

OWL LAFFS

A WISE OWL

No matter what, the little woman is never wrong! When I went to the bank last week they told me my wife had overdrawn our account. Naturally I was embarrassed so when I went home I told her about it. She left me sound off and then with her final thrust, she yelled: "YOU say I'm overdrawn, well, I say you're under-deposited. You've got no one to blame but yourself!"

A word of advice—If you would have a stable friend, buy a horse.

One thing in which I think Westerners have it over the people of the East is they have more patience.

They get it from their grandparents, I guess—their old grandpappies who, if they missed one stage coach didn't worry. They knew another one would be along in five or six months.

You know, we are the traveling-est people on earth. The French made just one mistake with the Statue of Liberty they gave us. They didn't put a suitcase in her hand.

Each morning I read the papers and I see the traffic accidents I think—Men still die with their boots on, but one is usually on the accelerator.

Last Thursday when my spouse was in Philly she used a taxi to take her way uptown. And when she got home she told me that when she went to pay the taxi driver, he said: "There'll be no charge, lady; you did most of the driving." — Now you know what I put up with.

A man is like a lampwick; trimmed many times before he gets the right flame.

Saw by the daily that a loaded hearse was run into by a speeder. It's got so this country is not only not a safe place to live in—it's not a safe place to be dead in.

"Spook" Kaylor's still getting quite a kick out of an invitation he recently got. Seems he accompanied our cop to take a patient to a mental hospital. When they entered the hospital an orderly approached and said to the patient: "Just come right back here." Then another white coated man approached "Spook" and said: "Just come along back here." — However Spook's invitation for admittance came from a patient being humored.

Mother's Day—the day we celebrate by letting mother cook a bigger Sunday dinner than the ordinarily does on other Sundays.

Personally, I think Father's Day is going to be an awful lot of trouble, just to sell neckties.

In at Lancaster today I witnessed a traffic accident. A car driven by a man crashed into a car driven by a woman. The woman exclaimed: "Why did you drive into me? I turned the way I signalled." The man replied: "I know you did, that is what fooled me."

Don't be too quick to blame a man for having prejudices. He may not be smart enough to have opinions.

Two little girls were engaged in conversation when the one asked: "Does your father have a den?" And the other little girl answered: "No, we treat him like a human being."

I have a sneaking suspicion that what's wrong with this old world, is there is too much sneaking suspicion.

Anyway I just remembered one

Donegal Airport News

Visitors from other airports during the week included Mr. William Carney of Teterboro, New Jersey; Mr. James McVeigh of Wilmington, Delaware; Other pilots landed here from Kutztown, Lancaster, Campbellsport, Harrisburg, York and three airplanes from the Valley Forge airport near Philadelphia.

Fred Loewen and John Hawthorne made a dual cross country trip to Kutztown and Lancaster.

The Pennsylvania Aeronautics Commission will hold its annual spring air cruise June 10 and 11, this year to be held at the Hershey airport. Pilots from all over the state are invited to attend.

Organization of a new flying club is being discussed. Members of the club would all be women between the ages of 16 and 60. A low cost flying club with all feminine members would be one of the first to be organized in Pennsylvania.

Paul Hawthorne led the local pilots by making several long cross country flights. Airports he visited during the week included Wilmington and New Castle, Delaware; Baltimore, Maryland; D. C.; Lock Haven, Harrisburg, Hershey, Lancaster, Langhorne and York.

Phares Landis flew to Wilkes-Barre on Wednesday where he attended a meeting of Representatives of the Veterans Administration. The Pennsylvania Aeronautics administration and Airport Operators Ray Devenor, manager of the Hanover airport was his passenger on the return flight.

The Oldtimers

(From page 1) mention was given to William Bates, a senior, and Gerald Wilson, a sophomore. The association voted not to make its annual award to any recipient more than once.

Other officers elected, at the meeting are: Russell Halbleib, vice president; Charles Eshleman, secretary, and Joseph Breneman treasurer.

More than 100 persons attended the dinner, including representatives of athletic clubs who completed against the Mt. Joy teams of yesterday and other outstanding guests.

Toastmaster Groff introduced Mr. Elmer Zerphoy, Burgess and Harold Bender, commander of the W. S. Ebersole Post, who welcomed the oldtimers to Mt. Joy and the Legion Home. Sol Barr led in devotions. Addresses were given by Earl Rebnan, president of the Lancaster City and County Oldtime Boxers and Sportsmen's Association, and Charles W. (Uncle Charley) Maysor, former coach and director of athletics at Franklin and Marshall College, now president of the Second Guessers Sportsmen's Club.

St. Joseph's Catholic Club of Lancaster and athletic clubs from Marietta, Elizabethtown and Lititz were represented, Lon Jourdet, and Charles G. "Fat" DeLong, Jr. of Bala-Cynwood, Penna., were among the guests. DeLong, was the star of Mount Joy High's County Championship basketball team in 1947, when he scored all of his team's 26 points in the final playoff game to win 26-14.

Committees were appointed for the ensuing year: Finance; C. J. Bennett, chairman, George Groff, and S. V. Barr, Banquet; Chas L. Eshleman, chairman, J. L. Schroll, Harold Zimmerman, Henry Klugh, John Wealand, Martin Metzler, and James Beamenderfer. Awards: George Brown II, chairman, John J. Schroll and Benj. F. Groff. Membership: Sylvester Hendrix, chairman, Paul Hippie, Donald Smith, Joe Germer, James Pennell, all Mt. Joy, Dave Brandt, Marietta and Milton Heilman, Elizabethtown.

These By-Laws were adopted: Eligibility to become a member, is anyone who participated in sports or contributed in any way; The recipient for outstanding athlete in M. J. H. S. may not compete for the award more than once during four years high school. All officers to be elected at annual dinner, Dues $1.00 per year.

MUTT AND JEFF

By Bud Fisher

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

You know, sometimes you figure your congressman is not the guy you thought him to be when you voted him in. He acts odd at times—supports all kinds of fancy "plans," dishes up big Govt. mazzinna for plowing under too many eggs, too much corn. He okays cash for reclaiming more farm acres alongside the very acres that are already producing too much oorn, too much wheat.

Well folks, I agree with you—the guy must have a deficiency of starch in his vertebrae—but at that I am not writing him off a complete fizzle and failure. With a helping hand he might be salvaged, and here is how—keep readin'—be patient.

A fellow here at Hickory—sells automobiles—he says, citizens, let's get any hand-out from the Govt. If we don't get it, some other place will get it, he says. Well now, right there is how and where tough sleddin' creeps in on Mr. Congressman. If the people back home—voters—are looking for a Govt. ante, you see where that puts Senator Congressman.

If every commercial club in our U.S.A. would tell its Secretary to lay-off starting a campaign for more "matching" money for another swimming pool, airport, or what have you, it could work wonders. Like not shootin' the piano player who is not so hot, but is maybe doing his best, our Congressman is all we have—he needs encouragement.

Yours with the low down,
JIMMY

Local Realty Sales

There were two realty public sales in the community Saturday, both properties bringing good prices.

Simon F. and Elam F. Shearer, administrators of Elizabeth B. Sherer, sold 2½ acres of ground in Mount Joy twp., near Mt. Pleasant Church, to Ezra Hess for $5,650. The improvements are a 9-room house, bank barn, Chicken house, etc. A large lot of household goods were sold at the same time. Chas S. Frank called the sale.

Floyd and Rachael Gordon sold their 1½ story Brick Bungalow containing 5 rooms and bath, to Allen Alleman at public sale on Friday evening for $9,350.00. Mr. Walter Dupes was the auctioneer.

She was born in Lancaster County a daughter of the late Daniel and Catherine Eby Flory and was a resident of Mount Joy for the past 75 years. A member of the Reformed Menonite Church, she was the last of her immediate family.

She is survived by a son, J. Russell Myers, Lancaster, and a daughter, Miss Dorothea Myers, at home. Eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren also survive.

The funeral was held from the Heilig funeral home here this forenoon with interment in the Mount Joy cemetery.

Mibs Tournament

At five o'clock this evening (Thursday) the finals of the Mount Joy Marble Tournament will be held on the grade school yard. This marble contest has been in operation for the past week, being sponsored by the Mt. Joy Post 5752 Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Seven local grade school boys have emerged as champs to represent their respective grades in this final event. They are: Glenn Funk, 1st grade; Martin Coker, 2nd grade; Jimmy Kline, 3rd grade; Leroy Waltz, 4th grade; Carl Rohn, 5th grade; James Pennell, 6th grade; Glenn Wolgemuth, 7th grade.

The Mount Joy Post 5752 Veterans of Foreign Wars will award medals to first, second and third place winners sometime in May.

Next week the new Mount Joy Marble Champion will compete with children in this area in the Ninth District play-offs.

In the event of rain, an announcement will be made as to the date and time of this local tournament.

DEFEATS McCASKEY J-V'S
