tobacco shed of Theodore Trone, Marietta R1, and stole socket wrenches and shotgun shells, police said.

Thefts are Listed

The new series of crimes committed by the "Saturday night gang," which included combinations of the five youths involved, were listed by State Policeman Peter P. Oreszko as follows:

Oct. 7, siphoned 13 gallons of gasoline from trucks at Heisey Bros. stone quarry; Oct. 10, siphoned four gallons of gas at the Heisey quarry; Oct. 12, theft of eight gallons of gasoline from same quarry; Oct. 21, broke into cabin of Jacob L. Reem, Elizabethtown R2, and stole two blankets and a rifle; Oct. 21, entered new homes constructed at Sagertown, two miles south of Elizabethtown, and stole a clock and a small radio; Oct. 22, broke rural mail boxes belonging to Jacob E. Forrey, Milton Sechrist, Amos B. Herr and Milton M. Forrey, all of Elizabethtown R3; Oct. 29, stole electric fixtures from empty tenant house on property of Jacob E. Forrey.

Police said the cases of Wilmer Herr and Francis Roeting will be referred to the County Juvenile Probation office. Donald Roeting is reported to be out of the State at present, according to police.
