K. T. Keller Will Not Attend Our Big Celebration

Mr. K. T. Keller, chairman of the board of Chrysler Corporation, Detroit, Michigan, and now actively engaged in the Governments guided missile program in Washington, was invited to attend his home town's Centennial celebration May 26-30.

The following letter was received expressing his regret at being unable to attend:

May 8, 1951
Mr. Charles J. Bennett Jr., Special Event Chairman, Mount Joy, Pennsylvania
Dear Mr. Bennett:
It was really thoughtful of you to invite me to the Centennial celebration of my home town, and I wish it were possible for me to come, but my present load here at home and in Washington with the Government's guided missile program makes it impossible. I know the event will be a great success and that Mount Joy will have reason to be proud of it. My best wishes to all of you.
Sincerely,
K. T. KELLER
