

Community Exhibit Events For Saturday — Soap Box Derby 12:45; Big Parade 2:30 p. m.

Our Big Farm Show Will Open Today - Thursday

Mount Joy's annual Community Exhibit opened today, Thursday for three big days of events starting with the crowning of the Corn Queen this evening between 8 and 9 p.m. Nine contestants from six high schools and three 4-H Clubs have been selected.

This contest is conducted by the Farm Women Society No. 8, Mrs. Jay Greider, chairman. They represent Mount Joy High School, East Donegal Twp. High School, Manheim High School, East Hempfield High School, Elizabethtown High School, Elizabethtown 4-H District, Penryn 4-H District, and Mastersonville 4-H District.

Dr. Ralph Schlosser of Elizabethtown College will be guest speaker at a public banquet at 6:30 p. m. Thursday in Hostetter's banquet hall.

An Instrumental Demonstration Given In Hi School

An instrumental demonstration was held recently in the local high school auditorium for parents whose children were interested in playing instruments. Representatives of the Zewit Music Co., of Reading, were the demonstrators and speakers.

The meeting was a tremendous success since many parents purchased instruments either on the New Instrument Trial method or the Used Instrument Trial method. Since this meeting 9 trumpets, 2 drums, and 6 clarinets have been purchased.

Dale E. Loump, 24 Commits Suicide

Dale E. Loump, twenty-six, Lancaster RI, was found dead by his father, Abram, about 4:10 p.m. Sunday on the kitchen floor of a small cottage he occupied near his father's house, in West Hempfield Twp., between Oyster Point and Mountville.

Dr. Charles P. Stahr, deputy coroner, in giving a verdict of suicide by shooting, said that Loump had shot himself in the head with a 12-gauge shotgun, apparently around midnight, Saturday. He had been last seen Saturday around 5:30 p.m. when he visited his parents home.

He leaves a wife and daughter, from whom he separated about six weeks ago. They live at Columbia.

MOST UP-TO-THE-MINUTE WEEKLY IN LANCASTER COUNTY

The Mount Joy Bulletin

VOL. L, NO. 20

Mount Joy, Pa., Thursday Afternoon, October 12, 1950

$2.00 a Year in Advance

The Corn Husking Championship Here Is Postponed

The county corn-husking contest planned as part of the Mount Joy Community exhibit for Friday was postponed because the corn has not matured enough for husking, it was announced by C. H. Martin, of Mt. Joy R1, co-chairman of the committee in charge.

It will be held instead on Saturday, October 28 on the farm of John Melhorn, Mt. Joy R1. The preliminaries are scheduled for 10 a. m., and the finals for 1 p. m.

COURT ORDERS THESE MEN TO SUPPORT THEIR WIVES

John E. Way, Jr., Salunga, paid $100 on account Friday for support of his wife, Betty Way, Landisville, and one child. He was ordered to continue paying $10 plus an additional $2.50 until he pays back the $450 he owes.

Enos Weaver, 458 Fairview Ave., Lancaster, paid his wife, Kathleen C. Weaver, Landisville, $40 on account Friday for the support of four children. He was ordered to continue paying $26 a week plus an additional $4 until he repays the $204 he owes.

TWO M. J. STUDENTS INDUCTED INTO MUSICAL ART SOCIETY

Sally Ann Nissley and Mary Grace Bucher were officially inducted into the Student Musical Art Society, of Lancaster, on Sunday, October 8. The purpose of this Society is to promote musical interest and to better the members. This is the second year of the society's existence and at the present time there are thirty-one members.

THREE CARS COLLIDED BUT NO ONE WAS HURT

Monday evening a three car collision occurred at East Main and Delta Streets, when Mrs. Harry Brooks, going East made a right hand turn onto Delta Street and a car driven by Richard Trimble of Lancaster collided into the rear of the Brooks car, while a third car driven by Mary Ann Rice, Lancaster ran into the rear of the Trimble car.

WAS REMINISCING IN PERRY AND JUNIATA COUNTIES SUN.

Mr. Henry J. Engle, proprietor of the Central House here, enjoyed a trip thru the Juniata and Perry County's mountains Sunday. This is the section in which Mr. Engle died nearly all his hunting up until about ten years ago. When it comes to squirrel, grouse, turkey and deer Mr. Engle says the woods doesn't owe him a thing.

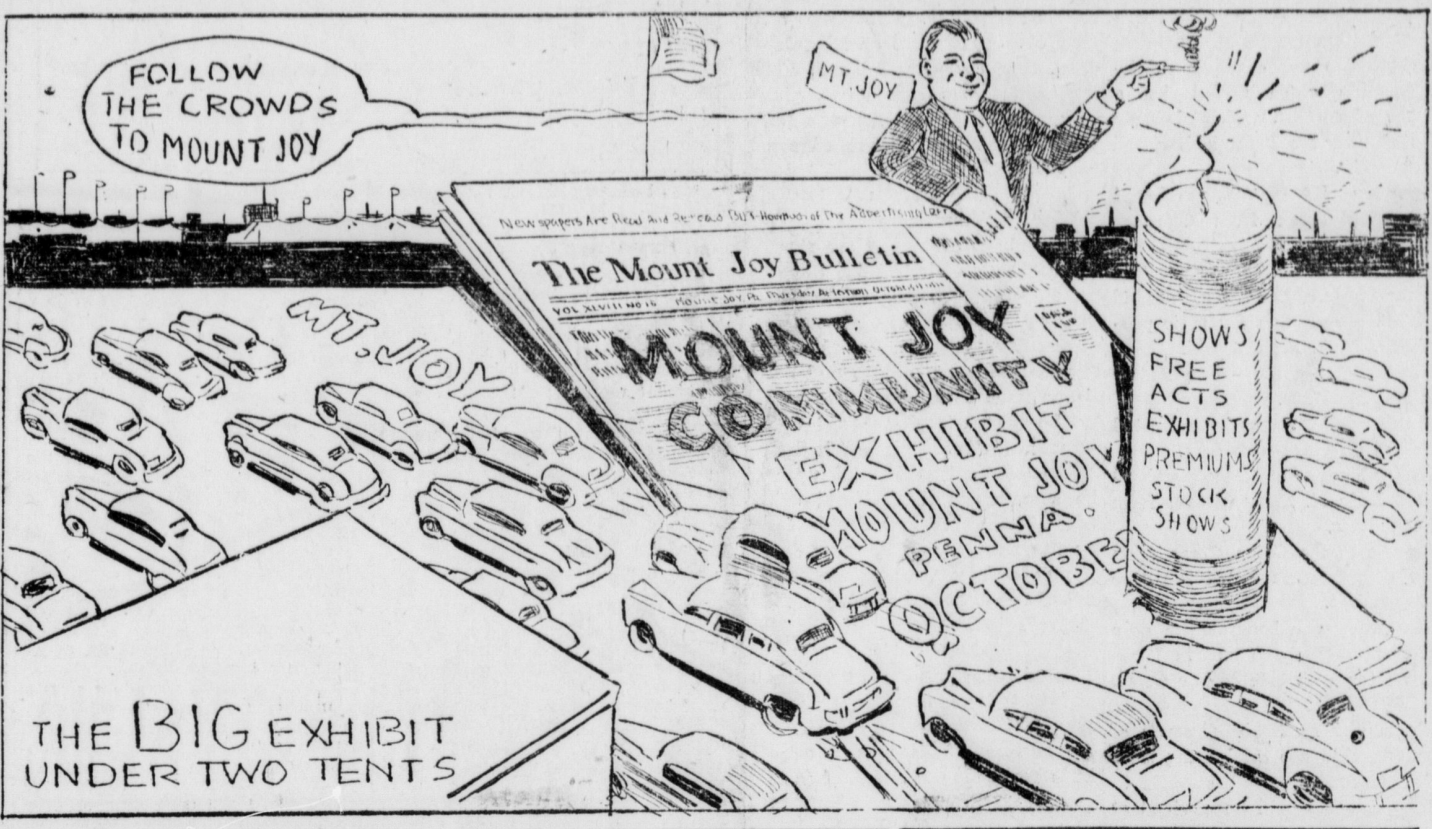

FIREMEN ANSWER CALL BUT THE FIRE WAS GONE

Friendship Fire Company, answered a call at 6:15 p.m. Friday northeast of the borough where an automobile was on fire. When the company arrived, the car was gone, but bystanders said there was only slight damage caused by a short circuit in the battery cable.

MAN AND WIFE KILLED IN PLANE CRASH NEAR E'TOWN

Dr. Wayne F. Crider, fifty, and his wife, fifty-two, of Hagerstown, Maryland, were killed instantly when their plane crashed in Mt. Joy township on Hershey Estates farm No. 82, tenanted by Paul Gigan, Elizabethtown R2.

All Roads Will Lead To Mount Joy October 12-13-14

Man Is Fined $500 For Violating The State Firearms Act

In our county court last week Robert Dale Foster, twenty, Paxton, Dauphin County, pleaded guilty to violating the state firearms act and was fined $200 and costs. Foster was arrested by State Policeman Andrew C. Horvath, of the Hershey barracks, on the night of Sept. 3 at the intersection of routes 340-241 in Mount Joy Twp., near the Dauphin line.

Order of The Lions Hallowe'n Parade

It's time to have a heart-to-heart talk with Junior about his piggy bank, and to ask him to give some pennies to the Lions for the Mount Joy Hallowe'n parade on October 31. The Mile of Pennies campaign has now a total of 1296 feet.

ATTENDING CONFERENCE

Mrs. Norman H. Sprecher is attending as a delegate, from East Fenna. Conference, the National Quadrennial Convention of the Women's Society of World Service, Evangelical U. B. Church, which is being held at Indianapolis, Indiana, on October 12 to 16th.

RHEEMS LADY INJURED AT FOOT BALL GAME

Miss Anna Bertha Groff, seventeen, Rheems, a cheer leader for Elizabethtown High School, was reported in satisfactory condition at St. Joseph's Hospital Sunday night, where she was admitted Friday night suffering possible internal injuries.

DEEDS RECORDED

George B. and Mabel L. Risser, Elizabethtown, to Harold E. and Dorothy N. Kulp, Mount Joy, lot with improvements, N. Hanover Street, Elizabethtown, $6,000.

Car Rolled Over Three Times; Two Passengers Escape

How would you like to be in a car that collided with another auto, then race across the highway, struck a pole, rolled over three times and landed right side up in a field? Well that is exactly what happened here Saturday night and the people in the car weren't hurt.

HENRY ROSENFELD'S FARM BROUGHT $202 AN ACRE

A farm of 75 acres in Mount Joy township, 3 miles east of Elizabethtown, was purchased at $202 an acre by Paul S. Hilscher, Elizabethtown RD, when offered at public sale by Henry Rosenfeld on Thursday afternoon. There is a large meadow and stream of water on the place.

REXALL 1-CENT SALE STARTS NEXT THURSDAY, OCT. 19

The Rexall original One Cent Sale starts Thursday, October 19th at Sloan's Rexall Drug Store. It's the Rexall one cent sale advertised in leading magazines and on the Dick Powell Radio show, now bringing Mount Joy five great value packed days, offering quality Rexall Drug Products at two for the price of one plus one cent. Starts Thursday, October 19 at Sloan's Rexall Drug Store, Joy Theatre Bldg.

SLIGHT FIRE AT RHEEMS

The Rheems Fire Co., was summoned at 4 p. m. Monday to the Martin E. Cope cannery there when a short circuit caused a fire in a motor in the boiler room. Firemen said they managed to extinguish the blaze before any additional damage resulted. Damage was estimated at $300.

LEFT FOR THE HEIRS

By an adjudication filed in the Orphans Court there remains a total of $3,310.09 in the estate of Frank Fair, late of Florin, for distribution among the heirs.

The Local News For The Past Week Very Briefly Told

Today is Columbus Day. A man at Litzitz was fined $10 and costs for not feeding his dog. The State has been offered the Landis Valley Museum as a shrine. Michael Evans, twelve, of Manheim, broke his leg in football practice. Two men were killed on Gap Hill when their truck ran into the rear of a truck. Elwood C. Hacker, Salunga, was prosecuted at Columbia for ignoring a red traffic light.

W. HEMPFIELD TO VOTE ON $158,000 BOND ISSUE

Voters of W. Hempfield Twp. will ballot November 7 on a proposed $158,000 bond issue to finance the construction of a consolidated elementary school in the township. The proposed school would replace the 10 one-room and two room grade schools now operating in the township. No definite plans have yet been made for the school, officials said, except that it would be located near the center of the township.

KNOW YOUR BANK BETTER

In connection with Pennsylvania Week the Banks are cooperating by inviting the public into their various places of business in order that the public may become better acquainted with Banks and how they operate.

WANT BIDS ON FURNITURE

John M. Swarr, secretary of the East Hempfield Township School Board, announced Wednesday that bids for furniture for the new elementary school building will be received on Nov. 3 at 8 p. m.

IS RECALLED TO DUTY

James R. Way, S. N. twenty-two, of Salunga, a member of the Organized Naval Reserves in Lancaster, has been recalled to active duty. Way has already reported to the Phila. Naval base.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Complaint in divorce: Ralph E. Bankus, thirty-one, 115 Columbia Ave., Mount Joy, vs. Jane E. Bankus, thirty, Bainbridge RI; cruel and barbarous treatment and indignities married October 12, 1940.

Brief News From The Dailies For Quick Reading

Lancaster City has abandoned its annual Armistice Day parade. A Baltimore concern will erect a $125,000 super market at Lancaster. Over $3,000,000 worth of buildings were erected in Lancaster County the first six months of this year. A Phila. butcher on his way to Lancaster to buy cattle was killed near New Holland when his truck upset. Three Phila. women, suspected of theft, were followed out of a Lancaster store and then arrested. Police found 14 pair of silk hose in their possession.

MRS. M. M. LEIB IS NOW RESIDING AT NEWVILLE

A host of friends of Mrs. M. M. Leib, for many years a resident of our borough will be pleased to learn that her physical condition has improved greatly. Mrs. Leib has been living with a Miss Sanderson, at Bushkill, Pike County for some time but due to the latter's physical condition, left there last week and will make her future home at the Presbyterian Home at Newville, Pa.

2nd Contribution Of Used Toys

About a year ago our local American Legion held a gathering of used toys which they later shipped to Austria for distribution among the children there. This year Mrs. Wallace Zerphy has volunteered to carry on this work and a shipment will be made on October 21st, any person having toys or clothing please notify Mrs. Zerphy. If you don't have time to deliver your contribution to Zerphy's Service Station, here, just phone and someone will call for it.

DEEDS RECORDED

Raymond H. and Florence H. Hinkle, East Donegal Township, to Sylvester Martin Hejnyard, East Donegal Township, premises, Florin, $9,550. Mrs. Emma K. Kaylor, seventy-six, wife of L. H. Kaylor, Elizabethtown R. D., to St. Joseph's Hospital.

LETTERS GRANTED

Harriet D. Barnhart, Mount Joy, executrix of the estate of Mary E. Newpher, late of Mount Joy. Ruth B. Sweigart, of Landisville, executrix of the estate of Mabel S. Bickel, late of Landisville.

FOOD SALE OCTOBER 21

Local Girl Scout Troop No. 8 will hold a food sale Saturday, October 21, starting at 10:30 a. m., in front of the office of the B. Titus Rutt Agency on East Main St.

FOOD SALE OCTOBER 27

The Ladies Bible Class of Trinity Lutheran Church will have a food sale in the basement of the new Parish House on Friday, October 27th beginning at four o'clock.

Mortuary Record Throughout This Entire Locality

Mrs. Lillian Fetterly, fifty-two, at Manheim. Mrs. Ella Mae Hartman, seventy-nine, at Mountville. Mrs. Elizabeth Hawkins, fifty-seven, at Columbia. Amos C. McCumsey, seventy, of Columbia, at the County Hospital. Clarence H. Shenk, sixty-three, of Elizabethtown, at the York Hospital. Mrs. Katie Snavely Ulrich, sixty-eight, wife of Clayton Ulrich, Manheim RI. Mrs. Lillian Shearer Fetterly, fifty-two, of Manheim at the General Hospital. Mrs. Carrie H. Nissley, widow of Peter Nissley, at Elizabethtown, aged seventy-nine. Mrs. Clara B. Boyd, seventy-seven, widow of Jacob Boyd, Manheim, at the General Hospital. John M. Forry, eighty, Manheim R2, on Sunday at the Elmdale Rest Home, Litzitz R2. He was a member of the Mt. Pleasant Brethren In Christ Church. Mrs. Della Mae Gearhart, forty-eight, wife of William Gearhart, Manheim R3, died Saturday afternoon in the office of J. Hoffman Garber at Elizabethtown. Elder A. Gibbons, fifty-two, (Turn to Page 4)

LOCAL ART CLUB WILL EXHIBIT AT JNO. BOOTHS

The members of the Mount Joy Art Club will exhibit their paintings in Booth's Store window during the Farm Show. Members are: Mrs. Jay Brandt, Mrs. Willis Collins, Mrs. Charles Ebersole, Barry Ginder, Mrs. Harry Greiner, Mrs. J. H. Habecker, Mrs. Charles Heaps, Mrs. Phoebe Krall, Mrs. Ruth Kravbill, Mrs. J. N. Newcomer, Mrs. Thos. Mariner, Mr. Robert Schenck, Miss Mary Sprow, Mr. Phares Zook, Miss Grace Henderson, Mr. John Dillinger, Instructor, Mr. Lineas Longenecker.

STAUFFERTOWN COUPLE WILL CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Ressler of Stauffertown, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday, October 15th. The couple was married in 1900 at the home of Pastor D. W. Gearhart at Lancaster. They have three children, Mrs. Anna M. Maurer, Akron, Ohio; Isaac K. Ressler, R.D. 2, Mt. Joy and Harry K. of California. Also six grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

TB Society Survey Mt. Joy Twp. Area

The Tuberculosis Society of Lancaster County in cooperation with the Mount Joy School District will survey the school children and residents in the Mount Joy Township area October 12 and 13. The mobile x-ray unit will be stationed at these locations: Thursday, October 12: Florin School, 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.; Fairview School, 10:00 a.m. Mt. Pleasant 11:00 a.m., Woodland 1:30 p.m., Bel-laire 2:15 p.m., Friday, October 13 Grandview 8:30 a.m., Cherry Hill 9:45 a.m., Milton Grove 11:00 a.m., Wheatland 1:30 p.m., Sunnyburn 2:15 p.m. Adult population in these areas may take advantage of this Chest x-ray service. Get a chest x-ray every year for every person in your family who is 15 or over. If you want to know more about TB, see your Doctor, your Health Department, or your Tuberculosis Association.

WANT BIDS ON FURNITURE

John M. Swarr, secretary of the East Hempfield Township School Board, announced Wednesday that bids for furniture for the new elementary school building will be received on Nov. 3 at 8 p. m.

IS RECALLED TO DUTY

James R. Way, S. N. twenty-two, of Salunga, a member of the Organized Naval Reserves in Lancaster, has been recalled to active duty. Way has already reported to the Phila. Naval base.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Complaint in divorce: Ralph E. Bankus, thirty-one, 115 Columbia Ave., Mount Joy, vs. Jane E. Bankus, thirty, Bainbridge RI; cruel and barbarous treatment and indignities married October 12, 1940.