVILLE NOSED OUT OUR LEGION NEAR THE END

Big Ed Falk, Millersville marksman and Skip Libhart, Mt. Joy basket ace, duelled for scoring honors for the evening and ended up tied at 26 points each. The locals opened the final period with a drive that overcame a Millersville lead but the victors bounced back with a rally that won the game.

Church of Brethren will have preaching services in the local church this Sunday preceded by Sunday School.

The Ladies Aid Society of the local church met in the sewing room of the church Tuesday with the following present: Mrs. Harriet Kaylor, Mary Shearer, Ida Brubaker, Alice Eshleman, Ada Breneman, Martha Hess, Salome Shank, Ruth Eshleman, Anna Breneman, Naomi Hoover and Ida Becker.

Mrs. Anna Butterbaugh and daughter, Mary and Ruth Ann, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoover on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kipp, announce the birth of a daughter, at the Lancaster Osteopathic hospital.

Mr. Harry G. Heisey has filed suit for damages of $392, as a result of a 2-car collision in Elizabethtown last August.

Everybody in this locality reads The Bulletin—that's why its advertisers get such excellent results.
