PENNSYLVANIA WHEAT CHAMPION

Hans Fritz

Hans Fritz, Lock Haven, Pa., whose wheat won first prize at the recent Pennsylvania State Farm Products Show at Harrisburg, has for the fourth consecutive year been awarded the annual Philip W. Pillsbury trophy for the best wheat grown in his state.

Fritz grew his prize-winning wheat on his thirty-acre Clinton county farm, which he operates after working in a woolen mill until 4 P.M. daily. The wheat is of a special variety known as "Nured."

In addition to wheat, Fritz raises tobacco, potatoes and various kinds of fruit. He practices a scientific farming program of crop rotation and consistent soil enrichment.

The winning sample of wheat will be entered with wheat from 20 other states in a national contest in Minneapolis early in April, where the winner will receive the title of National Wheat King, the Philip W. Pillsbury trophy and cash award, and an all-expense trip to Minneapolis.

Champions Of The Poultry World

SALUNGA

Mrs. John Musser, Mrs. Everett Martin, Mrs. Robert Brubaker and Mrs. Levi Peifer attended the annual banquet of 4-H club leaders held in the WYCA auditorium in Lancaster, Monday evening.

The Salunga Mothers Club will hold a spelling bee Saturday evening, March 4th at 7:30 o'clock in the Maple Grove school house. There will be classes in spelling and general information. Refreshments will be on sale.

A meeting of the Salunga Fire Company was held Wednesday evening when Stanley Hessler was elected as a trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles Stauffer. He will fill the post until the election in 1951.

Announcement was made that Steve Cummings, National Commander of the Brotherhood of Universal Fire Fighters, is to be secured to speak at the next session on April 5. At this time local youths will be the guests of the company provide they attend accompanied by their fathers.

Robert Edwards, chairman of the Father and Son banquet held last week at Landisville, spoke about the event and stated that a larger affair is planned for next year with local business places sponsoring it and with both the Salunga and Landisville companies receiving the benefits from the affair.

Elephant Market

Burma's wartime loss of the domesticated elephants is still hampering the valuable teakwood industry. Although the Indian market for ceremonial elephants is reported low since the once ritual-loving princes have had to cut their budgets, the general Asiatic demand seems to be holding up.

Iceless a Hazard

A number of persons are killed or injured every winter when falling icicles impale them. Home and building owners are warned to keep the deadly winter weapons cleared away from entrances and walkways.

Jewels of Watch

It is not the number of jewels in a watch that means a quality product, but the way the jewels are cut, how they are set and the exactness of their measurements. Jewels in a watch are put there for one purpose, and that is to reduce friction of moving parts.

Correct Posture

Correct posture is that position of the body in which the organs function most efficiently. If your framework becomes distorted, it will interfere with body mechanics and have an effect on your general health.

Steel Rail

Due to improvements in the design, metallurgy and methods used in manufacture, steel rail now being installed is only one-fourth as liable to failure in service as rail which was installed in 1922.

Migration to Cities

On January 1 of 1949, 19 out of every 100 Americans lived on the farm. Before World War II, about 23 out of every 100 lived on the farm.

Vanishing Horses

Kansas is losing its horses and mules faster than the country as a whole. From 1920 to 1945 Kansas horses decreased by 68 per cent, mules by 82 per cent.

Hog Production

A hog production program can be varied to fit the individual farm plan—depending on the labor, equipment and management the farmer has available.

Paved Feedlots

A paved feedlot soon pays for itself in manure saved. It also pays a profit in feed saved, in faster gains, and in the comfort and cleanliness of the cattle.

Corn Hybrids

In University of Illinois tests corn hybrids proved better for silage than open-pollinated varieties.

Farm Buildings

Over 90 per cent of American farm buildings are made of wood in spite of competition from other materials.

School Work

More than 80 per cent of a child's school work depends on his ability to see properly.

Compares with Canyon

The wonderland of Rocks, near Douglas, Ariz., is often compared to the Grand Canyon in beauty.

Look—Then Shoot!

Mr. Hunter, if you shoot before you look—YOU'RE to blame.
