

OWL LAFFS

A WISE OWL

As I write this column I am trying to determine if "life time" pens are everything they are cracked up to be.

Met a femme who is a Miss America candidate if I ever saw one.

Never hit a man when he is down...he may get up.

The first grade teacher took one look at Wilmer and knew he was going to give her trouble.

A married man is a player who has been penalized for holding.

Two men were hotly discussing the merits of a book. One said: "No, John, you can't appreciate it, as I, who have written a book, can, since you never wrote a book."

A downtown man complained: "You'll drive me out of my mind."

Which reminds me of the Marjetta St. golfer who hollered: "This is a terrible golf course caddy!"

There are two kinds of women; those who wish to marry and those who have not the slightest desire not to.

Kicking gets you nowhere unless you are a chorus girl.

Have you by any chance come across one of those coughing crows, football fans of Saturday night? They're really hoarse.

Listing his age at 108, a hillbilly applied for a driver's license.

After a score of personal questions the clerk asked: "How did you live so long?"

A Senior girl is thataway about an E-town boy who, when dating, does nothing but talk and think football.

We also know a local maiden lady who sneaks to Philly and to Baltimore to the wrestling matches and will never sit anyplace but the first row.

"If money is the root of all evil you can have the rest of the tree."

Donegal Airport News

Last weeks fine flying weather found many local pilots flying to both the York and Reading Fairs.

Norman Sprecher and Rev. Summy dropped leaflets for the Calvary Bible Church.

Adam Greer flew to York on Sunday.

Leland Bailey received his private pilots certificate during the week.

George Fisher dropped leaflets during the annual E-town Sales Days.

The Calques Aero Corporation welcomed a new member during the week, Clair W. Sharpe.

George Minick visited the airport at Campbellstown.

Arthur Hostetter, Harold Newcomer and Stehman Landis visited the airports at York and Lancaster.

Reynold Garman flew to Wilmington on Sunday.

John Kunkle and Sam Schroeder flew to the Lancaster Municipal airport on Saturday.

Jack Martin treated his Porto Rican farm helpers to airplane rides on Sunday with David Heisey as the pilot.

MT. JOY JR. LEGION BASEBALL SEASON RECORDS

The Mount Joy Jr. Legion baseball team completed the 1949 season with a record of 9 wins, 7 losses and 2 ties.

In individual batting honors for the season Don Eshleman led the team with 386 followed by the only other 300 hitter John Bowman at 308.

In individual pitching honors for the season Don Eshleman led the team with 386 followed by the only other 300 hitter John Bowman at 308.

MUTT AND JEFF

Chas. Good, Fish; THE LOW DOWN

Two small dams have been erected in Charles Run and Donegal Run.

Our Association with the cooperation of the state has conducted a survey of the Little Chickies Creek, to secure bass in said stream.

But the old rascal's case is not completely hopeless yet. I write my man there—if enough people write—will work wonders.

So, all you non-writers, get hold of yourself, sharpen a couple of lead pencils, and write—don't just gripe back and forth with your neighbor.

I want to thank at this time the various committees and their chairmen who participated in our program to make them a success.

16 ROOM CORNWALL MANSION TO BE RECREATION CENTER

The 520 acre John Coleman Allden estate at Cornwall, on which there is a 16 room mansion, was purchased at public sale by the Clothing Workers Union to be used as a recreation center.

The price paid was $88,000. At Clarks Ferry a tractor-trailer loaded with 25,000 lbs. fresh tomatoes crashed into a house.

There's going to be an awful lot of disappointed people come next spring. Since Clayton Newcomer sold his lot on Donegal Springs Road he has had to cancel all his strawberry orders.
