

MAJORETTE NINE IS TALENT SHOW WINNER

Billie Louise Wolfe, nine-year-old baton twirler from Lancaster, won the $25 first prize at the county-wide talent show on Saturday night sponsored by the senior class of East Donegal Twp. High School, at Maytown. Second prize of $15 was won by Ronald Mumma, Columbia, who played the piano. Third prize of $5 went to eight-year-old Judith Ann Holtzinger, Columbia, who captivated the audience with her vocal rendition of "It's a Marshmallow World." Twenty-one different individuals and groups tried for the prizes, which were awarded on the basis of audience applause as registered on an electric applause meter.

David Sweigart, a member of the sponsoring class, served as master of ceremonies. Eugene Saylor, class advisor, was in general charge of the program.
