Huggins said the Air Force ma a "comprehensive" study of some 30 Pennsylvania sites altogether. six in Lancaster County.

They were found unsuitable, he said, for reasons ranging from underground caverns at some places to the fact that th ewind blows in the wrong direction for runways of Honor at Washington, D. C. last at other places.

"A location near Donegal, Penn sylvania, from all outward appearances seemingly best met U. S. Air Force requirements for the depot facility," said the Huggins state-

Homer Reitz Plead Guilty; Is Jailed For Two Years

Homer Reitz, of Jamacia Plains Mass., charged with larceny by valued at $5,000 from the Keystone Holstein Sales, Inc., here last February, pleaded guilty in court and was sentenced to one to two years in the county prison.

Judge Joseph B. Wissler also imposed a $100 fine and costs.

Mr. Lloyd Derr, of the Keystone Holstein Sales, testified Reitz left last February 16 with a load of cattle which was delivered at Hastings. Nebraska. He failed to return with the truck and six months later it was found abandoned in Boston. Reitz had been employed only a few weeks before he committed the
