

Our Big Farm

(From page 1)
Market Street hill and at 2:30 the Horse, Pony, Implement and Float Parade will move.

The Corn Queen and her court will lead the parade.

This parade is always the big feature of the show. It will include saddle horses, harness horses, draft horses, mules, implements, farm and commercial floats. Co-chairmen of the event are Earl W. Myers, in charge of horses entered and D. B. Brubaker, in charge of implements and commercial floats.

The East Donegal High School Band, East Hempfield High, Elizabethtown High, New Holland High and the Mount Joy High School

Band will furnish music for the parade.

Parade Route

The parade will form at the grade school building at 2:00 p.m. It will move south on Market Street to Columbia Ave., east on Columbia Ave., to Jacob St., north on Jacob St., to Main St., west on Main St., to New Haven St., south on New Haven St., to Marietta St., to school and dismiss.

All these features are among the added attractions for the three days event. The "big top" housing the many displays will be situated on the PRR parking lot as in previous years.

Many Displays

This year's show will also include large displays of new farm machines and automobiles plus exhibits by many business men including almost anything one could desire seeing.

Then too, there will be amusements galore plus all kinds of good food and refreshments.

Be Seein' You!

Soap Box Derby
Don't forget the Soap Box Derby on Saturday afternoon beginning at 12:45 on the Market Street hill. If you have not already done so, it is still not too late to get a racer together and bring it along. First Prize will be $600 and so on down the line for the stock racers, and a $500 prize for the souped up jobs. In case of rain, the race will be held the following Saturday.

Here is another thing for all boys and girls with bicycles. Don't forget the bicycle parade, Saturday afternoon. Meet at the Grade school at 2:15, and there will be five prizes from $5, for the first to one dollar for the fifth prize, for the best decorated bicycle.

So here is an opportunity to cash in on some of this prize money. The Soap Box Derby and the Bicycle parade. Any questions about either event, see Joe Snaeffler for further information.

Man Is Fined $500

was not involved in the armed robbery and agreed with District Attorney Rank that the firearms violation was a technical one.

Foster said he had used the revolver when he was previously employed as a watchman and that one of the rifles was used for target, while he had just borrowed the second rifle to go hunting. Former Dauphin County Sheriff Newbaker appeared in court to testify in Foster's behalf.

HARVEST HOME SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH

On Sunday morning, October 15, at 10:45 a. m., the annual Harvest Home Service of the Mt. Joy Methodist Church will be held. This is a service of thanksgiving to God for HIS many blessings through the harvest of this year. Persons attending the service will bring with them canned goods, cereals, jellies, sugar, potatoes and all type of foods that are not perishable. After the service these gifts will be taken to the Methodist Home for the Aged in Philadelphia. Most of the food used in this Home is donated by the Methodist Churches of the Philadelphia Conference.

PICTURES OF MISSIONARY WORK IN MEXICO

Mrs. Lois Chambers, Missionary-Appointee to Mexico will speak and show the sound motion picture, "Oh, For A Thousand Tongues" this coming Wednesday evening, October 18th, at 7:30 p.m. in the Calvary Bible Church.

This film portrays the work of missionaries of the Wycliffe Bible Translators, an agency that enters virgin mission areas and reduces the languages and dialects of these areas into writing. Miss Chambers in company with another young lady expect to be leaving the states soon for the interior of Mexico where they will work among Indian tribes heretofore not reached with the Gospel. While there they will translate the scriptures into the language of the people. Don't miss this service.

C. I. Summy is the Pastor of the Church.
