

OWL LAFFS

—BY— A WISE OWL

We have a Beauty Parlor here in town that sure is proud of its work. The other day I saw this sign hanging in the window. Please Don't Whistle at Any Girl Leaving Here — She May Be Your Grandmother.

Back at the High School the other day a new candidate just could not flip that ball into the basket. Some fellow suggested lowering the basket. The fellow said: Either that or raise the floor.

We have a rummy here in town who drinks like a fish. The only trouble is he doesn't drink the same stuff they do.

I'd certainly like to see how a fish would act if he swam around in a tank of Old Granddad or even Old Overholt.

Over at the old Foust Distillery near Glen Rock, York county, they raise a lot of hogs and frequently gave them mash after the alcohol was extracted.

Now picture about fifty hogs staggering around and squealing after eating a belly full of that mash. But the funniest thing I ever saw them do was about a dozen huddled together in a corner trying to sing Sweet Adeline.

It sounded about as good as a bunch of ordinary drunks could do.

A man down at Landisville told me that his wife was trying to reduce by touching the floor with her chin without bending her knees.

Of course I asked him how she did it and he said she fell out of bed.

I asked a Florin woman if she enjoyed the Farm Show.

She said: "Indeed I did. One of the salesmen, nice lockin' chap, talked to me for hours."

A certain fellow here (and it wasn't Jay Meckley either) is building a new house. The other day he remarked to the contractor that the building didn't look very strong.

The man replied: "Well you got to consider we ain't got the wall paper on yet."

How many of you fellows know that after Bob Fitzsimmons won the world's heavy weight championship from Jim Corbett they would never fight again because they couldn't get gloves large enough to fit—zimmmons.

You might think that the fellow who had his hand caught in a machine and all his fingers cut off was unlucky but he wasn't. He took up shorthand.

Over at Newtown a fellow had an argument with his wife and he told her that when women are mean to their husbands, they must lead an ape thru the next world when they die.

She said: Not me because I've led one around this world all my life.

Everything went wrong around here on Monday and I told the fellows I believe the devil is here. One of 'em said: "I think you're right. Let's lock all the doors and give him where he comes from."

That should do it for this week.

Donegal Airport News

Samuel Balsbaugh, Arthur Hostetter, and Henry Weber of Chickens Aero Corporation started for Miami, Florida on Saturday morning. This the longest trip yet made by the club members in their new airplane, the "Piper Pacer".

Ralph Kauffman and John Hawthorne flew to Wilson, North Carolina over the weekend.

Joe Loraw, Earl Heisey and Phares Landis flew to Wilmington, Delaware on Monday.

Dude Flying Club member Norman Heisey, is home on furlough from Eglin Air Force Base where he is stationed.

John M. Landis of Donegal Airport is getting his basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky.

THIS WAS A BASKETBALL GAME FOR THE BOOKS

Twenty years ago the University of Pennsylvania asked the Bulletin if it could furnish the records of a game of basketball played in Mt. Joy March 16, 1918.

We referred to our files and found that on the above date Mt. Joy High and Rothsville High played, the former team winning 26 to 24.

The unusual part of the game was that Charles DeLong, now living near Philadelphia (he was in town two weeks ago) scored all the points for the winners. He had eight field goals and 10 out of 18 fouls for a total of 26 points.

That's one for you basketballers to shoot at.

MOUNT JOY HIGH EASILY DEFEATED PATTON TRADE

Mt. Joy High stepped out of County High League competition Monday night to administer a 73-32 drubbing to Patton School's basketball team at E-town.

Score by periods:
MT. JOY . . . 21 16 23 13—73
PATTON TRADE . . . 4 7 6 15—32
Mt. Joy JV 49, Patton JV 35.

JOHN HAVERSTICK & CO. COULDN'T FIND THE THING

District Game Protector John Haverstick and a large brigade of hunters armed to the teeth scoured the woods around Norwood Sunday for a supposed catamount. After several hours they didn't see a predator of any kind. But they all had a pleasant outing.

KEYSTONE HOLSTEIN SALES ACQUIRE REGISTERED COW

1951 Plymouth Now On Display At Aments

Spectacular engineering advancements which produce driving and riding ease heretofore unknown in automobiles of any price class, feature the new line of Plymouth cars. Combining smart new body lines with matchless interior luxury, the 1951 Plymouth will go on display here and throughout the United States tomorrow, Eli Ament, announced today.

Designers have given the Plymouth a striking new silhouette, and interior refinements are innovations in the lowest price field. The styling improvements retain the traditional roominess of the cars.

The new Plymouths may be seen here at Ament's Garage, Delta and Henry Streets.

Easier to drive and more comfortable, the new cars have greater beauty, more safety features and broader ranges of vision than ever before.

Engineers say the new "Safety-Flow ride" takes the bounce and wallop out of the bumps. A new application of hydraulic flow control in the shock absorbers provides a more gradual change of resistance during spring deflections and thus a softer ride when driving on average roads. It also exerts extra resistance on rough roads to a degree where driver and passengers are almost completely freed of the discomfort of being jolted around.

The "Safety-Flow ride" is one of the greatest contributions to driving comfort and safety in recent years, according to D. S. Eddins, president of Plymouth Motor Corp.

"The new Plymouth gives you roadability never before offered in any car," he said. "There is no necessity for steering-wheel fatigue to control the car on difficult roads. The driver is no longer required to focus full attention on the condition of the road. He may be more watchful of incoming traffic, pedestrians, curves, crossroads and other potential hazards."

Eddins called the new development a major step toward restful motoring. More confidence is gained by driving or riding in a new Plymouth with the "Safety-Flow," ride, and as a result there is less driver and passenger fatigue, he said.

The lines of the new Plymouth have been beautified. An appearance of massiveness combined with smart streamlining is induced by a new grille, beautifully redesigned front fenders and hood, a wider windshield and a larger rear window.

There are numerous mechanical improvements. Windshield wipers are electrically operated, and are of the single speed, self parking type.

A unique pressure-vent radiator cap, which has been added as standard equipment, permits the cooling system to be operated at atmospheric pressure during normal driving conditions. Under high load, high temperature driving conditions, the new radiator cap provides a pressurized cooling system to allow high coolant temperature without boiling or less of anti-freeze.

All Plymouth engines now have a built-in by-pass cooling system permitting water circulation and resulting in more uniform temperature throughout the engine during the warm-up period. The new system consists of a passage in the cylinder head and block providing direct access to the water pump, and a choke-type thermostat to regulate coolant flow to the radiator.

The new Plymouth interiors offer the finest selection of upholstery and trim and the most harmonious color schemes in the company's history. The colors which have been chosen provide throughout the interior a pleasing combination of shades in harmony with the car's exterior color. Designers say the interior is an unparalleled achievement in combining practicality with luxury. Always noted for spaciousness, Plymouth now has even more head room and more room to stretch out in comfort in the rear seat.

Among the "high-priced car" features which are retained are six-cylinder, 97-horsepower engine with a 7 to 1 compression ratio, the combination ignition and starter switch, automatic electric choke, super cushion tires, safe-guard hydraulic brakes, and safety-rim wheels.
