Week's Best Recipe

Salmon in Cucumber Aspic: two cucumbers, one onion, one quart of water, 1-2 teaspoons pepper, two tablespoons gelatin, dissolved in 1-2 cup cold water, one cup flaked salmon. Peel and slice cucumbers and onion, add salt, pepper and water and simmer an hour. Strain and pour over gelatin which has been softened in 1-2 cup cold water. Cool until it begins to stiffen, then add salmon and turn into individual molds. Garnish with cucumber and radish roses.

Summer Dresses

Combine plain and striped chambray to make an attractive dress. Do this by inserting bands of plain in gored or gathered skirt of stripe, with waist of plain and collar and cuffs of striped material. Follow same idea with plaid and a plain color chambray. Dots are very popular so use dark background with light dot and then combine with light background and dark dot for a pretty frock. This is very effective in silk, with a matching jacket. Pique in snow white is being used widely for dress trimming, taking shape in a very large pointed collar and of deep, deep cuffs. Sun-back dresses take the center of the fashion stage and with accompanying jackets they can be worn for dress-up or sport. They are now shown in cottons, silks, metallics woven cotton and taffeta.

Around The House

Put a small hand brush, with bristle side up, in the soap dish. Keep soap on top of the brush and when you need to use the brush it will be full of soap. Save soap slivers and put them in a dish of water by the sink and use on greasy pots and pans. Stick a piece of adhesive tape on the wall before putting in tacks to hold pictures. This prevents the tack from cracking the plas-

Junior Class Play On April 21 & 22

DAYLIGHT SAVING DADDY

Robert Garland of Pittsburgh, known as "the father of daylight saving time," died Tuesday at the Masonic Home at Elizabethtown from a cerebral hemorrhage. He was eighty-six.

Build cupboards or sliding racks into wasted space under stairs. This makes a convenient place to keep bridge tables, folding chairs and games.

More Egg Tree

eggs were not decorated. They have moved from the home and do not have a tree this year.

In the early days the eggs were painted in bright colors or etched in folk motifs, and placed on the bare branches of bushy young hardwood trees. A recent adoption has been to use a limb cut from a tree and stripped of all the leaves, for indoor display. This is what the Metropolitan has done.

The Metropolitan lecturer has in some cases followed designs found on objects in the museum. His hand painted examples include a purple egg with white pussywillow on it; a red egg with a yellow stripe and a red and blue rooster on it; green, black and blue ones with dainty white flower forms, and one elegant number in blue and gold.

The eggs were pierced and blown before the color was applied. So while many of the designs are very traditional some abstractions are included.

The BULLETIN AND NOTE THE DIFFERENCE

How can I get the most out of my money?

Briefly stated, here is a sound plan: (1) Deposit all income in a checking account so you will know where your dollars go. (2) Estimate your fixed expense and bank it until you need it. (3) Build a reserve with regular bank thrift deposits; life insurance; and U. S. Savings Bonds. (4) Spend the rest wisely by shopping for the things you need. (5) Buy only the luxuries you can afford.

WHERE COULD YOU FIND MORE SECURITY...

than in your own home in a quiet little country town... or on a farm in a green valley at the foothills... or on a half acre within commuting distance of the city?

Ideal, indeed,—for a growing family and a tranquil way of life. But the sense of security can be deceiving—particularly so, when one fails to consider the inevitable "if".

—if the farmer becomes unable to harvest his crops...

—if the paycheck ceases due to the sudden death of the wage earner...

—if the mortgage unexpectedly becomes a crushing burden on the family.

These are a few of the big "ifs" that should be considered in any measure of true security. The answer, and the only answer for the average man, is the cooperative protection provided by mutual life insurance.

Wherever you live, whatever you do, adequate life insurance is the vital foundation on which to build enduring security for your family.
