EDITORIAL

The Lancaster police arrested a motorist there for the fourth time. Why a man like that is permitted to drive is beyond us.

Many a business would be bankrupt if the employees were paid what they want rather than what they earn.

As we see it the rich are alcoholics and the poor are just plain drunks.

Nature is wonderful! A million years ago she didn't know we were going to wear spectacles, yet look at the way she placed our ears.

AS SHE GOES MARCHING ON
Humanity always needs a friend and it found one in Evangeline Booth, the daughter of the founder of the Salvation Army. General Evangeline Booth died recently, at the age of 84. There was a life dedicated to the service of the distressed, the poor, the forgotten man. She studied in England at an early age, under the guidance of her father, Rev. William Booth, to help build the Salvation Army, then into Canada and to the U. S., where the Army is recognized as one of our foremost social service agencies. Her vision, her good work, will not die with her passing but carried on under the banner of humanitarianism, which is borne by the unselfish and inspired to assist the halt and the lame.

WON'T WE EVER LEARN?
Few will admit hoarding but prefer calling it "precautionary purchasing" BEFORE the hoarders get under way. When goods become scarce due to unnecessary buying, it becomes hoarding. Costs have risen all along the line. Already some stores are rationing nylons, sugar is scarce in some areas. Folks have been buying tires to hoard, for some time. Rubber manufacturers assure us there is plenty of rubber available for tires, the Dept. of Agriculture says billions of tons of sugar are available. But, in spite of the assurances, selfish, unpatriotic people practice hoarding. Packing houses will hold back meat to get a price rise in a competitive market. Such is the result of war or rumors of war. Maybe you can't change human nature, but you can often be ashamed of it!

REMOVING THE EXCISE TAX
The excise tax on such as furs, jewelry, leather goods, cosmetics, telephones, railroad fares, was used as a means for discouraging people at war for spending for extravagances or crowding transportation and communication lines. It had a purpose. When wheels moved to remove it, during peacetime, the President said that such a cut would mean a new tax in some other form and signs pointed toward an increased corporation tax. If it costs more to do business then the hidden tax is passed on to the customer, so we still would pay the excise tax, indirectly. If the Korean situation leads to an all-out war, we will have higher and more taxes. That is inevitable. But, we wonder what makes valid a wartime excise tax during the intervening years of peace? We take the rigors of war in our stride, but we don't want the semblance of a welfare state during peace.

THE QUESTION IS ANSWERED
If any question remained in anyone's mind as to the need for the strictest possible economy in government, the grim march of events must have answered it.
This country is now committed to a policy of active resistance to communist aggression. It is a policy which has the full approval of the leaders of both political parties and of the nation at large. It is a policy whose cost no one can as yet estimate. At best, it seems inevitable that our expenditures for military and related purposes will rise materially.

In the light of this, how can further waste and unnecessary domestic spending be countenanced? In a world struggle for survival, there is no room for the welfare state, for government pampering of the individual—or for the spending of our tax money for any purpose which can be accomplished by private enterprise.

Government has its hands full, and more, with desperately difficult tasks which only government can handle. At this time, of all times, it must keep to its proper constitutional duties.

HOW MUCH PROFIT?

The American people still have a highly exaggerated idea of the profits earned by large businesses. That is shown by two surveys made in 1946 and in 1950 by the Psychological Corporation which is directed by Dr. Henry C. Link.

The key question was: "Out of every dollar which large business takes in, about how many cents do you think they keep as a clear profit?" The correct answer would be: "Less than 10 cents." But in the 1946 survey only 13 per cent gave that answer, and in 1950 only 22 per cent. Amazingly, more than 51 per cent of the people apparently believe that net profit runs anywhere from 10 cents to more than 50 cents of the sales dollar.

Misconceptions of this nature naturally feed on the fires of those whose theme song is that the principal aim of business is to exploit consumer and worker, and to make the stockholders financially fat. The fact is that business, in a competitive economy, couldn't do that if it wanted to. In every line of business, firms are trying to make a better product, or to sell a comparable product cheaper, than the firm down the street or across the country.

The great part of industry's income is spent for supplies, payrolls, taxes, plants, and necessary services. Only a very small part finds its way to the owners.

THE SUMMER REMINDER

Parents are given special warnings during the summer months, to use certain precautions with children, to guard against polio. Infantile paralysis, on the increase, is a miserable statistic to face, though constant efforts are being made to control epidemics and bring relief and good health to those sufferers. Numerous projects raise money for the cause.

The Harry Winston collection of the world's greatest jewels is on tour in the U. S. for the first time. Closely guarded, heavily insured, this magnificent array is being viewed by thousands who live in the cities covered by the tour. There is an admission fee to the public to view the fabulous gems. Mr. Winston generously provided the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, with the opportunity to exhibit them, the proceeds going to the foundation fund to help countless children fight and be free of polio. What a worthy display for the worst of causes. The Hope Diamond, Star of the East, Indian Pear-Shapes, Inquisition Necklace, Dudley Necklace, Austrian Diadem, and more of the world's distinguished jewels that occupy a unique place in history. The admission price occupies an equally important place in the history of man's consideration for his fellows.

HAPPENINGS — of — LONG AGO

20 Years Ago

Howard Garber is the new owner of the tire and accessory store conducted by John Dillinger, E. Main street.

The present drought is the worst experienced in this section in 50 years.

M. T. Williams of Manheim, will join his family in Swansea, Wales. O. K. Snyder was appointed a Notary Public by Gov. Fisher.

State Game Commission refused to close Lancaster County to deer hunting in the 1950 season.

A large tobacco shed was raised on the Christ Newcomer farm, southeast of Mount Joy.

Lancaster City abandoned the plan to have daylight saving time this year.

Mr. Roy Forney of Florin, is the new manager of Trimmer's Store. A birthday surprise was held in honor of Mrs. Harvey Ebersole's 49th birthday.

Four Columbia men bagged 17 groundhogs in one day at York Co. Miss Lillian Backenstoe entertained friends at a bridge party.

A rare humming bird's nest was found on a tree at Neffsville. It was barely 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Close to 2000 picnickers attended the annual picnic at Rocky Springs. Members and their families of Camp Ream Hunting and Fishing Club enjoyed a fishing trip to the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

The Maytown Sunday School picnic was held at Maple Grove Park.

Week's Best Recipe:

Corn Meal Raisin Muffins 1/4 c shortening, 1 c sugar, 2 eggs, 1 1/4 c corn meal, 3/4 c flour, 2 1/2 t baking powder, 3/4 t salt, 1/2 c raisins, 1 c milk. Cream shortening and sugar. Beat eggs until light and lemon colored, add with corn meal. Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt. Add raisins to flour mixture. Add milk. Bake in greased muffin tins or cornstick pans in hot oven for about 25 minutes. Yield: 12 large muffins.

Blow It A Chair!

New York introduces the weary to an inflatable lounge chair, weighing only two pounds. Made of vinylite plastic, there is a flexible back rest that adjusts itself to any position for your posture. You can inflate by mouth or by pump. Deflated, the chair can be carried in a beach bag to the shore, in an overnight case for home away from home, in a hand-bag for relaxation during shopping if there is room on the mezzanine.

Selection Counts:

We are still buying frozen fruits and vegetables though soon the fresh variety will be available. We don't choose the frozen foods as carefully as we should. The quality of such depends upon the quality of the vegetables and fruits before processing and distributing. The flavor and color of frozen foods should closely resemble that of food that is fresh. Don't buy a package that shows any leakage, for the goods might have been thawed and re-frozen. The freeze cabinet should be kept at a low temperature and be sure the shipments to your grocer are placed there promptly upon arrival. The frozen package should be solid and give very little when pressed.

Record!

T. H. Keating, general manager, smiles happily as he takes the wheel of the 24,000,000th Chevrolet. The milestone model came only six months after the 23,000,000th in a production run that set new industrial records.

MENTAL REQUIREMENTS HAVE BEEN LOWERED

The mental requirements for voluntary enlistments into the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force have been substantially lowered according to M/Sgt. Stewart M. Wright of the Lancaster U. S. Army & U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station, located in Room 217, Post Office Building, Cor. N. Prince and West Chestnut Streets, Lancaster, Pa.

Sgt. Wright stated that this will undoubtedly result in the enlistment of a greater number of individuals who might not have been able to qualify under the extremely high standards previously in effect.

NATIONAL PRESS BUILDING WASHINGTON, D. C. By Anne Goode

Scheme hard and furiously to do most of your household jobs sitting down: preparing vegetables and fruits, stirring puddings and sauces as they cook on the stove, ironing, packing lunches and mixing batters. Even perch on the sofa as you dust and tables. It's not laziness; it's plain common sense.

When your brown and white spectator shoes are up for polishing, put a coat of oil shynola on the brown first. Then if you splash some white polish on the brown part, it won't be so stubborn to wipe off the waxed surface. Give the brown a final shynola treatment for finish.

To stitch nylon effectively, use nylon thread. No other will do as well or last as long.

Scrumptious with salads is this garlic-cheese toast. Cream 2 tablespoons vitaminized margarine until soft; add 1/2 clove garlic, peeled; let stand 5 minutes, then remove. Toast 4 slices bread on one side; spread untoasted sides with garlic mixture and sprinkle with 1/2 cup grated sharp cheese. Toast under broiler until cheese melts. Serve it cut in thirds.

Avoid sprinkling rayon whenever possible. Instead, iron your rayons as soon as they've dried to the right degree of dampness. You'll then have perfect distribution of moisture which is all but impossible with sprinkling.
