Centennial Queen and Maid-of MOST Honor Get a Free Week-End Trip To New York City

A Former Barber Here Slashes Wife

was in critical condition at St. Joseph's Hospital late Wednesday night. A hospital spokesman said. however, that there was a "reasonable chance" that he will survive. He is being guarded by a city po-

Ruth, thirty-three, his wife, was at Lancaster General Hospital in lected from one of the surrounding "fairly good condition."

The Glassmyers are the parents of eleven children. They live in a two-room apartment on the third and fourth floors of the building at 64 N. Queen St., the southwest corner of Orange and Queen in Lancaster.

Glassmyer, who was under the care of a physician, with a six inch kitchen knife, stabbed his wife in shoulder blade. Then Glassmyer took an ice pick and inflicted between 13 and 15 nesday evening, May 9. small puncture wounds in his chest and throat. Both were removed to hospitals where authorities say they will re-

The Glassmyers are former residens of our boro. Mrs. Glassmyer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hendrix, of this place.

15th Annual May HIGH SCHOOL TO CROWN MAY QUEEN ON FRIDAY Day At Maytown

The Fifteenth Annual May Day of the East Donegal Township ening, May 10 at 6:00 p. m.. The members of the May Day Court and their escorts will be: Seniors-Pauline Miller and James Drescher Mumper and Jack Beaston. Doris Ginder and Wilbur Brubaker; Juniors-Helen Shirk and Stanley Murphy, Kay Warfel and Glen Arnold, Margaret Clark and Bernmuth and Fred Wetzel.

One of the Senior girls will be crowned May Queen by Miss Shir-Roth, who was last year's Queen. The queen is chosen from among Bennett, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Elvin the Senior girls by a vote of the Baker, Mrs. Sarah B. Corll, Miss (Turn to page 2)

Holstein Cow Sold For $850 At Sale Here Last Friday

Keystone Holstein Sales Inc., held another banner sale at their of the boro last Friday afternoon. The highest price paid for a registered Holstein cow at the dispersal sale of the Myron A. King chased seven cows and paid a total price of $4,215.00 for them.

The next two highest priced cows were sold for $825 each to the E. L. M. Farms, Greencastle. A two- of Hossler's School, will hold their year-old heifer was sold to John M. Umble, Atglen, for $730, and a yearling heifer to the same buyer for $615. Heifer calves averaged $173. The twelve milking cows sold will be furnished by Jack Haines, in the herd averaged $633 each.

At the same time, 22 cows were sold on consignment. They averaged $511 each. The top cow and calf brought $830. Purchasers were Carl S. Slater, Langhorne, who bought the cow, and Ivan B. Zimmerman, Lititz R2, the calf.

Dupes and Hess were the auctioneers and Harvey Rettew, the pedigree man.

OFFICES RELOCATED MAY 9

Dr. Thomas W. O'Connor an nounces the relocation of his professional offices to 4 East Main St.

after Wednesday, May 9th. There will be no change in telephone number or office hours.

Prizes for the Queen who will reign during the borough's Cen- VOL. L, NO. 49 tennial Celebration, May 26 to 30, and her maid-of-honor, were anounced at last night's meeting of

The Queen, who must be a resi-Then Wounds Self dent of the borough, will be given Asso. Nominated a week-end trip to New York City Archie C. Glassmyer, forty-six, or its equivalent, with a companion of her choice in addition to neceiving a cash prize.

The maid-of-honor will receive similar awards. Previously the committee decided that the maidborough. However, last evening, it was decided that she may be setowns.

Also changed Wednesday night were that requirements for princesses. Originally it was decided that they be picked from communhas been decided that they may also be residents of the local borough. Present for the session was Norman Stone, Detroit, Mich., pageant Herr, Lampeter, recording secrethe left side of the neck, below the director, who announced that the left breast and below the left cast for the pageant will be select- Hand, financial secretary; Joseph ed on Monday evening with rehearsals scheduled to begin Wed- Myers, Mount Joy, trustee; R. E.

> to stage a huge fire works display liam E. Glasmire, Bareville, chapevery evening following the pag-Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and C. Hiestand, Salunga, alternate Wednesday evenings.

Sunday, May 27 will be devoted to special religious services in the eastern district. various churches.

Pupils of the high school will crown a May Queen and a May King at the annual May Hop, Thursday, May 10 sponsored by the sophomore class, Friday at 8:30 p. m. at the school. Friday at 8:30 p. m. at the school Candidates for the honor of queen are Ruth Nentwig and Mary Schools will be held Thursday ev- Rosenfeld. Candidates for king are John Miller and Joseph Coover.

Others in the May court will be Claudette Zeller, Earl Shelley, Peggy Hicks and Joseph Brandt, Mary Kopp, James Mateer, Judith Jean Snirk and Russell Herr, Mar- Kopp, Charles Zeller, Daisy Brooks garet Stephens and William Arndt, Charles Ashenfelter, Marlene

MRS. ETTA BENNETT GIVEN SURPRISE DROP-IN PARTY

Recently friends and relatives of pirthday. The following were pres-Hummer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker, Mrs. Sarah B. Corll, Miss Flo Smith, Claude Zeller, Mrs. Geo. Will Choose Cast B. Zeller, Miss Mae Zeller and Mrs. Etta Bennett.

TWO MEN ARE FINED FOR DRIVING OVER HOSE

Fines and costs were paid by two nen for driving over fire hose at the Snavely lumber yard fire, Landisville, March 30, it was announc-

The two men were prosecuted by large sales barn immediately east Ralph L. Herr, captain of the Landisville Fire Police, who stressed that fire policemen have the same authority at fires as State Police. Those who paid $20 fines and Herd, Honey Brook, was $850. The costs were Paul S. Foreman, 123 purchaser was Hassair's Farm, at Lincoln Ave., Lititz, and the late Germantown, Md. This buyer pur- Fred Kilgus, 28 E. New St., Lancaster.

FESTIVAL AT HOSSLER'S

The Parent-Teachers Association annual festival on Saturday evening, May 19, at the school. There will be refreshmens fun for everyone. Entertainment well known radio entertainer over WLBR Lebanon.

Festival will be held rain or shine. Admission by contribution. Gate prize. Vera R. Shonk is the

ARRESTED FOR RACING

Joy R1 and Clarence R. Wettig, 24, services. of Manheim, were arrested for racing on North Prince Street at Lan-

TROOP COMMITTEE WILL MEET On Monday, May 7th, the Neigh-North Market Street.

County Firemen's Officers For Year

Paul Diehm, Lititz, was nominated to succeed Wilbur C. Hiestand, Salunga, as president of the Lancaster County Firemen's Associaof-honor must be a resident of the | tion at a meeting held last Friday evening at Landisville.

Election will be held in May with installation at the annual convention in June at Terre Hill. Other officers nominated are follows: Irvin H. Kauffman, of Columbia and Lewis Martin of New Holland, for first vice president; ities in the Mount Joy area but it Jacob Weber, Bausman, second vice president: Henry Martin, of Quarryville, third vice president; Edward Dickersheid, of Ephrata, fourth vice president; J. Landis tary; Vincent Miller, Bird-in-Maus, Lancaster, treasurer; Ray Hassinger, Mount Joy, and Lester Another change in the plans was Hurst, Christiana, auditors: William noted when the committee decided Musser, Lampeter, solicitor; Willain; Thomas Bair, Strasburg, deleant which will be presented on egate to state convention; Wilbur state delegate; George F. K. Erisman, Lancaster, delegate to South

Eleven Pupils On East Hempfield High's Honor Roll

Eleven pupils attained the first honor roll for the fifth report pericd at East Hempfield township Hi School as follows:

Betty Lou Hoffman, Susan Minnich. Seniors: Velma Shank, Junior; Marjorie Minnich, and Pauline Hess, Sophomores; Betsy Shaw, Freshman; William Hug, 8th grade; Sherry Kennel, Betty Jane Sipe. Sally Springer, Thelma Young, 7th grade.

Those on the second honor roll are, by grades: Marty Ann Cope, ard Wolgemuth; Sophomores-Est- Mrs. Etta Bennett, East Main St., John Good, Jacqueline Grubb, her Ebersole and George Rhoads, surprised her with a drop-in party Georgia Usner, Helen Eyler, Jerry Joanne Good and Raymond Goep- at her home on her seventy-eighth Forney, Dorothy Sauder, Anna Sta-Nancy Warfel, Seniors; Donent: Mrs. Charles Martindale, Mr. ald Bachman, Mary Eberly, John and Mrs. Walter Eby, Mr. and Lyon, Charles Sangrey, Loretta Thomas Sweeney, all of Lemoyne; Schimp, Mary Jane Housman, Malley Warfel, now Mrs. Kenneth Miss Wilma Eaton, Mrs. Jacob colm Stehman, Doris Myers, Ruth (Turn to page 6)

For Play Here

Casting for the historical spectacle, "A Voyage Through The Century" will be done Monday evening, May 7, at 7:00 p. m., in the high school study hall. The cast will be chosen for the mammoth production which will be staged on a 200-foot stage and will include approximately 250 in the show. Representatives of the various organizations have been asked to service. Repairmen from Lancashelp with the cast chosing. The first rehearsal for the production to the point of trouble to make the will be held Wednesday evening, May 9th.

Norman Stone, of Detroit, is the director of the John B. Rogers Factory's employes took advantage Production and will remain in Mt. of a half holiday. Joy until June.

The production will include special costumes, special lighting effects, and special scenery. The pageant will portray the history and events in the founding and progress of Mount Joy.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT NEWTOWN SCHOOL HOUSE

Three nights of special services will be held in the Newtown School House, Thursday and Friday nights May 11 and 12, Rev. R. O. Musser, M. Hendrix, of town. radio pastor, of York, Pa., and his John N. Witmer, seventeen, Mt. party will be in charge of the LOCAL CONTRACTOR LOW

Sunday evening, May 13th, another service will be held, the program to be announced at a later date. All services start at 7:30.

George K. Huber, fifty-four, of borhood Troop Committee will hold Manheim R1, was so badly injured a meeting at the Scout rooms on in the Cornwall Ore Mines that he died in a Lebanon Hospital.

LIONS ELECT OFFICERS HEAR CENTENNIAL PLANS

Norman Stone, representative the Rogers Producing Company, who will stage the Centennial pageant, was the speaker at the Lions Club meeting Tuesday night.

UP-TO-THE-MINUTE

New officers elected, who will be nstalled at the June 19th meeting. and whose terms of office begins on July 1st, are: President, F. Morrell Shields: 1st Vice Pres., Richard Divet;; 2nd Vice Pres., J. Earl Wolf Jr.; 3rd Vice Pres., Arthur D.. Sprecher; Secretary, Arthur Zerphey; Treasurer, Robert F. Schroll; Lion Tamer, Robert Bentzel; Tail Twister, Sylvester Shuman: Directors, for a 2-year term, Clarence Hollinger and Robert W. Reed; Directors, for a 1-year term, Woodrow Fitzkee and Clyde Mumper: Immediate past president Maurice Bailey. Nominating Committee James B. Spangler, Jr., Chrm., William Batzel and Charles Eshleman

American Store Here Announcing Ann'l Baby Derby

As you know, National Baby Week is being celebrated this week and the American Stores Co. celebrates it by announcing their Sixth Annual Baby Derby.

This means that the proud parents of every child born this Saturday, May 5th, between 12:01 and 12:00 midnight will be eligible for an award. This prize package will he a special baby food assortment including many items.

In the coupon printed in the Acme Super Markets' and American Stores' advertisements on May 3rd, Fathers, Aunts, and Uncles, Doctors and Nurses and friends or relatives are asked to fill in the desired information so that the baby can receive "an appropriate valuable gift." Last year this gift turned out to be an assortment of 65 different baby foods and other items for baby, both nationally advertised and the chains' own products.

Several hundred babies are born each Baby Derby Day and in many instances more than one person sends in a coupon for the same stopped cold Tuesday from 11:45 a. m. to 2:20 p. m. due to an unavoidable break in the Penna. Power & Light Company's service.

Electric Power Disrupted 2½ Hrs.

The electric service was interrupted to all customers in the villages of Landisville and Salunga and the Boro of Mount Joy at 11:44 a. m. At 12:20 p. m. service was restored to all customers except those in the Boro. The service here was restored at 2:31 p. m.

A 12,000 volt wire on a pole at the corner of West Donegal and Lumber streets, here burned thru causing the interruption of the ter and Columbia were dispatched necessary repairs.

Gas stations here couldn't even furnish gas and many of the Shoe

Personal Mention

Mr. Henry Hoover, of Rheems and Mrs. Gettles, of Lebanon, left Sebring, Florida, Saturday, to return to their homes in Penna.

Marine Sgt. and Mrs. John Matoney, returned Sunday to their home at Wilmington, N. Carolina, after spending the week with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S.

ON MILLERSVILLE REPAIRS

Supplies at Harrisburg Tuesday N. J. received unofficial low bids totaling $45,878 for renovations and additions to the library at Millersville State Teachers College.

Mr. Paul A. Martin, local conconstruction at $33,258.00.

ED Student Body Elected Student Council Members

The East Donegal student body lected student council members for the 1951-52 school term recent-Results of the election were, by classes: Class of 1952 - Paul Dick. Pauline Bradley, David Swiegart, Stanley Murphy, Coleen Ibaugh, Margaret Clark, Robert Swope and Jeanette Ginder; Class of 1953 - Avis Shetter, George Rhoads, James Ober, John Musser and Betsy Mumma; Class of 1954 - Yvonne Brubaker, Phyllis Wolgemuth, Donald Wolgemuth and Fred Wetzel; Class of 1955 Shirley Gerlach and Robert Arndt; Class of 1956 - Stephen Doles. Following the election, the newly-elected council met and elected officers. Those elected were: President - Stanley Murphy; Vicepresident - Betsy Mumma and Secretary-Treasurer - Pauline Bradley

East Donegal Student Council nembers Stanley Murphy, John (Turn to page 6)

Brief News From The Dailies For Quick Reading

127 marriage licenses were issu in the county during April.

A York man was slightly jured when a PRR train at Columbia, struck his auto.

old baby girl, found dead in her crib. was bitten by a rat. Hunting seems to be good at RESIDENTS OF ACTIVITIES

Lancaster where a policeman shot a steer and caught an opossum. Mary Rote, twenty-four, Columbia, who admitted killing her infant baby, will be charged with murder.

Norman J. Stoltzfus, twenty-six, Frank Young. of Kinser, is charged with driving 75 miles per hour on the Lincoln Highway.

There is a gasoline war over aound Allentown and Easton where they are selling it for from 19 to 22 cents per gallon.

There were 157 new cases of measles reported in the county last week. The preceding week there were only half that number.

Mrs. Charles H. Clarke, fifty-six, Thurmont, Md., is the mother of twenty-four children, a number of whom are serving in Korea. The body of Russell L. Miller, forty-five, of Lancaster, missing since April 7, was found floating in the river near McCall's Ferry.

CENTENNIIAL HEADQUARTERS General Hospital.

Permanent headquarters for the Mount Joy Centennial officials have been established in the show General Hospital. room at Hostetter's Hardware store on W. Main Street.

Any information concerning the General Hospital Monday. activities planned for the week long celebration this month, can be secured at the headquarters.

ELIZABETHTOWN MAN JAILED

AS A RELIEF CHISELER Two men were arrested for ments to obtain $260 in relief funds. He was arrested and in default of Barnes. bail was lodged in jail.

LETTERS GRANTED

Samuel H. Miller, 48 West Main street, administrator c. t. a. of Anna H. Miller, late of Warwick twp. Lester E. Roberts, this boro, ex- at Ephrata by the Rev. Mertis V. Sumpman, late of Mount Joy.

HEADS FRATERNITY

and Mrs. Clyde Oberholtzer, of this of the General Hospital, Lancaster, place, has been elected president of was guest speaker at the Rotary the K. A. M. photo-journalism fra- Club luncheon meeting Tuesday The Department of Property and ternity at Rider College, Trenton, noon at Hostetter's. He spoke on

FOOD SALE MAY 12

The Council of Catholic Women of Mount Joy will hold a food sale and Daisy Claus of Lancaster. ance office, 85 East Main Street so of town.

AIRMAN ROBERT DIVET AT MASS. AIR FORCE BASE

The Mount Joy Bulletin

Mount Joy, Pa., Thursday Afternoon, May 3, 1951

Robert Divet, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Divet, Sr., of 45 Old Market Street s serving with Naval Air Transport Squadron 6 at Westover Air Force Base, Mass.

The four-engined transports of this squadron fly scheduled flights from United States across the North Atlantic, carrying high priority passengers and cargo to military bases in England, France, Germany French Morocco and Tripoli.

Naval Air Transport Squadron 6 commonly called VR-6, is part of the Atlantic Division of the Military Air Transport Service, which is made up of both Navy and Air Force units.

Divet, a graduate of Mount Joy High School, served at the U.S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., before his assignment to VR-6.

FARMERS, VETERANS OR GI'S WORKING ON FARMS

Any person who was in World War II and is working on a farm, whether hired, share farming or self employed, is eligible to take advantage of the GI farm training Persons interested in this particular section would attend this training program at the Maytown high school every Wednesday evening. The deadline for you to enter training under the GI bill is July For further information write to

Mr. Gene Love, Vocational Agricultural Instructor, Maytown High School, or Mr. Heber B. Shelly Veterans Vocational Agricultural Instructor, 405 West High Street, City last week. At Phila, a two and a half month | Manheim, or call 5-8091. Manheim

WILL NOTIFY FORMER

Anyone who wishes to have a

Mrs. Young, chairman of Homecoming committee, and her committee, is endeavoring to send invitations in the form of letters to all former citizens but naturally a list of names for this purpose is

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Flowers, Mount Joy R2, a son Saturday at the Lancaster General Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Geltmacher Columbia Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay F. Risser, Landisville, a son Tuesday at the

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Robinson of Florin a daughter Thursday at the Manheim R2, a daughter at the tion, a visit.

THREE YOUTHS ADMIT DAMAGING MAIL BOXES

Three juveniles, fifteen and sixteen years old, were taken into lief chiseling. One was Jacob E. boxes from posts along the Mariet- nett. These items are needed for members. Betz, sixty, of Elizabethtown. - He ta Pike, east of Marietta, last Tuesis accused of making false state- day night. They were referred to Memorial Day afternoon. Don't County Probation Officer Edgar Arie Weaver, Ronks R1, and Al- MARBLES TOURNAMENT vin Warner, of Rheems, son of the STARTS HERE FRIDAY late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Warner were married Saturday at 4 p. m.

WERE WEDDED SATURDAY

United Brethren church. ROTARY HEARS DR. DeBUSK Donald Oberholtzer, son of Mr. Dr. Roger W. DeBusk, manager

"Management of a hospital." MARRIAGE LICENSES

The Local News For The Past Week Throughout This Very Briefly Told Entire Locality

the pretzel May 9.

8850 people inspected the General Hospital on Sunday. Marietta will hold its fourth annual horse show on Sunday. Terre Hill's policeman notified Council that he is quitting June 1. Fred Schneider, of Columbia, eaught a four pound, 21 inch trout now for bait. Two cars crashed on the curve Hospital. on Chickies Hill Monday but no in the river there. He used a min-one was injured. In order to offset a loss of $40,-000 the Manheim township school was born at Sporting Hill. board increased the tax rate from 25 to 30 mills

A suit brought by Frank Wallace, of Marietta, against the PRR Bucher, Mount Joy RD, is a daughfor $25,000 has been dismissed by ter and Mrs. Agnes Baker, Mount the State Supreme Court.

Rev. R. W. Dietz, Lutheran pas or at Columbia, has resigned to Charles J. Myers accept an appointment to the faculty at Gettysburg College. Quite a number of mail boxes north of the Maretita pike, east of Marietta, were torn off the posts and thrown into the creek. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Lapp, o Kirkwood R1, started for the General Hospital with his wife to beat the stork. The child was born on the way. "Allie" Myers, of the clerical force at H. S. Newcomer & Son's Hardware Store here, attended the ANPA convention in New York was discovered by passing Sunday

TO THIS MAN DAYLIGHT

TIME IS A HEADACHE A man at George's Mills, N. H. retired petticoat salesman, collects name and address placed on the clocks as a hobby. He has them on list of former Mount Joyans who display in a rambling farm house will receive a special invitation to and invites visitors. At present he the local Centennial; may do so has over four hundred which range by getting in touch with Mrs. from 13 feet in height down to the with a length of clothes line while real small ones and he keeps them he was alone at his home located all running. Can you imagine the picnic he had turning all of them one hour ahead on Sunday?

difficult to compose. Any names James Mfg. Co. Will Have Open House on Friday

The James Manufacturing Company, of town, manufacturers of farm equipment, invites the pub-Columbia R1, a son Sunday at the lic to attend its open house and inspection of its new plant and facilities on Friday, May 4th, between 1:30 p. m. and 4:30 p. m. They are located in the George Brown Cotton and Woolen Mill Building on East Main street. Don't fail to pay this new indus-Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Shank, try, known thruout the entire na-

DIG UP THOSE RELICS FOR

OUR CENTENNIAL PARADE If anyone knows the whereabouts of old fire equipment, old the recently organized Junior automobiles, bicycles, baby coaches, Chamber of Commerce was held custody by State Policeman John wagons, stage coaches, or toys, etc. Friday night in the Fire Hall here. Golden for damaging eleven mail will you please contact Jack Ben- There were twenty-eight charter the Centennial parade to be held forget to get your costume ready the Rev. Ezra Ranck, president of for the costume division in the pa-

No. 5452, will begin at 4:30 p. m. and included Paul Nestleroth, Bob ecutor of the estate of Katie S. Fridinger, of Ephrata Evangelical Friday on the elementary school Lutz, and Robert Stauffer. playground.

> The winner and runner-up will to play in the district finals.

HOSPITAL PATIENTS

Lester Faus, at Back Run, was removed to the General Hospital, Keller, president, Manheim Jr. C. at Lancaster, Wednesday evening, of C.; Charles Briggs, treasurer, of in the Fire Co. ambulance.

zabethtown R1, was removed to National Director and Dave Shenk. Saturday, May 12, from 10:00 a.m. | Clifford Robert Morrison, of this St. Joseph's Hospital Tuesday, in State Extention Committee. tractor was low bidder on general to 1:00 p.m. at Titus Rutt's Insur- place and Esther Jane Gephart, al- the Elizabethtown Community The next meeting will be held

Mortuary Record

$2.00 a Year in Advance

Mrs. Clara J. Allison, forty-two,

Mrs. Clara J. Allison, forty-two

t Columbia. Miss Mary E. Swanger, seventyeight at Manheim

Charles D. Hogendobler, sixtyine, at Columbia Ella May, seventy, wife of John

Leibfried, at Columbia. Clarence H. Sheaffer, forty-six, a native of Manheim, in a Reading

Mrs. Lizzie Kauffman, eighty-six widow of Rev. Isaac Kauffman, at United Zion Home near Lititz. She Bertha O. Lehman, fifty-eight, died at the home of her daughter. Sheridan R1. Mabel, wife of Elvin

Joy RD is a sister.

(Turn to page 3) The Millers Here Saved Man's Life;

Charles J. Myers, 81, a Spanish

Attempted Suicide A Paradise R1 man who attempted to hang himself from the branch of a pine tree in his front yard, motorists and taken to Lancaster General Hospital where he was admitted. Hospital authorities said Frank Mimm, about fifty-five, was in a fair condition late Sunday night and at this writing was greatly improved. State Policeman George H. Spotts said Mimm tried to hang himself two miles south of Kinzer on the road to Nickel Mines. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Miller, 46 W. Main St., this place, were driving past when Mrs. Miller sighted the hanging body and shouted for her husband to stop.

Minn was hanging from a branch less than six feet from the ground, and about 15 feet from the road. Miller notified a neighbor, Paul Wasson, who secured a knife and cut Mimm down.

Dr. H. L. Tindall, Christiana, was summoned, and administered emergency treatment until the Christiana ambulance arrived and conveyed Mimm to he hospital. Police said they could give no reason for the suicide attempt.

The Charter Night Banquet of Local Junior C. of C.

The Charter Night Banquet of

Mr. Mervin Brandt, assistant county superintendent of schools. the Mount Joy Ministerial Association, and Vernon Ferster, president of the State Junior Chamber of Commerce, were the speakers.

Members of the extension com-The annual marbles tournament mittee of the Ephrata Junior sponsored by the local VFW Post Chamber of Commerce were guests

Other guests included Maurice Bailey, president of the Mt. Joy go to Lancaster Sunday, May 13 Chamber of Commerce, John Kell. vice president of the State Junior Chamber of Commerce; Roy Attleberger, state secretary; Ray Oatman, candidate for State executive vice-president, from Lititz; Bill Manheim; Jake Kurtz, president of Edward Sweigart, Mount Joy R2 Mrs. Harvey S. Newcomer, Eli- the Ephrata Jr. C. of C.; Ken Sherk

on May 8 at the Fire House