Collided With Big Stone Truck

Walter Bailey Jr., five, East Petersburg suffered head injuries when his tricycle and a stone quarry truck collided on N. Main St., East Petersburg.

An emergency operation to relieve pressure on the brain was performed that night. He sustained a laceration of the scalp which required five sutures and brush burns of the forehead. Taken to the hospital by ambulance, he became unconscious while undergoing treatment.

The truck was owned by the Binkley and Ober Stone Quarry of East Petersburg and was operated lights on the surrounding shrubby Harry McMinn, Lancaster R8.

McMinn said he was driving south on Main St. and as he was passing a tractor trailer truck headed north, the boy rode out from the rear of the vehicle on the tricycle. McMinn said swerved to the right in an effort to avoid the accident but the left rear wheel of his truck struck the tricycle and tossed the boy to the street, causing him to suffer head injuries.
