Laurel Festival At Wellsboro June 24

In classic mythology, the laurel tree was sacred to Apollo, the sun god. According to the legend, he loved and wooed the beautiful nymph Daphne, daughter of the river god Peneus.

Delighting only in woodland sports and in the spoils of the chase, Daphne sought to elude her handsome lover. Though she had fled, swifter than the wind, she saw that she could not escape and so called her father for help. Thereupon he changed her into a laurel tree, which ever afterward was sacred to the sun god.

Mountain laurel, a member of the heath family, ranges from New Brunswick to the Gulf States and west as far as Arkansas, but flourishes most abundantly in the Allegheny Mountains. Its dark, glossy leaves, pointed at the end and oblong in shape, are used in large quantities in making wreaths.

By the Act of Assembly No. 107, approved May 5, 1933, Pennsylvania adopted the Mountain Laurel as the State Flower.

The State Laurel Festival in Wellsboro comes in the delightful month of June, when all natures conspire to make man appreciate her exquisite raiment. The festival itself honors youth and beauty and is set in a truly beautiful town at the exact time when the laurel is in maximum bloom.

In June the woods abound in the clusters of delicate pink and white flowers. The serenely found in myriads sheltered spots of the beautiful forests of this Canyon Country will long live in the memory of visitors.

On the old winding roads one has frequent glimpses of wild life and hears the sound of rushing stream. Finally there is the breath-taking view of Pine Creek hundreds of feet below. There are several points from which to see this inspiring wonderland. Leonard Harrison Park should, of course, be seen by every visitor to the Canyon Country. From Look-Out Rock a wide spread view of the Canyon opens before you. Colon Point Park, is opposite Leonard Harrison Park, has several look out points which are favored by many visitors as the sides of the gorge appear still more precipitous at this point. Whatever approach is chosen the views are always beautiful regardless of the season. But in June the laurel is profuse; overhead an early summer sun sends its dancing beams among the leafy foliage to mingle with the whispering breezes in the trees. Then it is perfection that is matchless.

The Canyon Country is a gift of nature offering many delightful days of exhilarating exploration by car and afoot. Leonard Harrison State Forest Park provides ample parking space, picnic shelters and fire-places, fresh water and comfort facilities. Here wanders the Pine Creek, known to the Indians as the River of Pines, and here is the woodland flower sacred to Apollo, the sun god.

In Wellsboro, almost at the edge of the forest, the annual Laurel Festival will be celebrated on June 24th. High point of the affair will be the crowning of the Queen of the Laurel by an important state official. The Laurel Queen will be selected from 75 young ladies chosen from the junior and senior high school classes of the schools throughout the state by their own classmates on the basis of charm, poise and personality.

THE LOW DOWN from HICKORY GROVE

Sure is funny how we put up with the antics of Uncle Sambo. The old boy used to quite a dignified, responsible kind of geezer. But now look at him—a foot in every door, almost. And instead of setting us an example in thrift and industry, he is out there with his coat off, chasing rainbows. Wants to be the guy to fix everything—show the electric fellows how to turn the light on and off—say how much to pay down on a washing machine—how full to fill the corn crib and the kind of padlock on the door—what kind of a bed in the hospital and what kind of hospital—who is to yank an abscessed molar and at how much for each and when he will do it. If this nation was made up of 2-year olds only, Sambo could be no busier looking after us.

Figure it is okay and all right for the Govt. to keep a weather eye peeled and sort of look out some of us more or less lame and halt—he kind of an umpire and a referee—but for the Govt. to go a la Europe—socialistic, like it is leaning now, we are not going to come to any good end.

It would sure be nice reading to wake up some morning and find that Congress has called a halt—and is closing up shop and coming home.

Your With the Low Down, JIMMY

Jr. Legion Defeats Marietta 10 To 2

The Mount Joy Jr. Legion baseball team got back into the win column on Tuesday evening by downing Marietta, 10-2 on the M.J.H.S. field. This was the local teams 4th win in five games this season, and second win in league competition.

George McCue again turned in an excellent pitching performance for his third win in three starts this season. McCue fanned fifteen batters to run his strikeout total to 33 in 19 1/2 innings this year.

Marietta scored one run in the first inning. Mount Joy knotted the count in the third when Don Eshleman singled, went to second on an error, was sacrificed to third and stole home.

In the fourth inning Marietta took the lead by scoring another run. However in the fifth Dick Boyd singled, stole second and scored on Eshleman's double, Eshleman stole third and scored on a squeeze play by Shupp to put the locals ahead.

Mount Joy scored 7 runs in the sixth inning to sew up the game. This inning was featured by Eshleman's triple with bases loaded, his steal home and George McCue's 2nd homerun of the season to deep right field.

Millersville comes to Mt. Joy this evening, and next Tuesday, June 21, Mt. Joy travels to Elizabethtown. Thursday, July 23, the locals play at Maytown.
