The Golden Rule Bible Class Held A Banquet Here

The Golden Rule Bible Class of Reich's Evangelical Congregational Sunday School near Maytown, held its annual Christmas banquet on Thursday evening, at Hostetter's here.

Mrs. C. S. Brandt is the president of the class and John D. Roland is the teacher. Christmas gifts were exchanged, and secret sisters were disclosed. Names for next year were drawn by members present.

The Young Ladies' Bible Class of the Reich's School held a Christmas Cheer Social and capon dinner in the American Legion Hall, at Maytown Monday evening.

Following dinner, the devotional committee presented a Christmas program of Readings and Christmas carols. Special musical numbers were sung by Miss Martha E. Roland, Mrs. Miriam Aeri, Mrs. Doris Weidman, Mrs. Dorothy Johns, Mrs. Helen Bowers, and Mrs. George Shultz.

A business session was in charge of the president, Miss Florence Trone, when secret pals presented each other gifts and disclosed their identity.

Christmas Festival

their appearance on the program.

The grade school children will have their part in the program at this time. The first grade under the supervision of Miss Charles and Mrs. Emma Good, will sing "A Jolly Little Man" and "Jolly Old Saint Nicholas". Next will come the second Grade under the supervision of Mrs. Luecke and Miss Brubaker. These students will sing "Up On The House Top" and "Rudolf the Red-Nosed Reindeer". Sheryl Brown, Phyllis Brown, James Harnish, Edi Chimenko, and Robert Childs will be featured in the former number. The Rhythm Band will be heard in the second number and Lewis Hart, Carol West, and James Yohn will be the featured soloists. The Third Grade, under Miss Kaylor and Miss Heisey, will then sing "Here Comes Santa Claus" and "All I Want For Christmas". The latter song features: Michael Mumma, Ronald Corll and Ronald Pennell. The pupils of the Fourth Grade, Miss Ihach and Mrs. Ziegler, will then sing "Silent Night", which will be done in German, taught by Miss Ihach, and "Frosty, The Snowman". The pupils of the Fifth Grade, under the supervision of Mrs. Johnson, will sing "Christmas Eve" and "Santa Claus Is Comin' to Town". Robert Reich is the featured soloist in the latter number. The combined grades of Mrs. Casale and Mrs. Bingham will render two selections, "Joy To The World" and "The Fattest Man In Town". Next comes the Junior High Chorus, who will sing "It came Upon The Midnight Clear" and "Winter Wonderland". At this time an offering will be lifted during which Nancy Brooks will render a few organ selections.

After the intermission, Jack Boyer will sing a baritone sol, "Come to the Stable". Mr. Beahm will then read "The Christmas Story" after which the Mixed Chorus will sing "A Merry Christmas" and "Carol of the Bells". The Boys Chorus will sing two numbers, "Christmas in Kilarney" and "White Christmas". The Mixed Chorus will then sing "Bethlehem" and "Santa Claus Is Comin' to Town". The Finale will be the singing of "O Holy Night" by the Mixed Chorus with the solo being sung by Mary Grace Bucher.

The program will end with the Combined Chorus singing "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem", "Joy To The World" and the Recessional with the carol "Hark the Herald Angels Sing".
Ben Brown is going to portray Santa Claus.

WILL OPERATE TO DEC. 30

The Modern Beauty Salon, 36 1/2 West Main St., this place, will continue operating here until December 30th inclusive.

It will then be closed permanently and the equipment moved to the new place of business, Jean Hoffman Beauty Shoppe, at 660 Mt. Joy St., Elizabethtown. Mrs. Hoffman will be open for business at the new location on Tuesday, January 9th.
