Boro Council

committee reported School Lane in the Gingrich development and Cedar Lane at the Weber development had been paved.

Councilman Stehman reported no action nor a definite date set for the installation of better street lights on Main Street.

Council decided to advertise for bids for one coat of paint on the wood trim on the outside of the fire house.

A motion was made to transfer $4,650 from the boro fund to the fire engine sinking fund and to pay Notes No. 2 and 3 for $10,000 and $150 interest on the fire engine. This would clear up this debt.

It was suggested that New St. be opened to Longenecker Road but no action was taken.

Boro bills amounting to $5,798.28 were paid.

Acting on a request, the salary of Police Chief Park Neiss was increased from $200 to $225 a month.

A petition to annex an area south of the borough, between S. Market St. and Pinkerton Road, was accepted. This area includes School Lane and a proposed thoroughfare to be known as Sunset Street.

Bids for the construction of a new street from Jacob to S. Barbara St. were opened and the contract awarded to Heisey Brothers, Rheems, at a cost of $1.40 per sq. yard.

A motion to pay for the rental of 1851 costumes, worn by the borough officials in the Memorial Day and Centennial parade in the borough, out of the borough's general fund was passed.

At the same session Burgess Fish requested some action on the construction of a sewage system in the borough but his request went unanswered. He requested that the sewage system and the improved water system be made a joint project.

The Burgess reported he has collected peddler's fees from John Blum, soft pretzel vender. He also suggested collecting fees from milk, bread and other daily delivery agencies but this, it was explained cannot be done.

He reported 32 peddlers licenses and four street permits issued.

Police Chief Neiss reported nine traffic violations, 2 accidents investigated and 1,220 travelled by auto.

Secretary Board of Health Delinger reported 65 cases of measles, 1 German measles, 1 mumps, 1 nuisance being corrected and the water shed in the creek inspected and in good order.

Fire Chief Myers reported two calls during May and suggested that no more permits be issued for the display of fireworks on the school athletic field because of the proximity of buildings. Hot embers on roofs had to be extinguished during the Centennial display.

Last month the treasurer asked council for authority to sell securities for an indebtedness. However the bank notified him that if held one month longer the boro would collect $40.69 more interest. The treasurer asked Council for $3,204.20 from the boro fund to the sinking fund, which would be replaced August 1st. Recommendation was approved.

These checks were received: $100 from Robert K. Brown for overweight trucks fines during May. $15.10 from James Hockenberry for fines during May. $6.50 from Christ Walters for building permits. $20.48 from Hockenberry for 1948 taxes collected with $734.66 outstanding. $169.52 of 1949 taxes collected and $1,535 outstanding.

George Brown III, $47.25 of 1950 taxes with $278.10 real estate and $272 per capita outstanding. Also $14,719.89 of 1951 taxes collected with $4,535.30 real estate and $7,457.00 per capita tax outstanding.
