Farmers Deluge State With Tax Refund Requests

Farmers by the thousands have deluged the Commonwealth with requests for refunds of gasoline taxes allowed under a 1949 law.

The State Board of Finance and Revenue said some 12,000 requests already have been tabulated for the quarterly period ended October 15. It added that many hundreds more poured in at deadline time which have not yet been tallied.

The law permits Pennsylvania's 178,000 farmers to receive refund of half of the five-cent state tax they pay on gasoline used in food production.

It was estimated when the law was signed that the refund cost might run as high as $1,500,000 annually but the present application figures indicate it will be far less than that.

The 1949 Legislature authorized the State Board of Finance and Revenue to make quarterly repayments upon application by the farmers. The Board has sent out more than 80,000 forms throughout the State to granges, farm cooperatives, other farm organizations and gasoline stations in rural areas.

After a farmer fills out a form and returns it to the Board here, he gets a code number and another form on which to apply for reimbursements.

Receipts for the amount of gasoline bought for use in farm machinery in the production of food must accompany the second form. The form also must be accompanied by a $1.50 filing fee to be paid quarterly.

The Oct. 15 filing deadline covered the month of July, August and September. The next deadline will be on Jan. 15.

Gasoline used in tractors and other gas-line powered farm machinery is subject to a refund, but not that used in cars, trucks and jeeps and similar vehicles.

Fixing Up the Farm by BURTON WILLIAMS

Cart Eases Work

THERE'S an old saying that the easiest way to do a thing is also the best and most efficient way. That certainly holds true of many a laborious and time-consuming farm chore. Despite our modern mechanization, there still are various little jobs around a farm that can be made easier by taking a leaf out of the book of that worthy ancient who first struck upon the idea of the wheel.

you much time and effort in moving soil from one location to another, or for carrying milk cans, sprayers, machines, tools, bags of feed and so on.

The cart is simply and inexpensively constructed. It consists of a plain wooden crate equipped with a handle or trace and mounted on two rubber-tired wheels from an old automobile. The crate, made of 2 x 4's, may have a gate at one end.

Getting a saw into such a vehicle should not be difficult. If she balks at entering, put some grain in the front of the cart and entice her in. If she persists in her refusal, put a basket over her head and back her in.

Receipts for the amount of gasoline bought for use in farm machinery in the production of food must accompany the second form. The form also must be accompanied by a $1.50 filing fee to be paid quarterly.

The Oct. 15 filing deadline covered the month of July, August and September. The next deadline will be on Jan. 15.

Gasoline used in tractors and other gas-line powered farm machinery is subject to a refund, but not that used in cars, trucks and jeeps and similar vehicles.

Murder By Two

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

IT SEEMS to be universally presupposed," said Inspector Ben Odell, "that people who aren't in their own element are at a disadvantage."

"I'm thinking of the time Detective Sergeant Rod Upshur went up to Round Pond for his summer vacation. Rod was city bred and city raised. He worked on the police force of one of the country's largest cities. He didn't know a great deal about the country and country ways. But he knew human nature, and he was smart."

"Rod was staying at one of those summer camps and was having a pretty dull time, when Henry Graves, the owner, came to him with a request."

"There's been a drowning up the river a ways," he explained. "Jed Thomas, the local officer, isn't so sure but what there's foul play. I know it's out of your jurisdiction, but we'd appreciate having you lend us a hand." He smiled flatteringly. "You see, your fame as a detector of crime is far reaching."

"Jed Thomas, a farmer by trade, was congenial and willing to let Rod assume the entire burden."

"Fact is, Mr. Upshur, there's been a feud hereabouts. Between the Hallams and the Spencers."

"Well, sir, couple days back Herm and Punk Hallam come to me an' says they was bait diggin' in their lower pasture and suddenly they see a boat with Pat Spencer in it come sweepin' around the bend. He was clear across the river, which is about 200 yards wide there, an' they claim he hit a submerged log and stuck. They claim he tried to push himself off with an oar an' the oar slipped an' it an' him fell overboard. Well, sir, Pat can't swim an' he just naturally drowned."

"Jed Thomas drove Rod out to the Hallam farm and introduced him to Herm and Punk. They were big strapping fellows, smug, amused."

"Sure, sure, we'll go down to the river with yuh," Herm said in reply to Rod's question.

"I see," Rod remarked to Jed. "That you recovered the oar Pat Spencer lost overboard."

"Yep," replied Jed, and not too happily. "I found it caught in some weeds along the bank about 15 yards downstream. I guess he musta lost it, just like Punk and Herm said."

"Punk and Herm laughed."
