Paul Rittenhouse, National Executive Director of the Girl Scouts of the United States, who spoke on "The Responsibilities of Membership in the Girl Scouts." Mrs. Rittenhouse who has headed the national group since 1935 has seen membership grow from 73,000 to 1,500,000. Here in Mount Joy there are now approximately one hundred Scouts.

The opening session of the Conference was a Scouts' Own and pageant, "Hand in Hand", by the 29 councils of western Pennsylvania. Following a sightseeing tour at which time the four visited the University of Pittsburgh, there was a "Make New Friends" evening in the William Penn Hotel at which the Allegheny County Council was hostess. Other program highlights of the William Penn sessions were Miss Eleanor Hoover, Regional Chairman, speaking on "The State of the Region" Miss Lenore Amerman, "We Look to the Future," and Miss Sally Stickney, "Girl Scouting in the Decade Ahead."

Miss Barbara Wallace, the region's official Senior Scout Delegate to the International Girl Scout's Chalet at Adelboden, Switzerland, this past summer, titled her talk, "High up — High on a Mountain." Dr. Ruth Henderson enlarged on the international aspects of Girl Scouting when she spoke on "Come Along With Us — Around the World."

Shirley went to a party Sunday evening just for Senior Scouts at which time the Pittsburgh girls were the hostesses. Twelve persons from Lancaster Co. attended the affair. Tommy Lone accompanied his mother to Pittsburgh where he visited his aunt, Mrs. Henry Eby.

heim Township High School who represented the Litzitz-Manheim 4-H Club, was crowned in colorful ceremonies climaxing the first day program.

An artistic arrangement of corn shocks and sunflowers formed the backdrop for her throne. Miss Stauffer was clad in a peasant-type dress. The crown bearer was five year old Jay Bixer, Mount Joy R1, and Helen Musser, Mount Joy R2, aged six, was flower girl.

Livestock experts worked late Thursday afternoon before judging of the swine, 26 head of baby beeves, and nine pens of lambs was completed, and the series of contests by 4-H youths had been finished.

Three Southdown sheep exhibited by Marlene Good, thirteen, of Lancaster R1, a member of the Red Rose 4-H Baby Beef and Lamb Club of Lancaster County, captured the coveted blue ribbon for entering the grand champion pen at the Mount Joy show. These lambs will be returned to the farm and fed for final display and sale at the next State Farm Show at Harrisburg in January.

Reserve champion sheep of the show were three Hampshires exhibited by Ronald Martin of Ephrata R1.

Other exhibitors of lambs placed as follows:

3. Lilly Ann Greider, Mt. Joy R1; 4. Clair Hilsner, Elizabethtown R1; 5. Jane Greiner, Manheim R4; 6. Arlene Brubaker, Lancaster R1; 7. Joyce Dombach, Lancaster R3; 8. Arlene Dombach, Lancaster R3; and Shirley Heisey, Manheim R1.

Three awards of merit, donated by the Mount Joy Chamber of Commerce, went to the following for lamb showmanship:

Lilly Ann Greider (gold medal); Clair Hilsner (silver medal) and Marlene Good (bronze medal).

An Aberdeen Angus steer entered by Ray Miller, eighteen, of Manheim R2, walked off with the grand championship award of the show. It will be entered in the district 4-H club roundup to be held at the Lancaster stockyards in December and finally at the State Farm Show, Harrisburg, in January.

Reserve grand champion is a Hereford beef shown by Elvin Yeagley, of Elizabethtown R3.

Others in the leading group of five top steers, according to the judges, were all Angus beeves, shown by:

3. Curvin Martin, Jr., Mount Joy R1; Wilbur Erb, Mount Joy R1; and 5. Marlene Good, Lancaster R1.

In the baby beef showmanship contest, Chamber of Commerce awards went to these 4-H members, Elvin Yeagley (gold), Ray Miller, (silver); and Curvin Martin, Jr. (bronze).

Soap Box Derby

On Saturday afternoon the Soap Box Derby started with nine entries. Four heats were run in order to find the four who would qualify for the final race.

Charles Groff and Herbert Coover raced the first heat with Coover winning. The second heat was between Richard McGregor and Ken-ny Wittle, with Wittle winning. The third race was between Joe Hostetter and Ben Groff, with Hostetter taking it. The fourth race was between Jack Beaton and Charles Groff, with Groff winning. Charles Groff was permitted to race twice so as to make an even number, and because of the type racer he had.

Following the four heats a race was run between J. Young and Lee Newcomer, each having a racer built to the specifications as set forth by the National Soap Box Derby. This race was won by Young, giving Lee Newcomer a chance to compete in the consolation race. A race was run with Beaton, McGregor and Ben Groff, and the winner would then race Lee Newcomer for the prize. This race was won by Ben Groff. In the final consolation race between Newcomer and Groff, New-comer won and collected the prize.

The main event consisted of Coover, Wittle, Hostetter and Charles Groff. They crossed the finish line in the following order: first, Joe Hostetter; second, Kenmy Wittle; third, Charles Groff; and fourth, Herbert Coover.

OYSTER SUPPER, NOV. 4

The Ladies Bible Class of the Church of God, Landisville, will serve an oyster supper at the Fire Hall on Saturday, November 4th, from 4 to 8 p. m.

They're two of the biggest men in town!

And one of them is you. The other one is a man who is giving a lot of his own time to help his neighbors. He's giving his energy, too — out calling on people at their homes and offices, telling people about the Red Feather services of our Community Chest.

It really isn't his job alone. It's everybody's job. But he is a Red Feather volunteer, asking for money for a cause that shouldn't require any begging or groveling.

Where do you come in? Why, you are the man who doesn't flinch or duck or hide behind a lame excuse when the first chap says "Red Feather." Instead, you smile and make him feel welcome. Then you dig down deep for all you can afford to give.

That brings your size up to his!
