22 High School

(From page 1)

Library Association, the high school groups decided to form a conference, headed by an executive council composed of two students from each high school group. Janice and Jeannette Breneman were chosen by the Mount Joy group as its representatives. Officers were elected by the council. Janice Breneman was elected treasurer with a president from McCaskey High School, a vice-president from Manheim High School, and a secretary from Manor Township High School.

Some of the library assistants accepted the college's invitation to stay to dinner also. That evening, then, they attended High School Drama Night held in the college chapel at which the Manheim Central, East Lampeter, East Cocalico, and South Lebanon Township High Schools each presented a one act play. This affair was sponsored by Citamard, the campus dramatic club.

Miss Marilyn Young who is the librarian at Mount Joy High School was in charge of the group, composed of the following High School students: Jeannette Breneman, Doris Linton, Georgann Shatto, Lois Becker, Janice Breneman, Joann Brown, Shirley Hawthorne, Eleanor Hostetter, Loretta Kline, Mary Catherine Landvater, Julia Loewen, Sally Nissley, Charles Rovenolt, Marion Rutt, Verla Stullenberger, Nancy Swanson, Shirley Wade, Jean Will, Jane Wisegarver, Kathryn Zeager, Genevieve Zimmerman.

DIFFERENT WAYS OF HAVING FUN ON HALLOWEEN NIGHT
Young America certainly had a good time thruout this section of the county last Wednesday night. Here's what was indulged in: Smearing shoe polish and lipstick on pedestrians, shooting fire crackers, sooting windows, breaking milk bottles, burning corn shocks, placing obstructions on highways, etc. They sure had a swell time.

Paying debts ought to be pleasure to any honest man.

COUNTY HUNTING MISHAPS SINCE SEASON OPENING

When one considers the large number of hunters affield thruout the county since the opening of the season last Thursday, accidents have been at a new low.

HAD THREE TOO MANY

A Lebanon fisherman paid $30 and costs for having three more bait fish in his kettle than the law allows while fishing at Safe Harbor October 27th.
