EDITORIAL

The Government has ended support of egg and potato prices, a subsidy which cost taxpayers about $750 million.

That may give you an idea what we must cough up to support present subsidies such as tobacco, and wheat etc.

Makes one hate to think of it.

LEGALIZED POLYANDRY

Since World War II there is a man shortage in Germany—quite natural, but the ladies over there have the answer.

A group of Berlin women suggested a solution to Germany's man shortage: Let women share the men via "temporary marriages" so unmarried women can become legal mothers and "save our culture."

One never realizes the serious danger he or she may be in when you're walking along on the sidewalk in any town, presumably in the utmost safety. Elsewhere in the Bulletin appears an article describing how the tire of a large trailer truck fell off a trailer bounded across the sidewalk and struck a building.

However, Dame Fortune was smiling and on a usually busy sidewalk, there wasn't a pedestrian near the scene of the accident.

There could have been a man, woman, children, even a number of people in the path of that heavy tire. Could this be a warning? Even, if so, one NEVER knows when they are safe.

WHY AN EDITOR CALLS HIMSELF "WE"

Why does an editor use the word "We" in writing an editorial? A Country Editor—is one who reads newspapers, selects miscellany, writes articles on all subjects, sets type, reads proof, folds papers and sometimes carries them, prints jobs, runs on errands, cuts wood, works in the garden, talks to all his patrons who call, patiently receives blame for a thousand things that never were and never can be done, gets little money, has scarce time and materials to satisfy his hunger, or to enjoy the quiet of nature's sweet restorer, sleep, and esteems himself peculiarly happy if he is not assailed and battered by some unprincipled demagogue who loves puppet shows and hires the rabble with a treat of cider brandy to vote him into some petty office. A man who does all this and much more, not here recorded, you will know must be a rather busy animal; and as he performs the work of many different persons, he may justly be supposed their representative, and to have an indisputable right, when speaking of himself, to use the plural number, and to say we on all occasions and in all places.

FOOD STAND DURING CENTENNIAL WEEK

The Young Ladies Bible Class of Trinity Lutheran Church will sponsor a refreshment stand during the Centennial Celebration.

The stand will be located at the Pennsylvania Railroad station grounds and will be open Saturday and Wednesday afternoons and evenings, and Monday and Tuesday evenings only.

The patronage of all will be appreciated.

KERN PROPERTY PAINTED FIRST TIME IN YEARS

There's one place in town that certainly had a face lifting for our Centennial celebration—the former Kern property, opposite The Bulletin office and now owned by Mr. Greer, of Columbia. It was repainted last week for the first time in years, contractor Kling doing the work.

HISTORY

Mt. Joy's Newspapers

By The Editor
The first newspaper ever printed here was the Herald. The paper was founded by Frank H. Stauffer and the first issue was printed in the village of Richland. The building in which it was issued stood on the southwest corner of our present West Main and Lumber streets the property now owned by the Eckharts. That was in 1857.

In 1864 Jacob R. Hoffer purchased the newspaper from Mr. Stauffer. He published the paper and upon his death was succeeded by his son John E. Hoffer. Along about 1900 Uriah Hoffer, another son, who was employed at printing in New York city, came to Mount Joy and assisted his brother.

On December 28, 1907 the Mount Joy Herald published this announcement on its first page: "With this issue we will discontinue the publication of The Herald."

I have in my possession a number of copies of the Herald printed from year to year. Also a copy of the last issue.

The equipment changed hands several times and was finally purchased by A. D. Seiler.

The Star and News
This newspaper was started in Mount Joy in 1869 by J. W. Stofer. When Mr. Stofer died the paper was continued by his widow and later it was sold to Jacob R. Missemer, of Milton Grove. Mr. Missemer had quite a career, preceding the Hearsts in syndicating newspapers. After conducting the paper a short time he tried printing these newspapers: The Mt. Joy Star and News, Milton Grove News, Landisville Vigil, Bainbridge Banner, Florin Item, and several others. All were printed from the same type each week, the only change being the heading. Mr. Missemer later purchased the Steelton Advocate.

He finally discontinued all the papers but the Star and News here. He died January 11, 1918. A short time later Jno. E. Schroll purchased the paper and all its affiliations, the plant, etc.

The Bulletin
The Bulletin was started by myself on June 1, 1901. I then resided in the property one door west of Kaylor's Hotel (then John H. Buohli's Hardware Store) on West Main street. After a few years the plant was moved to the property of the Mount Joy Hall Association which is now the frame property in the rear of the Odd Fellows Hall building (now occupied by Irvin Kaylor and Earl Shelly).

On April 1, 1911 I purchased the present location and moved the plant there.

The Mount Joy Bulletin, ever since its first issue, was independently owned and controlled by the writer.

Other Newspapers
There were numerous other attempts at publishing newspapers here but they were of brief duration. I have copies of the following: News and Gossip, March 21, 1877; The Owl, Mount Joy; Milton Grove News, Sept. 13, 1877, etc.

MANHEIM YOUTH HELD FOR COURT ON TWO CHARGES
Paul Gibble, of Manheim, charged with larceny and defrauding a hotel-keeper, was given a hearing before Justice Musser at Manheim and committed for court in default of bail.

Policeman Brock, of Manheim, who brought the larceny complaint said Gibble admitted stealing a pocketbook containing $27 during a visit May 12 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheaffer, Manheim R2. He was charged by Frank Pickler, proprietor of the Washington House, of defrauding him of a $51.65 board and lodging bill.

LARGE BUCK KILLED NEAR FALMOUTH BY MOTORIST
A 172-pound, four-point deer was killed when struck by an automobile Friday night.

The accident occurred when the deer suddenly jumped in front of an auto driven by Joseph E. Breneman, Elizabethtown R2, on Route 41 near Falmouth. Game Protector Robert L. McKain, of Bainbridge, discovered that the animal's body was broken. He turned the body of the deer over to August Dinkel, of Washington Boro, who butchered it for the Columbia Hospital.
