ing furnished by the U. S. Marine Recruiting Office, Lancaster.

Pictures of local service men, furnished by their families, will be on display. You are invited to visit the stand and see them.

Colored posters that complete the decorations have been furnished by the Army, Navy, Air Corps and Marine recruiting offices, Lancaster.

Recipients of letters sent out by the Committee, who have not as yet forwarded their contribution, are asked to give the matter their immediate attention, either by visiting the stand or mailing it to P. O. BOX 243. Since the letters were not signed by an individual, authenticity of the committee and its purpose, can be verified by contacting Burgess Charles Fish.

Citizens who have not as yet contributed are asked to please let your donation at the Remembrance Committee stand. Your cooperation will help a most worthy cause.

The right guess is never as good as the correct answer.
