ONE MAN KILLED, 2ND SHOT

The State Police were just step ahead and made a very clear and neat job of a robbery at the office of Grubb and Breneman feed dealers at Elizabethtown early Saturday morning.

They trailed three men from Lebanon to Elizabethtown where they entered the warehouse office and made preparations to blow the safe. Before they accomplished anything they were interrupted by the police who had the entire exterior covered. One robber as he came out a door was killed instantly, a second was shot but not seriously and the third captured. Two are from Baltimore and the injured man resides at Lebanon. It has since been learned that the three men are implicated in a large number of robberies during the past year. Seven of the burglaries, the Lebanon man admits, netted the three $13,000 in
