

Cameraman Will

made with the widely known Landry Studios of Upper Darby, Pa. who are specialists in this type of work, to take the pictures.
The facts and only requirements are as follows: All children of this trading area are eligible. There will be no charge of any kind. There are no strings attached to it. You do not have to buy anything nor do you even have to be a reader of The Bulletin for your child to be photographed. Appointments are not necessary. The only requirements is that the child be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Remember the time and place: At the Evangelical U. B. Church on Saturday, April 9th, the hour: 1:00 p. m. to 8:00 p. m. Don't forget you get one 5 x 7 Silvertone Portrait FREE.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Amos A. Garman, Bainbridge R1, announce the engagement of their daughter, Esther Ruth, to Raymond B. Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Shoemaker, Manheim R2. The wedding will take place in the near future.
Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hawthorne, Marietta R1, announce the engagement of their daughter, Anna Mary, to Robert A. Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hess, Mt. Joy RD2. They will be married this summer.

Miss Hawthorne is office manager of the W. T. Grant Store, E-town and Mr. Hess is a student at the Elizabethtown College.

BID FOR RETURN OF TWO PROPERTIES IS DENIED

The request of a Bainbridge man to have the deeds of two properties transferred to two persons returned to him was refused in an opinion handed down in court today by Judge Shaeffer.

The court had previously upheld the deeds which John Farrian had transferred to Meredith E. McLain and Tony B. Simone, both of Bainbridge. The properties are located on Arch St., Bainbridge.

Farrian had claimed that he was intoxicated when he transferred the properties and thought he was willing them and not deeding them. The Judge pointed out that Farrian and the two men had made a written agreement and that it now stands.

KIDDIES—

DO YOU WANT YOUR Pictures Taken and Published

ALL FOR FREE—PLUS ONE 5x7 SILVERTONE PORTRAIT FREE

If you do, you're in the right community—and all you have to do is be around at the right time.

SATURDAY, APRIL 9th
1 P. M. — 8 P. M.

St. Mark's Evangelical U. B. Church

All children of Mount Joy and surrounding areas covered by The Bulletin are invited and urged to participate in this featured event, regardless of age.

Parents are also asked to co-operate because we do not want a single youngster to be disappointed or you either, because who knows, maybe your child is destined to fame and fortune so let's not omit any of them.

The LANDRY STUDIOS of Upper Darby, Pa. have been signed for the job, and with their eighteen years of experience we know you will be pleased with the results.

There are positively no strings attached to this offer, no cost or obligation of any kind, finished portraits may be purchased from the studio representatives if you so desire, but it is not compulsory and no high-pressure salesmanship will be used. And whether you purchase any portraits or not, you get one 5x7 Silvertone portrait absolutely FREE and pictures will be reproduced in our forth-coming series entitled "OUR FUTURE CITIZENS" at no cost or obligation to you.

Several passes will be taken of each child or children giving you a nice selection to choose from for the picture you want run in the paper, children must be brought by a parent or guardian, proofs of all passes will be submitted to the parents and cuts of the approved passes will then be prepared and published in this paper.

Nothing is so fragile or fleeting as childhood. Capture it forever with portraits. Take advantage of this offer. Let's have all "OUR FUTURE CITIZENS" pictures in the paper, and don't forget you get one 5x7 Silvertone portrait absolutely FREE.
