J. Lloyd Swarr Purchased The Dan'l Ginder Farm

of Mount Joy R1, paid $17,050 for the farm buildings and 221/2 of the 35 acres of land of the Daniel W. Ginder farm in Rapho township located a mile south of here, on the road leading to the Marietta Pike and Ironville, at public sale held Tuesday afternoon. The land will be surveyed and approximately 12 and one-half acres, without buildings, will be attached to an adjoining farm operated by Mr. Ginder's Improvements on the land purchased by Mr. Swarr include a brick dwelling of eleven rooms built in the late 20's with modern conveniences; bank barn with steer stable and chain ties for 16 head of cattle, tile silo, two-car garage, a large cement block milk house and chicken house.

Mr. Swarr is one of Rapho township's most successful farmers. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leh-(Turn to Page 6)

Local Contractor To Erect $300,000 Bldgs. at E'town

Construction of three new buildings for employee and staff housing is nearly completed at the Elizabethtown State Hospital for Crippled Children as part of the multimillion dollar construction program of the General State Authority.

Requested by the State Department of Health, the new structures will provide apartments for technicians and supervisory personnel and housing for both men and wohen employes. Construction of the new buildings will release rooms in the institution's main building for use for child patients.

Construction contracts for the 3 buildings total slightly more than $300,000 with Paul Martin, of Mt. Joy, the general contractor on all three jobs. Upon completion, the buildings will be leased by the Authority to the Commonwealth at rentals calculated to amortize the (Turn to page 4)
