EDITORIAL

God gives every bird its food, but he does not throw it into the nest.

Experts say our government is based on a system of check and balance. The taxpayer turns over the check but wonders what the government does with the balance.

Franco's newly wedded daughter received wedding presents costing an estimated seven million dollars. We are trusting they weren't paid for with Marshall Plan dollars.

Here's one of the many reasons why we have such an enormous National debt. A congressional subcommittee reports that the Army finance center at St. Louis has overpaid $157,596,000 in allotments to military dependents. This includes 330,000 cases of overpayment.

Ted Williams, of the Boston Red Sox, will receive a salary of $125,000 this season. It compares with the $30,000 paid Babe Ruth in 1939. After taxes Ruth kept $68,535 of his $80,000. Williams keeps $62,028 of his $125,000. Inflation, deliberately engineered by the government to sustain its vast spending, cuts the relative value of Williams' $62,028 by nearly a third.

It appears to us there should soon be a decision one way or the other on strikes. There is no end to the public's inconvenience brought about too frequently for petty reasons, by unions.

The present firemen's strike on four major railroads is an illustration. They want an extra fireman on Diesel locomotives—one to see that the oil flows from the tank to the engine—the second to ride along and smoke his pipe.

This strike will not only inconvenience our mail, freight and passenger service, but it will close many plants and throw thousands out of work.

Must the nation swallow anything like this?

GREENER FASTURES

Where is the good life to be found? Large cities have recruited their population from the small towns and farms. Add this to the immigrants and you have what has made the urban center the Mecca for many. Sociologists have worried about the increasing age level of farmers who have stayed to work the land. If young men and women continue to forsake it, the condition might well be serious. However, there has been noted some number of city dwellers who buy country places as week-end interest or to be named in the gentlemen-farmer class. Children are then introduced to the land, the work of the farm, the pleasure and satisfaction of "growing things."

With the many improvements added to make rural living easier, there will probably be some recruits from the younger generation who were city-bred.

YOU SAID IT!

Recently two news stories appeared in connection with health services which your government is NOW operating. When Federal Health Administrator, Oscar Ewing enthuses over how much more economical and efficient national health care would be under socialized medicine, he might consider these two items.

1—The U. S. Army is closing the 540-bed Murphy General Hospital at Waltham, Mass., built six years ago, costing $5 million. Not enough patients to justify keeping it open.

2—At Boston, Mass. (10 miles from Waltham.) ground was broken by the Veteran's Administration for a new 1000-bed hospital.

to cost $10 million. More beds are urgently needed for sick veterans in this area.

SLEEP A MENACE

About 300 tons of sleeping pills are being made in this land every year. Surely it is not in ignorance that people take them, continue to have prescriptions renewed and sleep the deep sleep. There has been wide-spread publicity concerning the harm of sleeping pills, the danger of becoming an addict. Addicts have delirium tremens, convulsions and often become temporarily insane. The U. S. Public Health Service reports that sleeping pills cause worse addicts than morphine. Doctors aren't unaware of the dangers. Psychiatrists have handled enough cases of the mentally unbalanced to understand the effect of addiction. Few in this community who have not read in newspapers or magazine the perils that come with the sleeping pill habit.

appearing organization or Fire Co., to the organization or Fire Company having the most men in line. Following the parade the two new fire engines will be housed. One of these engines was purchased by the citizens of Mt. Joy, while the other was a generous gift from Mr. K. T. Keller, President of Chrysler Corporation, and a native of Mount Joy.

The evening program is scheduled to get under way at 7:00 p. m. in the Borough Park, with music by the Mount Joy High School Band, Boys Chorus, Quartet, and a solo. The speaker for the evening is the Honorable Judge Guy K. Bard, who will deliver the address. Following this there will be fireworks in the Borough Park.

In case of rain the program in the evening will be held in the High School auditorium, and the fire works display will be put on Friday evening, June 2. Everyone is invited to attend this gala event. There is plenty of parking space for your cars, and plenty of refreshments for your eating pleasure. Plan now to come to Mount Joy on May 30th and spend the day.
