WRESTLING MATCHES WILL START AT HERSHEY JUNE 13

Hershey, June 6. For the first time in her 13-year reign as women's wrestling champion, Mildred Burke will be forced to share top billing when Promoter Bert Bertolini presents his inaugural grappling program at the Hershey Sports Arena, Wednesday evening, June 13.

As announced previously, the 33 year-old, five-foot-two, 135-pound Miss Burke will meet Ann LaVerne of Canton, Ohio, in one of the co-starred main events.

In the other, Antonio (Argentino) Rocca, generally recognized as the unheralded champion of matdoo, will exchange grips with the 262-pound Frederick Von Schacht, the ex-G. I. from Milwaukee. In recent months, Von Schacht has been compiling an impressive string of conquests and Bertolini is confident the giant German - he is six feet six inches tall - will be able to give the South America Italian a real argument.

Rocca, of course, is no stranger to Eastern Pennsylvania wrestling addicts. He made frequent appearances on Bertolini-promoted mat programs in Harrisburg, Reading and Allentown, and seldom failed to attract capacity crowds.

Discovered by Kola Kwariani, one of Russia's all-time wrestling greats, in South America years ago, Rocca is undefeated since starting his wrestling invasion of the U. S. on March 22, 1949, when he pinned Chief Little Fox in a main event at Turner's Arena, in Washington, D. C.

Von Schacht has been defeated on numerous occasions, but never by a fall. His aggressive tactics and fiery temper have led to his downfall by disqualification. He is known in wrestling circles as "the man with the perpetual sneer."

Bertolini announced that reservations for reserved seat tickets for this mat extravaganza, which will be the first of a series of semi-monthly shows here, now are available at the Hershey Sports Arena and the Shenk and Tittle Sporting Goods Store in Harrisburg.

PLAYS VITAL PART IN GREYNA PRODUCTION

Although the audience seldom sees him, Mr. Gene P. Otto, co-producer at the Gretna Playhouse, plays an important part in the success of the productions at the popular summer theatre now in the first week of its 1951 season at Mt. Gretna.

It is Otto's responsibility to see that the vital back stage part of the theatre is functioning smoothly while Charles F. Coghlan, co-producer and director, handles the cast and the part of the production visible from the audience. It is a perfect blending of talents, giving summer theatre-goers top-notch productions.

Gene, who has been associated with show business nearly all his life, occasionally plays a bit part in the Gretna shows. And does a nice job of it, too.

Philip Barry's brilliant comedy hit, "Holiday" now is playing at Mt. Gretna but the producers already are busy getting into shape the next production, "Goodbye My Fancy."
