

There's No Better Way to Reach the People

Auto Rolled Over; Tractor-Trailer and Frazer Collided; 81-Yr.-Old Man Hit by a Car

A Daily Vacation Bible School Here Is Well Attended

The DVBS of this place, under the auspices of the Calvary Bible Church, continued throughout the past week with the attendance reaching 153 on Friday night.

The school consists of a beginner class taught by Mrs. John Henry Brubaker, assisted by Mary Shelly, Lois Rutt, and Frances Wolgemuth. Primary I taught by Miss Doris Shaver with Mrs. Norman Smith assisting her. Primary II, taught by Miss Betty Barr with Mrs. Clara Myers and Marion Rutt as her assistants. Primary III is taught by Mrs. Roy Wolgemuth and assisted by Barbara Shelly.

Junior I taught by Miss Betty Shelly and assisted by Carol Ann Smith. Junior II taught by Jack Eberly and assisted by Anita Myers. The Intermediates are taught by Ezra M. Wolgemuth. There is an adult class, with Rev. Paul Wilt as the instructor.

The school secretary is Miss Bernice Strickler, and Clarence Brubaker is treasurer. Each evening (Turn to page 2)

Rev. Elmer Keiser Ordained a Priest At Service Here

Ordination of the Rev. Elmer Adam Keiser, Deacon, to the Sacred Order of Priests took place at services Friday morning at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, here.

The Rev. Mr. Keiser, rector of St. Luke's Church since January, was ordained by the Rt. Rev. John Thomas Heistand, D. D., S. T. D., Bishop of Harrisburg. He was formerly of Schuylkill County.

The Rev. Canon Heber W. Becker, rector of St. John's Church, of Lancaster, and president of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Harrisburg, delivered the ordination sermon, followed by Holy Communion.

The Rev. Canon Clifton A. Best, Canon Missioner of the Diocese of Harrisburg, presented the candidate for ordination, and the Litany and Suffrages for Ordinations were read by the Very Rev. Thomas H. Chappell, Dean, St. Stephen's Cathedral, Harrisburg.

The Rev. Julian Dozier, Vicar of St. Gerald's Church, Harrisburg, read the Epistle, and the Ven. George H. Toadvine, Jr., Archdeacon, Archdeacon of Harrisburg, presented the Gospel.

PRESENT FROM THE LIONS

The Mount Joy Lions Club recently equipped our new Fire Co. ambulance with puncture proof tires and tubes.

The Story of Our Independence Won 175 Years Ago

School Board Ups Tax To 30 Mills

A budget of $143,648 was adopted Friday night at the School board meeting. Mileage was increased from 28 to 30, and per capita rate from $5 to $7.

Contract was awarded to paint all the rooms in the elementary school to John Nissley, Lancaster, for $2100.

Also awarded was the school supply contract, to L. B. Herr, of Lancaster, in the amount of $2,895.

Three new teachers were appointed to the elementary school. They are John Lichty, Florence Barbara Ann Nelson, Elizabethtown, and Mrs. Kathryn Shaeffer, Rheems. Miss Mildred Booth was appointed census enumerator for the year.

Insurance coverage was increased by $68,000 with S. Nissley Gingrich, Lancaster.

Ninety-four persons were injured in motor accidents in Lancaster County during the past ten days, a new record.

Seven of ten children from the Brethren Children's Home were injured when the car in which they were riding collided with another auto. The accident happened at Kissel Hill.

Car Went Over Bank

Although their car rolled down a 25-foot embankment, landing on its top, Mrs. Sadie G. Becker, forty-three and her teen-age daughter Dorcas, Mount Joy R2, escaped injury in an accident about noon on Friday.

State Police said Mrs. Becker was approaching the junction of old and new Route 230 about half a mile east of Elizabethtown, when another car pulled in front of her, forcing her off the road. Witnesses were unable to give the license number of the second car, although they could describe it. The two women were pulled from the wrecked car by passing motorists, police said. They are continuing their investigation, they added.

Collided West of Town

A tractor-trailer truck collided with a 1951 Frazer automobile on Route 230 just west of Mount Joy at 7:35 p. m. Friday, damaging the new vehicle to the extent of $500, police said. No one was hurt.

State Police Nagle, who also investigated this accident, said the truck driven by Benjamin Clifford Reckard, forty-two, Fairmount, W. Va., was overtaking another truck at the same time.

Lewis J. Smith, forty-two, Philadelphia, driving the car in front of the second truck, attempted to turn left onto the road leading to Rheems, and Reckard's tractor struck the automobile. Damage to the tractor was estimated by police at $150.

Man 81, Injured

An eighty-one-year old man was admitted to St. Joseph's Hospital Friday for observation following an accident which occurred about 2:30 p. m. on Route 230 at an intersection in Landisville.

The victim, Aaron Heisey, Mount Joy, was a passenger in a light truck driven by his grandson, J. Arthur Oberholzer, twenty-two, Mount Joy, when the truck collided with a auto crossing the highway, State Police said. Heisey received bruises of the head, chest and left leg according to hospital records.

Police said the car which pulled in front of Oberholzer's truck was driven by Edward W. Herbst, thirty-one, Red Lion R3, who told them he had stopped at the stop sign and pulled into the highway when he didn't see anything coming.

Herbst's 1950 sedan was demolished, police said. Although he was thrown from the car onto the grass plot in the center of the four-lane highway, he escaped injury, as did a passenger, in his car, May Godrey. Police are continuing their investigation of the accident.

SURGICAL PATIENT

Mr. Paul Frey, West Main St., underwent an operation at the Osteopathic Hospital, Lancaster, last Saturday.

MOST UP-TO-THE-M

The Mount Joy Bulletin

VOL. LI. NO. 3

2 Teachers Resign; District to Sponsor Florin Playground

At a regular monthly meeting of East Donegal Twp. School Board held Friday evening, June 8, the resignations of Mrs. Doris Slaugh, homemaker teacher, and Mrs. Rhonda Longenecker, first grade teacher at Florin, were received and accepted, with regret. Mr. John Hart, of the school faculty, was appointed to take the school census. Coal bids will be received at the July 6 meeting, as will bids for grade school furniture and for typewriter replacements. It was also announced that the next regular meeting of the Donegal Joint School Board will be held in the High School at Maytown, June 21.

The girls chorus, of the high school, will sing several selections at the Donegal Reunion Thursday afternoon, June 21. The chorus is directed by Mr. Eugene Saylor. Mr. Saylor is spending this week at Penn State College where he is directing the State F. F. A. Chorus in concerts June 14 and 15.

The school district, in cooperation with the Florin Hall Association, is again sponsoring a summer playground at Florin. It will be directed by Miss Lily Martin and Mr. Richard Brubaker. The playground will be open every afternoon, beginning June 18, but not during the week of July 4.

EAST HEMPFIELD SCHOOL TAX GOES UP THREE MILLS

The budget for the 1951-52 school term, which provides for a three mill tax increase, was adopted by the East Hempfield Twp. School Board Wednesday night.

John M. Swarr, Landisville board secretary, said the budget calls for raising the tax rate from 25 to 28 mills. The increase is due principally to the increase in instructional costs which includes teachers' salaries, text books and school supplies, he said.

Estimated total expenditures on the budget are $260,421.25 while the estimated total receipts amount to $263,302. Swarr said.

Other business included granting approval to establish a kindergarten in the new school building at Rohrerstown.

annual home-coming service is the only service conducted in the church during the year. Presently there is only one member, Mr. Harvey Zink, of Rapho Township.

Eby's Church is located one and a-half miles northeast of Mount Joy. The program for the afternoon consists of German songs, (led by Rev. Harry Tobias, of Manheim, an address by Dr. D. E. Young, conference Superintendent, musical selections by the choir from the Florin Church, and greetings from former pastors and other ministers present.

Following the afternoon services at 4:00 p. m. Dr. D. E. Young will conduct the Quarterly Conference. This will be followed by a fellowship supper. The day will close for the Eby's and Florin Churches, with a hill-side service. Rev. John H. Gable will speak at this final service.

Weddings Thruout Our Community During Past Week

The marriage of Miss Velma May Barnhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omar R. Barnhart, Elizabethtown R1, to George O. Hemperly, Bainbridge R1, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hemperly, took place Saturday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hemperly, Falmouth. The Rev. Chester W. Hartman officiated.

Mrs. Boyd L. Bubb, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and John W. Hemperly served as best man for his brother. Glenn Hemperly was usher.

Frances E. Rohrer
David C. Forry

The marriage of Miss Frances E. Rohrer, daughter of Mrs. Martha (Turn to page 3)

BOY ON BICYCLE AND A MOTORIST COLLIDE

Ralph Larry Geib, thirteen, of Florin, riding a bicycle home from his grandmother's residence, was slightly injured when struck by an automobile about 3 p. m. Tuesday, State Policeman Paul Mikos said.

He said the accident occurred at a "Y" intersection on the Milton Grove road, about four miles north of Mount Joy, when the bicycle was hit broadside by an automobile driven by George L. Mumper, seventy-six, Florin.

The boy was treated by Dr. David B. Schlosser, Mt. Joy, for abrasions of the left shoulder and a lacerated face which required 5 sutures to close. He told police he was riding home after visiting his grandmother where he had been working in a garden.

MAN IS FINED $500 AND COSTS IN A HIGHWAY DEATH

Fleeting guilty to involuntary manslaughter Roy L. Sumpman, 26, Columbia, was fined $500 and costs by Judge Wissler Monday afternoon.

Sumpman was prosecuted by State Policeman George Spotts in the death of Ralph E. Womer, 38, Salunga, last December 6. State Police charged that a truck driven by Sumpman left Old Harrisburg Pike, east of Landisville, and hit two poles. Womer was a passenger on the truck.

Assistant District Attorney John W. Beyer told the Court the fatal mishap apparently resulted from fast driving.

MISS BAKER GRADUATED WITH HONORS AT MIAMI U.

Lois Ann Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Baker, Landisville, graduated with honors as a bachelor of arts cum laude at University of Miami, Coral Gables, Fla. Miss Baker, a graduate of East Hempfield Twp. High School, was a government major and a history minor at Miami. She was active on campus as a member of Zeta Tau Alpha social sorority, Alpha Sigma Upsilon leadership society, and the Student Senate. She is also listed in "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges."

CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING NEXT TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. George Schneider, 220 East Donegal Street, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday, June 19th. In honor of the event they will be entertained at a dinner Sunday by their children and will have open house from four until eight o'clock, June 17th.

SNAVELY ELECTED TREAS.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Lancaster General Hospital, Jesse C. Snavey Jr., of Landisville, was elected treasurer for the coming year.

LOCAL GIRL SCOUTS ELECTED TO SENIOR PLANNING BOARD

Mount Joy Girl Scout Troop 96 was honored by having three of its members elected as officers of the Lancaster County Senior Planning Board during a meeting held at the Campfire at Furnace Hills Camp, June 10 and 11. They were: Mary Bailey, President; Shirley Eby, Secretary and Elinor Lane, Treasurer.

Other Girl Scouts from Mount Joy attending the Campfire were Maryanne Spangler, Genevieve Zimmerman, Rachel Lehman, Nancy Swanson and Connie Lane.

Mrs. Robert Hawthorne was a Unit Leader. Maryanne Spangler was Scout President of Hillcrest Unit. Genevieve Zimmerman was Scout President of Fernhill Unit and Shirley Eby was Scout President of Sunset Unit.

BRIEF NEWS FROM THE DAILIES FOR QUICK READING

In Korea the Allies captured guns that will shoot thru five inches of steel. They had Russian-made tires on the wheels.

At Reading a 37-year-old woman called on an undertaker and told him to arrange for her funeral. He called at her home and found the woman dead.

During the price war now going on in New York City, nationally known watches such as Gruen, Elgin, Benrus, Bulova, and Longine are being sold at exactly half price.

Earl Sell, Annaville R1, who spent 13 of his 24 years in jail or in detention homes, was sentenced 10 to 20 years in the Eastern Penitentiary for stealing burlap bags in this section.

The U. S. Crime Investigating Committee, is making an extensive investigation on gambling operations in Reading. As a result the mayor, city council, city solicitor, and their police chief have been called to Washington.

TRUCK ENGINE CAUGHT FIRE AT FLORIN MONDAY

The Florin Fire Co. was summoned at 12:15 p. m. Monday when the engine of a truck, the property of the J. Miller Eshleman quarry, Landisville, became ignited.

Firemen, who used chemicals to extinguish the blaze, said the fire originated in the ignition. The damage was not determined but it was reported that the engine was not a total loss.

TRUCK DEMOLISHES STORE; STEERING DEVICE BROKE

When the steering device came apart on a 1940 truck driven by Marlin K. Ressler, 21, Middletown R1, it ran off the highway, struck and completely demolished a 10x14 ft store conducted by John B. Heisey. No one was hurt. The accident occurred on Route 241, two miles west of Elizabethtown.

40-UNIT HOUSING PROJECT AT MARIETTA DEPOT

40-unit housing project at the Army Transportation Corps depot at Marietta is included in a $12,000,000 military construction program for this portion of Pennsylvania.

WOMAN MOTORIST CAUSED TRAILER TO UPSET

W. Bard Brubaker, Manheim R2, driver of an oil carrier, escaped with minor injuries when he swerved to avoid hitting a woman motorist who kept on going after the accident. The trailer upset and caught fire near Gap.

THEY FACE PROSECUTION

Lancaster police charged twenty motorists with violations this week. Among them were G. Frank Kreider, Columbia R2 and Stanley Von Neida, Mount Joy R2, both for parking violations.

BUTCHER CUTS FINGERS

Robert D. Zook, twenty-four, of Manheim R2, suffered torn right middle and index fingers while at work in a meat market. Zook was treated at St. Joseph's Hospital. He told staff members his fingers were cut on a chopper blade.

SO SAYETH THE COURT

Wayne Donald Ginder, Landisville Hotel, was ordered to pay $12.50 per week to his wife, Elizabeth A. Ginder, 255 New Holland Ave., Lancaster, for the support of one child.

THREW CHAIRS AND BROKE WINDOWS IN FIRE HALL

There was a bit of excitement in that quiet river boro, Marietta, Sunday. A fight of some kind started, chairs were thrown about and windows were broken but no one was badly injured. The scene of the excitement was the boro fire hall. Council is investigating.

LARGE BARN NEAR E'TOWN IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

A short circuit in a poultry house started a fire causing a loss of nearly $25,000, on a farm owned by Lester Hess and Paul Snyder, one mile northeast of Elizabethtown last night. It destroyed a large barn, silo, milk shed and chicken house. Also most of the contents.

SILVER SPRING BOY, 10, FLIES TO DENVER, COLORADO

Ten-year-old Jon B. Fackler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Fackler, Silver Spring, is in Denver, Colo., after taking his first airplane ride. The child flew to Denver to visit an uncle and aunt, Maj. and Mrs. Robert H. Baker.

Maj. Baker, formerly of Landisville, is an Army doctor now stationed in Colorado.

Community Than Thru Our Columns

WEEKLY IN LANCASTER COUNTY

Joy Bulletin

Afternoon, June 14, 1951

$2.00 a Year in Advance

MANY THANKS TO ALL FOR YOUR ASSISTANCE

On behalf of the entire Centennial Committee, I wish to thank everyone who helped make it a success. Much work and time was spent to try to make it one of the biggest celebrations that Mt. Joy has ever seen.

I would like to offer a special thank-you to everyone who so generously decorated his windows. They were wonderful and really helped to make the Centennial a worthwhile project.

At the present time, accounts cannot be settled since all money and bills are not handed in. Therefore, it is not known just what kind of financial profits remain.

Souvenir Centennial plates are expected to arrive next week. Orders are being received at the Titus Rutt Insurance Agency.

Thank you again for everything that you've done.

Vera Albert, secretary

Archie Glassmyer Given 2 to 4 Yrs. In the Penitentiary

Archie C. Glassmyer, forty-six-year-old Lancaster barber, was sentenced to two to four years in the Eastern State Penitentiary on Tuesday afternoon by Judge Joseph B. Wissler. He also was fined $50.

Sentenced was imposed after Glassmyer, pleaded guilty to assault with intent to kill in the paring-knife stabbing of his wife, Ruth thirty-three, during the early afternoon of May 2, in their third floor apartment at 64 N. Queen St., Lancaster. Shortly thereafter Glassmyer had stabbed himself several times with an ice pick.

City Detective Paul R. Cogley, prosecutor, outlined to the Court the events surrounding the knifings which had caused considerable excitement in the first block of North Queen Street then crowded with pedestrians, many of whom heard portions of the commotions.

Police found Mrs. Glassmyer on the second floor of the building where she ran to escape her husband. She suffered from three knife wounds, one in the neck, another below the left breast, and a third in the back. Glassmyer had inflicted a series of wounds with an ice pick in his left chest. Each was admitted to a hospital.

Cogley said that Glassmyer at (Turn to Page 2)

Mortuary Record Throughout This Entire Locality

Mrs. Ella Trump Weigel, sixty-three, wife of J. Wesley Weigel, of Columbia.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Best, ninety-two, at the Masonic Homes, in Elizabethtown.

Harvey H. Nolt, seventy-eight, of Columbia, at the Oreville Menomone Home. Ruth, wife of Charles Felty, of Maytown, is a daughter.

Otto Dodenhoef

Otto A. Dodenhoef, seventy-seven, formerly of town, died Tuesday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin N. Rutt, 340 Lancaster Ave., Lancaster, following a two months' illness. Born in Germany, he was a son of the late August and Marie Deack Dodenhoef and was a resident of the country for 43 years. He was naturalized six years ago. Surviving are these children: Gertrude, wife of Alvin N. Rutt, with whom he resided; Vera, wife of Thomas Davis, Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Ella Zink, Lancaster; Helen, wife of Elmer L. Zerphie, of town; Charlotte, wife of Irl Stewart, Los Vegas, Nev.; and Martha, wife of Earl Shonk, Manheim. Nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services from the Nissley funeral home here Friday afternoon with interment in the Eberle cemetery.

The Local News For The Past Week Very Briefly Told

Columbia High school graduated a class of 105 pupils.

There were 2,762 births at the General Hospital last year.

Albert Myerhoffer, Elizabethtown R1, was fined $200 and costs for drunken driving.

There is a marked decrease in the receipt of cattle at the Lancaster stock yards.

The County Grand Jury in its report has recommended the erection of a new jail.

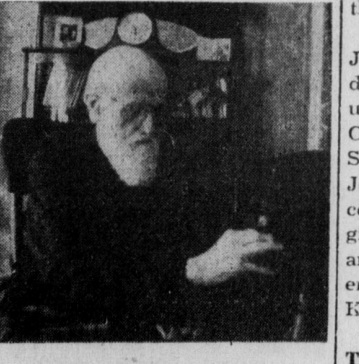

Corra Kramer, sixty-two, wife of Harry E. Kramer, was found dead in a cistern at Akron.

Mervin E. Peifer, twenty-seven, Manheim R1, was injured when he was kicked by a cow.

800 baby chicks died when an auto left the highway near Leaman Place, hit a service pole and disrupted electric service.

Elizabethtown firemen extinguished a small fire on the roof of the summer kitchen at the home of Glenn Zeager, Bainbridge R1.

Mrs. Harold Bender and two children of West Donegal Street are vacationing for the month at Mrs. Bender's home, in Lewes, Del.

REV. ABRAM HESS

Of this place, who celebrated his ninety-second birthday on Sunday June 3, an account of which was published in last week's Bulletin.

THREW CHAIRS AND BROKE WINDOWS IN FIRE HALL

There was a bit of excitement in that quiet river boro, Marietta, Sunday. A fight of some kind started, chairs were thrown about and windows were broken but no one was badly injured. The scene of the excitement was the boro fire hall. Council is investigating.

LARGE BARN NEAR E'TOWN IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

A short circuit in a poultry house started a fire causing a loss of nearly $25,000, on a farm owned by Lester Hess and Paul Snyder, one mile northeast of Elizabethtown last night. It destroyed a large barn, silo, milk shed and chicken house. Also most of the contents.

SILVER SPRING BOY, 10, FLIES TO DENVER, COLORADO

Ten-year-old Jon B. Fackler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Fackler, Silver Spring, is in Denver, Colo., after taking his first airplane ride. The child flew to Denver to visit an uncle and aunt, Maj. and Mrs. Robert H. Baker.

Maj. Baker, formerly of Landisville, is an Army doctor now stationed in Colorado.

DONEGAL SEWING CLUB MET AT THE CLUB HOUSE

The Donegal 4-H Sewing Club met last Tuesday at the Donegal Club House with two leaders and fifteen members present.

After the business meeting the work period followed and refreshments were served by Mary Ann Felty, Arlene Musser and Elizabeth Nolt.

THE BULLETIN
Is on sale each week at Kulp's News Agency and Tyndall's Store, West Main street.