Mortuary Record

dix Glassmyer, died at Lancaster from influenza, after being ill only four days. Besides her parents ten brothers and sisters survive. Also her maternal grandparents, John and Ida Zink Hendrix of town.

Adam Linard
Adam Linard, eighty-one, a former resident of Maytown, died Friday at the Oreville Mennonite Home after an illness of several months. He had been a guest of the home for the past five years.

He was born in Adams County, a son of the late Jacob and Susan Linard and was the husband of the late Mary Linard. He was a member of Maytown Church of God.

Deceased lived nearly all his life in the vicinity of Donegal Springs. When a young man he worked for the Shanks on the Cameron farms, and later was engaged in farming.

Surviving are four children: Walter M. Marietta RD; Paul S. Marietta; Harold S. Cottage Place, York; and Mervin G. Marietta. There are also 15 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and two sisters; Mrs. Lydia Snyder of York, and Mrs. Nettie Dates, of Marietta.

The funeral was held in the Church of God at Maytown Monday afternoon with interment in the East Donegal cemetery.

John R. Roath Sr.
John Roland Roath, Sr., eighty-two, Lancaster, died Thursday in Lancaster General Hospital where he was admitted Wednesday.

Born in Maytown, a son of the late Jacob and Anna Roland Roath, he was a tobacco manufacturer in Maytown for many years. He moved to Lancaster in 1929 and since that time was employed at the Conestoga National Bank. His wife, Anna B. Roath died Aug. 16, 1949.

He was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church. Surviving are a son, John R. Jr., Lancaster; a sister, Mrs. Harriet Carpenter, Maytown, and a number of nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held in St. John's Lutheran church at Maytown Sunday afternoon with interment in the adjoining cemetery.

Mrs. Bessie Kaufman
Mrs. Bessie Toot Kaufman, sixty-two, wife of D. Baker Kaufman, Manheim RI, died Thursday at her home of leukemia. She was a daughter of the late Adam and Susan Meek Toot, and a member of the Landisville Mennonite Church. Besides her husband, she is survived by these children: Chester T. Kaufman, Manheim RI; Morris T. Kaufman, and Mary Jane, wife of Kenneth L. Stehman, both of Landisville, and James R. Kaufman, of this town. Five grandchildren, a sister and two brothers also survive; Mrs. Samuel H. Nissley, Landisville; and Arthur M. and Chester M. Toot, both of Lancaster RS.

Raymond Rigel
Raymond Rigel, sixty-one of Columbia, who died last Wednesday in the Columbia Hospital, was born in Newtwn, a son of the late Harry and Josephine Divet Rigel, and was a moulder by trade having been employed by the Keeley Stove Co. for many years.

There survive three sisters: Mrs. Chrissy Stamm and Miss Sue Rigel, with whom he resided; and Mrs. Emma Swank, of Columbia RD 1.

Victor H. Kupferer
Mr. Victor H. Kupferer, a resident of Mount Joy from 1942 to 1945, died very suddenly Sunday from a heart attack at his home in South Bend, Indiana.

The Kupferers resided in the former Bender property, corner Marietta Ave. and S. Market St., while Mr. Kupferer, then a Lieut. Colonel, was stationed at the Marietta Depot.

Funeral services were held Wednesday.

SALUNGA
The Mothers Club held its monthly meeting in the school house Monday evening with 26 members and 3 visitors present. John D. Kendig of Manheim, showed slides on Lancaster County. The Club contributed $10 to a shut-in. The hostesses were Mrs. Musser, Mrs. Christ Keller, Mrs. Jay Newcomer and Mrs. Charles Aument.

An Easter Egg Hunt will be held Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of N. N. Baer for all the children of the community twelve years and under.

A number of youths from Salunga and vicinity attended the Youth Night program presented Wednesday night during a meeting of the Salunga Fire Company.

The youths, age ten to eighteen, were accompanied by their fathers and the program was held to gain their interest in the fire company and its activities.

Guest speaker was Steve Cummings, commander of the Junior Brotherhood of Universal Fire Fighters, who spoke of the work being accomplished by the Junior BUFF's in assisting firemen, helping direct traffic and answering minor fire calls, thus saving the community money. He said his group answered 83 calls during the three years it was organized.

Seven new members were admitted to the company.
