

OWL LAFFS

A WISE OWL

There was just no way I could get out of going Easter shopping with my wife on Saturday...

And yet there is only one thing that a wife will admit she doesn't know, and that is why she married her husband.

Ever have any trouble finding something to do on Sunday? If you do, and there's nothing particular exciting in view...

Our sixth graders are complaining that their ancestors made geography unnecessarily difficult. They see no reason at all why the Canadian river was 'put down in Texas and Oklahoma.

Now and then you meet up with a young wippersnapper who thinks he's a super salesman. Well, we know of one who got his ears pinned down lately...

A West Donegal St. papa was reading the evening paper when his son asked: "Say, Dad, what's creep-inflation?"

A brewery truck and a horse collided near an ant pile. An ant took a few sips of the spilled beer...

You know, my Aunt Fanny simply can't resist a man with a pipe. She just married her fourth plumber.

Two small boys seemed to be having a heated argument, over the possession of a tiny kitten. A sedate old man was passing...

"Boys! Boys!" broke in the man, "you're going at this all wrong! In the first place, you should never tell a lie at all, under any circumstance!"

Here's another one of those classified ads that we get such a laff out of. It came by letter from a man who had the misfortune to lose his false teeth.

Last Easter morning our pet bantam rooster discovered a basket of Easter eggs on the back porch.

Sunday I witnessed an accident when a lady driver made a right

Mt. Joy High Won

At the last meeting of the Mt. Joy Sportsmen's Association plans were made for fish and groundhog contests again the coming season.

Two prizes to be awarded in the fish contest. One prize will be awarded the winner of the 16 years of age or older division and a junior prize to the winner of the division created for contestants under 16.

The sportsmen are also planning a groundhog competition this year during which prizes of $30, $20 and $10 will be awarded as first, second and third prizes.

Color Adds Zest. Color is the spice of existence. Without it, life would lose its zest and be hardly worth the candle.

Academic Freedom—that is what they are demanding—and no exception—in our big universities. It sounds like deep water you are delving into, says Henry—and when or where did you ever see the inside of a big college, don't be too sure or petulant, I says, but I refuse to answer—it might involve my rights under the Constitution.

Throughout our land—in many schools—academic freedom is working against our old fashioned Plymouth Rock style freedom and towards crippling socialism which leads next—and sure as there are little apples—to communism.

Everybody reads newspapers but NOT everybody reads circular advertising left on their door step.
