EDITORIAL

This law is similar to many others passed, particularly the new postage rates. Both will require amendments before they are practical.

Washington dispatches disclose the fact that a total of more than 5,500,000 persons are now drawing Federal aid of one sort or another—and that current relief rolls are the largest in peacetime history.

A court test may be necessary to determine whether the buyer or seller must pay Pennsylvania's new one per cent real estate transfer tax.

The State Revenue Department said the law which goes into effect February 1st, is not clear.

One of our exchanges says: "It has been a sin and a shame that the underworld racketeers have not shared with the rest of the public the privilege of paying taxes. Now that this condition is to be remedied, we may yet see a racketeer wearing the only thing left to most of us after taxes—a barrel!"

At Lancaster a young man was arrested the fourth time for speeding. Even though only 19 and having been arrested on three previous occasions he continued to drive. On the fourth occasion, even his parents have asked to have his license taken "before he is involved in a serious accident and may kill himself or some one else."

Men who permit persons like this to drive, should meet these drivers on the highways.

THAT DON'T SCARE THEM
Wide publicity given a congressional investigating committee, who discovered while looking into the use of chemicals in cosmetic, that a kiss can be irritating, hasn't scared anybody around here.

They claim that a man may incur skin irritation by kissing a woman if he is allergic to ingredients in her lipstick.

From what we've seen and learned, its going to take more than that to scare the men around here.

We know some love hounds who would kiss a lady if she had hydrophobia.

SALUNGA

A birthday party was given to Jeanne Pettit, Tuesday afternoon on her seventh birthday. Guests were Danny and Douglas McFarland, Carol Ann and Judith Wendt, Albert and Richard Cooper. Games were played and lunch was served.

Last Friday Dr. J. S. Kendig was taken by ambulance to the St. Joseph's Hospital. The doctor was suffering from bronchial pneumonia. At this writing he is somewhat improved.

WHO IS TO BLAME FOR THIS DOUBLE INCONVENIENCE

We'll leave it up to you to answer this $64 question. After the authorities have been getting dog and fishing licenses for years, this time both went haywire. There are no fishing licenses as yet, even though Jan. 1 was the dead line. Dog licenses arrived at Lancaster on the last day of their legality, Jan. 15.

BOTTLED BEER MAY GO UP CENT OR TWO JAN. 28

A bottle of your favorite beer may cost a penny or two more after January 28.

The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) issued an order Monday permitting brewers, wholesalers and retailers to adjust prices of all malt beverages.

When in need of Printing, (anything) kindly remember the Bulletin

HAPPENINGS — of — LONG AGO

20 Years Ago

January 20, 1932
Constable Elmer Zerphoy found a gambling room in the cellar of an East Ward pool room.

Norman Nissley is converting the former Benjamin Nissley property at Florin, into a double house. David Sternberger and Elmer Baymond, of town, were injured when their car left the highway and upset near Rheems.

Twenty tires were stolen off a truck when it passed thru Lancaster.

Natha Good, of town, made a lucky escape when thirty-five bales of straw fell off a truck and crashed thru a large window at Lancaster. She was sitting inside.

Paul Teley, of town was struck by a car and injured while walking on Main street.

Henry Garber was ordained a minister of the Mount Joy and Kraybill's Mennonite churches.

Benjamin L. Garber, 81, father of Dr. E. W. Garber, died on Monday.

H. N. Nissly resigned as superintendent of St. Mark's United Brethren Sunday School after serving more than twenty years.

On Thursday, Jan. 14, 1932, at 12 m. the large thermometer displayed in front of Garber's Drug Store registered 106 degrees.

Mrs. Maud Edwards resumed her duties as a linotype operator at The Bulletin after being off duty on account of sickness. During her absence Mrs. Guy Myers very ably substituted.

The annual banquet of the Mount Joy Hall Association will be held at McGirl's Thursday, Jan. 21.

The Elizabethtown women of the Moose tendered a surprise reception for Mrs. Benjamin Clinger, nee Esther Barnhart before marriage.

Elmer Appleby, of Marietta, was fined $100 and costs for making home brew.

Michael Rollman was granted a patent on an electric iron. Constable Lester Hitz, of Conewago, is hunting the owner of a bull that treed him for four hours the other day.

When the Pennsylvania Railroad Company made the Cut thru town in 1896 there was a large cherry tree on the lot of Miss Matilda Lehman, South Market street, beyond the Methodist parsonage. Miss Lehman wished to have this tree saved so she nailed the entire poem "Woodman, spare that tree", on the trunk. It was spared and yielded a fine crop of cherries annually for 35 years thereafter. Finally the railroad company removed it. The house which stood near this tree is now the Ralph Eshleman dwelling on West Donagel street.

According to advertisements in The Bulletin, Booth's Store was specializing on infants' shoes at 15c a pair, ladies' dresses at 79c and white sheets 81x90 at 69c.

At Dan Brubaker's store he was giving away one pound of Robert Fulton coffee every hour on Saturday, January 23.

Those In Service

Phoenixville, Penna.

Dear friends:
I am writing again to say thanks for the Christmas present the members of the Mt. Joy Remembrance committee sent me. It sure does make a fellow feel good to know the people back home are still thinking of him. Maybe this war in Korea will soon be over and our young men can all be home. I guess if we all put our trust in God it would help. I have been in the hospital over a year now and all the letters I receive from the folks back home has meant a lot to me. Again I say thanks and may God bless you all.
A former citizen,
Pvt. Robert W. Mark

Dear Remembrance Committee,
Received the box of candy and was very glad to receive it. I'm sorry I didn't write before but I've been out on flight most of the time and when I do get in I only have a little time to get ready for my next flight:

I shared the box with my buddies and they all said that it is really nice to know that someone back home is thinking of the fellows in the service besides just their folks and relatives.

I'm going to leave on another trip as soon as the weather clears up a little. I expect to be gone about 3 or 4 weeks and when I get back I'm going to get a leave, so I'll see you all soon again I hope.

I'm thanking you once again for the box of candy as it was really appreciated.
