AMERICAN BANKING IN ACTION
REWARD FOR EXTRA EFFORT In some countries, people are forced to produce under the threat of punishment, imprisonment or death. How different it is in America! Here workers receive extra rewards for greater effort. Extra rewards which they can spend or save, as they choose. And those who save are free to choose where they will put their money—in a bank, in government bonds or in new enterprises. Let's keep the American way.
