

OWL LAFFS

A WISE OWL

Well, here it is, turkey day once again and I'm not very happy about it. The dentist has my uppers and my lowers don't fit. Guess I'll have to be satisfied with mashed potatoes and cranberry sauce.

When a Florin fellow was asked how he gets by the day before pay day, he explained: "I return all the bottles around the house for nickel deposits."

If you want to cure your wife of nervousness tell her that it's caused by advancing age. — She will never admit she's getting older, so no nervousness.

Young Edgar has been bragging so much that his friend, Johnny, was fed up. "After All," growled Johnny, "what's so wonderful about your folks having twins? Your pops a doctor. He probably got them wholesale." — Could be.

Here's another one of these poems that get past the editor—Peggy can skate: She can skate very canny; But her feet slipped out, And she busted — But it ain't like you think; It's still very nice. Her feet slipped out, And she busted the ice.

A speech is like a wheel — the longer the spoke, the greater the tire.

Walked up town Monday evening when it was so cold and saw a West Main St. man sitting on his front porch. I asked "Aren't you sort of cold sitting out here on your front porch in this icy weather?"

He replied: "Yes, I am, but you see my wife is taking her singing lessons, and I don't want the neighbors to think I'm beating her."

A husband and wife from the hills around Hershey, took a trip to New York City after being on a farm for 40 years. They went into the Empire State Building for a look at the city, and as the wife gazed across acres and acres of buildings she gasped: "I'm speechless, absolutely speechless. "Good," her husband declared, "I'll buy the darned thing." — Can't say as I blame him.

Here's a classified ad we got today.

FOUND—Lady's purse, in back seat of my car, left while parking. Owner can have same by paying for this ad. If she can explain to my wife how it got there, I'll pay for the ad myself."

Conscience has a way of telling us not to do something after we have already done it.

When I arrived home last night, related the young husband, "my wife greeted me with a big kiss. She had a swell dinner ready and afterwards she wouldn't let me help her with the dishes, but made me sit in the living room and read the paper."

The old married man sighed: "And how did you like her new hat?"

Little Nancy said to her mother, "I do not want to go to school today." Knowing that her daughter loved school, her mother asked the reason. "Because I do not know all my leaves," Nancy said.

Botany being too advanced for the third grade her mother questioned further. "Well," Nancy said, "in arithmetic 2 from 4 leaves 2 and I do not know all my leaves!"

In a man's life, a wife is very important, especially to point out his mistakes.

Mount Joy High School Basket Ball Doings

Losing an entire varsity squad would be quite a headache for any coach, and Mr. Houck, local High School coach is no exception.

With last year's championship team gone, (including all 11 players) Coach Houck must build a Varsity from last year's Junior Varsity squad. The latter won 11 and lost 7 last year. The group is made up of Juniors and Sophomores, and number 19 strong. Thus far in the practices, in preparation for the coming season, the squad is showing surprisingly more strength than was anticipated. The boys' attitude towards the game is the best Mr. Houck has ever seen.

The Varsity Squad lists the following boys: Tom Kear, Henry Klugh, Donald Germer, Ben Clinger, James Metzler, Clair Wagner, Charles Drace and Bill Zimmerman. The Junior Varsity has Toby Weber, Ted Williams, Owen Phillips, Bill Eby, James Lindemuth, Irvin Nauman, Donald Zerpey, Gerald Bender, Gerald Lutz, Peter Koder and Glenn Wolgemuth.

Junior High News

This year's team will probably be centered around some of the ninth grade members who will be returning for their third year of play in Jr. High competition. The members of the team from the ninth grade include the following: Charles Ashenfelter, Clyde Ebersole, Dick Halgren, Robert Melhorn, Jay Metzler, Jerry Miller, Peter Nissley, and Bernard Thome. Eighth grade members include the following: Jack Beaton, Gerald Becker, Harry Frey, Larry Geib, Jack Gilbert, Charles Groff, Eugene Grove, Jere Mackinson, Joe Weber, James Pennell, James Rutt and Ronald Schofield.

Could Sherman Name It?
We have no idea what Sherman would call the sort of war now going on between the United Nations and Red China.

The man who is banking on his future seldom carries a savings.

Correct this sentence. "I must go, I have some work to do."

THE LOW DOWN HICKORY GROVE

In these days when everybody is busy as a bird dog with his own business or affairs—traffic jams—stop and go—wrestling matches, etc.—he is lucky to return to his domicile toward evening, or morning with all his arms and legs, let alone delving too deep into what is cooking behind the scenes in Govt. management. There is a kind of general feeling though in isolated places that there are too many strangers fumbling around in the money rooms of our Nation there in old Spendburg-on-the-River. And all this speed, confusion and fun, and no time left for keen surmising by an average citizen as to where we are headed, is made to order for us by our well fed "confusionists" surrounding our boss man down there—confusion is their dish and job.

Day by day a new chaos threatens they tell us—more money is needed to fix it—and onto Sambo's pay roll goes another 1,000 or 10,000, and up to now we have accumulated about two million such federal chaos fixers, which amounts to about one such fixer to every 20 families—and boiled down still further, a Govt. man or dame in every two city blocks—and not including scores of state, county, or town, etc. payroll.

Back yonder about 100 B. C. Rome was a place of pomp and glory, with never a thought that it could ever be otherwise. She don't look like Uncle Harry's Wash., D. C. is too many jumps ahead of Old Rome and Senior Caesar.

Yours for the low-down,

many phases of the construction such as expansion, if and when that becomes necessary. It was indicated that this has been taken into account and new additions can easily be added to the one-story building.

The directors also reported that sufficient funds are on hand to purchase land for the new building. These funds were secured from the sale of several one-room schools in the district several years ago.

The next meeting of the board will be held Dec. 5 in the Norwood school.

DRAWING WILL DECIDE TIE VOTE AT ELECTION

The only tie contest in the 1951 Municipal election will be resolved at a drawing to be held at noon on Friday in the office of the county commissioners.

The office at stake is that of auditor in Mount Joy. George Brown II, and Arthur Moyer each received one write-in vote.

However, Brown also was elected assessor in the East Ward here by 23 write-in votes and state law prevents one person from holding both posts.
