The Community's Banks of st The Community's Banks Elected Their Directors The Mount Joy Bulletin

this locality.

food ideal it or

25c

25c

35c

5c

First National Bank and Trust Company, Mt. Joy

holders of the First National Bank The surplus now is $225,000. and Trust Co. was held on Tuesday in the bank building.

Directors were elected as follows:

The reorganization effective on keeper; Wilbur Hawthorne, teller Beyer. and bookkeeper; Lois Miller, sten-ted by the various banks thruout keeper; Charles Latchford is the messenger and janitor, Louis S. May, Esq., counsel.

The bank increased its surplus

Mount Joy Bank

I. D. Stehman, W. A. Coventry. as directors.

The reorganization was held this Tuesday morning follows: Henry morning as follows: Martin S. H. Eby, president. Mr. Eby has Musser, president; John B. Nissley, the First National for 34 years and ier and trust officer; Victor Shank, was re-elected president for his assistant cashier and trust officer; tenth term. S. Nissley Gingrich, Norman Sprecher, assistant cashier comer, secretary; E. M. Bomberger, Longenecker, tellers; Ruth Coble eashier; R. Fellenbaum, trust offi- Kraybill, stenographer, Ruth cer and assistant cashier; Warren Shenk, Christine R. Weidman, H. Bentzel, assistant cashier and Clerks; Florence Miller and Lois assistant trust officer; Joseph Bre- B. Hostetter, bookkeepers; Isaiah tellers; Dorothy Gingrich, book- Solicitors, Arnold, Bricker and

(Turn to Page 2)

Weddings Thruout COLLISION AT LANCASTER Our Community During Past Week eight, Mount Joy RD2 and George R. Sullivan, seventy-six, Merion

Mary Ellen Book Luke R. Bomberger

The marriage of Miss Mary Ellen Book, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Book, of Bareville, ing east on Chestnut St. when and Luke R. Bomberger, son of struck on the right side by Sulli-Mr. and Mrs. Elam M. Bomberger, van's car which failed to halt for of this boro, took place at 11 a. a stop sign. Sullivan claimed he m. Saturday at the home of the did stop for the sign, while headbride. The ceremony was per- ed north on Shippen Street, but formed by Bishop G. Parke Book, did not see Williams approaching grandfather of the bride.

M. Arlene Landis, of Willow St. was maid of honor. Miss Betty Jane Book, of Ronks, was brides- 76 YEAR OLD MAN WAS maid and Cornelia Ann Book, of GRANTED A DIVORCE Bareville was junior bridesmaid.

peach colored satin and the bride- vorce in court Friday. maids wore yellow satin.

Elton Bomberger was best man

A trio composed of Mrs. John ried June 18, 1901. W. Neff, of Manheim; Miss Louise Hess, of Lititz; and Miss Jeanne Kreider, of Manheim, sang. Gift receivers were Mrs. Joe Hess, of Maytown; Miss Rhoda Buchen, of Farmersville; and Miss Marion Burkart, of near Bareville.

After a reception for about 100 guests at the home of the bride, gan plans to rebuild a block of the couple went on a wedding trip Summer cottages destroyed in a to the South. They will reside $100,000 fire last Nov. 27.

(Turn to page 3)

The Local News For The Past Week Very Briefly Told

injured when struck by a taxi on Stine, Harrisburg, secretary. the street at Elizabethtown.

was bitten on the thumb by a pet A number of the cottages were driving too fast for conditions.

LADY FRACTURES WRIST IN VERY UNUSUAL MANNER

Miss Grace Holwager, sixty-four, OF OUR FARMERS' CO-OP. this boro, Main St., suffered a fractured right wrist when she was struck by a falling roll of Farmers Cooperative Association lincleum she was inspecting at a will be held in the Evangelical Unifurniture store at Lancaster on ted Brethren social room. Tuesday. She was treated at St. Joseph's Hospital.

SCHOOL MERGER PARLEY

IS HELD AT MAYTOWN Merger of the school districts of Mt. Joy, Marietta and E. Donegal Twp. was discussed at a meeting Monday night at Maytown.

Each district decided to appoint delegates to study the question further.

Rev. Dallas Ziegler of the Evangelical Congregational church is a surgical patient at the St. Joseph's hospital.

The annual meeting of the stock- $25,000 at the close of the year

Union National

Henry H. Eby, John E. Melhorn, Phares R. Nissley, Clarence S. Amos H. Risser, Paris H. Hostetter, Newcomer, Henry H. Koser, John Dr. E. W. Newcomer, Daniel M. B. Nissley, Unwert Prince S. Thursday Eveng. Dr. E. W. Newcomer, Daniel M. B. Nissley, Harvey Rettew, Martin Wolgemuth, John M. Booth, S. S. Musser, Alvin J. Reist and Nissley Gingrich and J. Musser Claude H. Grosh were re-elected

been a member of the board of vice president; Carl S. Krall, cashvice president; Dr. E. W. New- Lester G. Hostetter and Linneaus neman, Mrs. Elizabeth Strickler, Sumpman, messenger and janitor;

RD2 MAN IN AUTO

Damage in excess of $200 resulted from a collision of cars driven by Harold W. Williams, twentyeight, Mount Joy RD2 and George Station, Montgomery County, at Chestnut and shippen Streets at Lancaster, Thursday. No one was injured.

Williams told police he was drivdue to another car headed south on Shippen Street.

A seventy-six year old man who The bride wore a gown of ivory charged his wife, aged seventy-one satin. The maid of honor wore deserted him, was granted a di-

Harvey H. Nolt. 131 N. Eighth St. Columbia received a divorce from for his brother and ushers were Mary Ann Nolt, Maytown. He Leon Denlinger, of East Peters- charged she deserted him on Jan. burg and Joe Hess of Maytown. 17, 1908. The couple were mar-

Plan To Rebuild Gretna Cottages

The Mt. Gretna Camp Meeting Association met Saturday and be-following the purchase of all plots kept at the high school. in the razed block. The entire rity for the purchase of the lots. | music. D. E. Young, Harrisburg, was during the session while William H. Horner, Oberlin, was chosen John G. Meckley, fifty, was badly vice president; and Dr. C. H.

Sixteen cottages were destroyed Robert Kolb, 10, New Providence, by the fire and ten others damaged. owned by Lancaster countians. Harry G. Shonk, Elizabethtown The fire also threatened the camp R2 was prosecuted at Manheim for meeting grounds auditorium of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

ANNUAL SOCIAL MEETING

Next Monday, January 16th, the annual meeting of the Mount Joy

A turkey dinner will be served at 6:45 p. m., to the members and families and invited guests.

Mr. J. Kenneth Stern, President of the American Institute of Cooperation, will be the speaker.

OYSTER SUPPER JANUARY 28 The Ladies Bible Class of the Landisville Church of God will serve an oyster supper at the Fire Hall on Saturday, January 28 from four to eight o'clock.

Mr. George Germer was in the a high building. Firemen rescued Rheems, twin daughters on Friday ning. He spoke to the clubs on the Landisville, $650; Salunga, $250; Columbia hospital for observation.

VOL. XLIX, NO. 33

Mount Joy, Pa., Thursday Afternoon, January 12, 1950

$2.00 a Year in Advance

At the regular January meeting of Friendship Fire Company No. 1 the year by past president Zerphey. They are as follows: John Hendrix, president; Levi G. Dillinger, cond vice president; Richard Divet, recording secretary; Thomas J. B. Brown III, assistant; Rescoe Hassinger, financial secretary and treasurer; Henry Zerphey, assistant; Rev. Thomas McGregor, the chaplain; Harry Hendrix, trustee for three years; Ray Myers, fire chief; Samuel B. Miller, assistant; Christ Shirk, chief engineer; Jacol. Arndt, chief chemicalman; Paul Brandt, chief hose director; Christ Charles, chief hook and ladderman; Mike Good, captain of police; Thomas Brown III, delegate to state convention; Harry Hendrix, alternate: Roscoe Hassinger, and Paul Brandt, delegates to co convention; Ray Myers and Christ Shirk, alternates; James Markley, Christ Charles, Earl Derr, David Shelly and Horace Wertz, entertainment committee. The firemen decided to pay $500 to the borough. The payment, (Turn to Page 4)

Motorist Escaped; Struck From Rear

James R. Tome, seventeen, Pine Street, this boro, escaped unhurt Sunday night when his auto was struck from behind by another car and forced down an embankment on the Harrisburg Pike at the Rheems underpass intersection.

State Policeman Donald J. Hollywood said the crash occurred at 8:50 p. m. when Tome tried to make a left turn from Route 230 onto the Rheems road and was struck on the left rear by an auto operated by Robert Mountenay, wenty-six, Doylestown, Pa.

Mountenay, employed as a deputy in the Attorney General's Happened At office, told police he thought Tome was merely pulling out to overvehicle was pushed about 50 feet and ran down an embankment about four feet high, shaking up the driver. Total damage was estimated at $350.

OLD TIME SQUARE DANCE

Like square dancing, fun, music Plans call for cleaning up debris | Then mark Thursday, January 26th at the fire site, with negogations on your calendar as a date to be

The Parents Band Club of Mount area will then be replotted into Joy will sponsor a square dance arger lots and offered for sale. from 8 to 11 p. m. with Jim Hen-The former owners will have pri- dricks, of Lancaster furnishing the

Mrs. Linton is chairman of the named president of the association refreshments and Jay Shirk is in charge of publicity.

Brief News From The Dailies For Quick Reading

Dial phones will be installed at buildings. Of all the peculiar fines handed down by Justice, at Middletown a $5 or a pint of blood. They bled 'em. | ing. Councilman Charles Keller, sixty, of Wrightsville, was arrested for slashing a contractor in the face with a pocket knife. Television network setups are expected to double during this year. John L. Lewis has ordered 66,-000 of his coal diggers back to work. A New York newspaper says the Justice Department is ready to compromise its suit against th

At Lancaster a man erecting a television aerial was stranded atop

Installed Officers School Board OKS Building Plans

UP-TO-THE-MINUTE

building plans for a new elementhe officers elect were installed for tary school building in Rohrerstown. Details of specifications and drawings were explained to the board at a meeting this week first vice-president; Earl Zink, se- by Ross W. Singleton, Lancaster architect.

J. M. Swarr, board secretary, disclosed Thursday evening that if official state approval is given the plans this week or early next week, the board will promptly advertise for construction bids.

The new structure at Robrerstown, to be erected on a new fiveacre plot southwest of the present site will be a one-story building containing six classrooms, a gymnatorium, cafeteria and kinddergarten. Modern ventilating equipment and a vapor heating sys'em will be installed.

The present two-story brick schoolhouse at Rohrerstown houses elementary pupils of seven grades in four classrooms.

SPOKE TO THE ROTARIANS

The Rev. Howard Blackburn, pasor of the Methodist Church of Leola was the speaker.

W. DePerrot was the only visitg Rotarian present.

Two important announcements shey April 16 to 18th, sponsored by risburg Pike, was discharged on the Rotary Clubs of Lebanon, Palmyra, Annville and Myerstown. hospital ambulance. Tickets to the Lincoln Univerdistributed January 17th. The collided with a car operated by Light Co. here and Mr. Jamison proceeds of this event are for the Russell Huntzinger, forty, East by Mark Memorials in Palmyra.

Everything That

Mr. and Mrs. David Mumper Camp Hill visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eschbach over the week end. Mrs. Helen Musser and son, Jimmy entertained on Sunday: Mrs. Adah Eichler and daughter, Margaret and Miss Grace Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Geib were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kauffman. Mrs. Katie B. Foreman of near Elizabethtown, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kauffman. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Myers entertained the following on Sunday: Rev. and Mrs. Henry Becker and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Eshleman.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Buller and daughter, Maude and Mr. and Mrs. Emory Walters and daughter of Maryland were Sunday dinner Township High School, will be one ski and family.

The following guests visited Mr. Pennsylvania State Farm Show, at and Mrs. George Mumper on Sun- Harrisburg on January 11. day: Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Frye and daughter of Adams Co., Mr. and Mrs. James Mumper and chil- boys in the state. These boys are of the Mt. Joy High School will Middletown. Work started last dren of Maytown; Mr. and Mrs. chosen on the basis of their scholas-Washingtonboro is considering Joy; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles the sale of its one room school Bettner and sons of Milton Grove. Fire Co. Meeting the Florin Fire Co., was held in ed the Keystone Degree. squire fined two disorderly men the Hall with Ben Staley presidethtown, has sued her husband for divorce. They are married 49 years and both are 70. She claims cruel treatment.

Installation of officers for '50 were (Turn to Page 3)

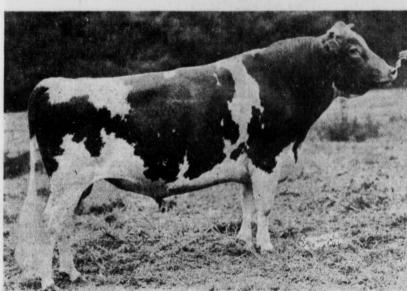

AGED COUPLE SEEK DIVORCE Mrs. Sarah H. Hershey, Eliza-

Week's Birth Record

at the Lancaster General Hospital. duties of a class president.

Our Fire Laddies E. Hempfield Twp. This Is Mt. Ararat Dauntless Local Folks Are When He Was A Boy

GRAND CHAMPION GUERNSEY BULL

Southeastern Pennsylvania's Artificial Breeders Co-operative at Club Tuesday, at Hostetter's, grand champion at the Pennsylvan- sire of a very fine type and was guernsey bull in the show.

Harrisburg this week.

The above is a picture of the bull

Mr. David Yoder, manager of the lia State Farm Show being held at placed second in the Aged bull class Anothed Winner Landisville, has the proud distinc- when he was a boy. Mt. Ararat A stablemate, "Wethersfield Lation of showing the first Guernsey Dauntless is a champion all the vern's Patrician", entered by the gemuth, Florin; Mrs. William Lon-"Redecm Your Routine', was dis- bull from Lancaster County ever way. He was born Dec. 10, 1944 and Landisville group, took first place in genecker, Mt. Joy R2; Mrs. Ethel cussed at the meeting of the Rotary to win and be judged the tips the beam at 1675 lbs. He is a his class as the best two-year-old M. Longenecker, Mt. Joy R2.

MRS. MARIE SUMMY IS Engagements HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Marie Summy, twenty-sev en, 121 Columbia Ave., who had been a patient at St. Joseph's Hosbeen a patient at St. Joseph's Hoswere made. Rotary's 168th District Conference will meet at Herical trict Conference will be at the Herical trict Conference will be at t Saturday and taken home in the sity Glee Club concert to be held an automobile operated by her to Charles W. Jamison, Campbellbenefit of the Rotary Foundation. Haddenfield, N. J. Her father, William Beamenderfer, was killed instantly in the crash. Charges of involuntary manslaughter were announce the engagement of their brought against Summy. He has daughter, Geraldine to Russell P. posted bail for action of the Lan- Getz, Landisville, son of Mr. and

caster County Grand Jury. CARS DRIVEN BY B. SHUPP

AND B. GUTSHALL COLLIDE bile accident at the intersection of Schools. South Market and Marietta Streets. H. Blaine Gutshall made a left west on Marietta Ave., when the ears collided to the cars was estimated at approx-

School News From E. Donegal Twp.

mately $200.00

James Garber, senior vocational agriculture student at East Donegal guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gerlit- of six county boys to receive the Keystone Farmers Degree at the

each year to the outstanding FFA

Organization. He has served both as 14th at 8:00 p. m. President and Treasurer of the Donegal FFA Chapter and has also E. HEMPFIELD SUPERVISORS been very actve as a leader in his AID FOUR FIRE COMPANIES community.

Scholastically, he is above average in his studies and his project to help support four volunteer program is rated as one of the best fire companies in the township. in the county.

Merle Arnold, senior president, and chosen as "Boy-of-the-Month" was the guest of the Maytown-Bain-Mr. and Mrs. Lester S. Hoffman, bridge Rotary Club Thursday eve- aid); Rohrerstown Fire Co., $650;

Miss Mildred L. Walters daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walters Mrs. Summy was an occupant of Salunga, announced her engagement in the high school auditorium husband, Abram H. Summy, Jr., town. Miss Walters is employed here on February 23rd, will be thirty-one, same address, which in the office of the Pa. Power and

> The Rev. and Mrs. Jeremian R. Rothermel, 1520 Palm St., Reading, Mrs. William P. Getz, of Denver.

Miss Rothermel is a senior at Lebanon Valley College Conservatory of music and Mr. Getz. Tuesday afternoon Officer Mich- LVC graduate, is supervisor of ael Good investigated an automo- music in East Hempfield Twp.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cecil Rode, 250 hand turn east on Marietta Street N. Second St., Columbia, announce and Burton E. Shupp was traveling the engagement of their daughter, Grace, to Wilbur J. Brandt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brandt, 30 West No one was injured but damage Main St., this boro. Miss Rode lives with her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shive, 642

Walnut St., Columbia. A graduate of Columbia High School, she is employed in the office of the Marietta Transportation Corps Depot. Mr. Brandt, is employed by the Mount Joy Mill. He was recently discharged from the U. S. Navy after three years of service. No date has been set for the wedding.

SEWING AND HANDWORK

The Keystone degree is awarded CLASS FOR YOUTH-ADULTS The Home Economics Department sponsor an evening sewing and Clyde Mumper and family of Mt. tic record, leadership ability, and handwork class for out of school supervised farming program. Those youth and adults. Instruction in bemaking the greatest programs in ginning and advanced Sewing will each of these categories after be- be given. If you are interested in The regular monthly meeting of coming an FFA member are award- making clothing for yourself or family or linens, curtains, drapes, James has been active in both etc. for the household come to the school and club work since enter- Home Economics Room of the High ing the Future Farmers of America School Monday evening, January

The E. Hempfield Twp. supervisors make annual contributions Edward F. Starr, one of the supervisors reported this week.

Starr listed these annual contributions (over and above State and East Petersburg, $250.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

The Mount Joy Chamber of Commerce held their annual busine meeting and banquet at Hostetter on Tuesday evening.

President Jos. Shaeffer gave resume of activities and reported that during the year the Chamber had sponsored a sales day, assisted in Hospital drive, presented medals to the 4-H winners of the judging Lancaster General Hospital. and showman contest held during our Farm Show and sponsored movies at the farm show. Messrs. M. N. Bailey, John D. Roland, Clyde Oberholtzer, L. U. Myers and Christ Walters were elected to serve as directors for a 3-vear term. Interesting movies were chosen as an entertainment feature.

The reguar monthly meeting will be held at the home of President Shaeffer on Monday, January 16th at which time the officers will be elected for the current year.

Earl Albright Heads Ironville Fire Company

New officers have been named for the Ironville Fire Company and its Auxiliary.

Earl Albright has been named president of the company. Other officers are Luther Ulrich, Vice President: Glenn W. Kauffman, secretary: Charles Gingrich, treasurer: John Fox and Raymond Singer trustees for three years, and Roy Fornoff, chief. The company will meet Monday at & p. ra. in the Fire town, a daughter of the late Hen-

Officers of the Cadies' Auxiliary include: Mrs. Benjamin Haverstick, town United Brethren Church. resident: Mrs. Wilbur Rettew, vice She is survived by the following president: Mrs. Paul Kauffman, secretary; Mrs. Luther Ulrich, treasurer, and Mrs. Christ Kauffman, Harry, Columbia RD1; Lizzie, wife

ATTENDING CONFERENCE

AT HARRISBURG Pastor C. 1. Summy is attending Conference and dinner meeting at the Hotel Harrisburger this Saturday in Harrisburg. The Conference is being sponsored by the Stark Nurseries of Louisiana, Missouri.

Deeds Recorded

Samuel P. and Arabella Sump-OVERHEATED, CAUGHT FIRE man, Mount Joy to Burd and Rodgers Memorial Home, Herndon, a lot, Donegal Springs Road, East

TEST WELL WATER If your water supply comes from Donegal Twp.

Copping Share Farm Show Prizes

Penna. State Farm Show which is being held at Harrisburg this week We hope the Weather Man continues his kindness throut the week. Lancaster county as heretofore, is copping prizes right and left. On the opening day prizes officially announced Monday night included 107 to Lancaster county exhibitors 70 for tobacco; 23 for home economics exhibits; and 14 for fat lambs.

A $40 cash prize was awarded the Lancaster Fruit Growers Association for a display of 15 bushels of five different varieties of apples. Tobacco growers from the immediate vicinity who won prizes for their seedleaf were: Donald L. Swarr, Landisville: J. Arthur Swarr Landisville: J. K. Hostetter, Manheim R1; and a number of other Lilly Ann Greider, Mount Joy R1

heim R1; J. Floyd Kreider, Man-won a prize on sheep. These local prizes were won on Home Economics: Mrs. Daniel Wolother prizes won by exhibitors from this locality. Mortuary Record

There were a large number of

Entire Locality Harry Seifert, seventy-four, Masonic Home, Elizabethtown, at the Rev. George W. Welsh, seventynine, at Williamsport. He was a former pastor at Manheim. Geo. Resch, ninety-one, of Marietta's oldest residents, died last Thursday at his home. He was a bank director for 56 years. Elizabeth, widow of Willard F. Metzger, at the home of her daughter Mrs. Mary Risser, E'town. She was eighty-four.

Throughout This

Mrs. Bella Shaeffer Sumpman Mrs. Bella Shaeffer Sumpman wife of Rev. Samuel Sumpman died at the Evangelical Congregational Home at Myerstown last Saturday. The funeral was held at Myerstown Wednesday with the Rev. L. Dallas Ziegler of the local E. C. Church, assisting in the service. Burial was at Middletown. The Sumpmans until recently lived on Donegal

Carrie K. Weaver

Miss Carrie K. Weaver, fiftyeight, died at 9:20 a. m. Sunday at the home of her brother-in-law and sister Mr and Mrs Victor Snyder, Newtown, Columbia RD1, after an illness of nine years. Miss Weaver was born in Newry and Mary Ann Kemmerly Weaver and was a member of Newsisters and brothers: Mrs. Annie Snyder, York; Samuel, Mount Joy; of Harry Heslet, Mount Joy: Emanuel, Rheems; Abner, Mount Joy; Mame, wife of Peter Greenawalt, Lancaster; Fred, Columbia; Milton, E'town RD1 and Irene, wife of Victor Snyder with whom she re-

The funeral was held from her late home Wednesday afternoon with services in the Newtown United Brethren Church. Interment was made in the adjoining ceme-

STOVEPIPE AND CHIMNEY

Mt Joy's Friendship Fire Company was called at 1:00 p. m. Tuesday to the home of Clyde E. Wivell, Manheim R4, three miles north of Mt. Joy, when a kitchen stovepipe and chimney became overheated and caught fire. Firemen said the damage was restricted to smoke.