

OWL LAFFS

A WISE OWL

You often heard that expression, "Cutting off your nose to spite your face"...

Ray Myers' wife is very bitter with Newt Kendig - - - After she had worked a half hour cleaning...

A lot of people doubt there is anything like a flying saucer but a man in the East End is convinced...

I took a local chap along to a party the other evening. He had never been to any of those ritzy shindigs before...

You guys may think Jerry Lewis is funny. Well, you aint seen nothing yet. This guy is not naturally funny...

We sat to the table for the big blow out of the evening. There before him was a big dish of olives...

He ate one and spit it out, ate another and did likewise. After giving them half a dozen trials and seeing the other guys eating them...

But that wasn't the worst. He did a number of other funny things plus dumb remarks, but when they passed the $1.00 apiece cigars...

I don't think that guy will live long. He went home and told his wife that his boss it too weak to mow the lawn...

Now if you think that Scorpions was born under the sign "Room For Rent", I'll see Sheriff Zerphey; probably he can do something about it.

The other day we lost one of our employes - can't tell you from which department-but when we found "it", that goes for male or female-it was writing poetry. Here it is:

A worried looking Marietta St. man went up to Ruhl's greenhouses and asked for three potted geraniums. "Sorry," replied the clerk...

You may be a fine upstanding citizen, but that makes no difference to a waxed floor.

When Uncle Zeke got back to Kinderhook he swore he was through with New York for life. "I'm crossin' the street and mindin' my own business," he said to his cronies...

Weekly Letter By Penna. State Game Commission

A new Pennsylvania duck program has given waterfowl its rightful place in the state's wildlife management scheme.

Early this summer, approximately 7,000 four to seven week-old ducks-balls and black duck and mallard crossbreeds-were released over the state...

All released ducklings were legbanded. Information on banded ducks taken by hunters should be forwarded to the Game Commission's Harrisburg office...

The expectation is that here as elsewhere the stocked ducks that safely run the gamut of fall hunters will return to the areas where they were placed...

Chicken Thieves Take Up Convenient Abode Game Protector Mark L. Hagenbuch, Bloomsburg, tells that a June investigation disclosed that the destructors of several dozen chickens at a commercial poultry plant...

Copperhead Has Bad Taste "Maybe his best friends didn't tell him, but a certain Snyder Co. copperhead snake surely had a wicked form of halitosis," said Game Protector Clarence Walker recently.

The officer had killed one of these poisonous reptiles - a large one - in which he found a young skunk.

Deers and Cats Don't Mix A farmer recently told Game Protector Clyde E. Laubach, Elysburg, that it was his cat's habit to go into one of his fields to hunt mice for her kittens.

Wild Turkey Propagating Area Produces Game Protector L. B. Welch believes that a wild turkey propagating area located on State Game Lands in Huntingdon County is again proving its worth.

Fox Attack Hunter "A crowd hunter from Nescopeck recently had this unusual encounter with a fox," says Game Protector Lewis H. Estep, Berwick.

"Do ye think he apologized? No Siree!" "He leans out and hollers, 'Hey Pop! As long as you're down there, how about checkin' my oil?'"

Some men will never learn to keep their mouths shut. A downtowner was looking over his wife's purchases, she had just made at Lancaster, when he asked: "What in thunder possessed you to get that lemon colored dress?"

His wife replied: "Because I had such a terrible time squeezing it out of you."

See what I mean?

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

I barge in on any subject and the question for aiver today, is - "If the U. S. A. is ever to be licked who will do same." And from my research it will not be the Soviet that will administer a haymaker...

We are 'way, way down the road to final and complete Socialism - some yet quite indistinct and hazy, not right under our nose.

Putting 2 and 2 together-if we are to be licked, ever - terms and Socialism will turn the trick.

Yours with the low down, JIMMY
