Miss Spangler Chosen To Attend Wyoming Camp

Miss Mary Ann Spangler, of town, a member of Girl Scout Troop 103, will be one of two representatives from Pennsylvania who will attend an All-State Encampment of Girl Scouts July 30 to Aug. 20, at Buffalo Bill Scout Camp, near Cody Wyoming.

According to Mary Ann's official notification of her acceptance received from Girl Scout headquarters, the encampment will be the gift of the oil dealers of the Rocky Mountain region. The donors will pay the basic expenses of the encampment making the gift in observance of the 40th anniversary of Girl Scouting celebrated this year.

Two Senior Scouts from each state will take part. Plans for the encampment include many trips, living on the trail and exploring the area which abounds in scenes and places of interest for nature study.

Mary Ann has been selected on the basis of skill and knowledge of camping techniques, qualities of leadership, adherence to Girl Scout ideals and traditions and ability to represent her own community. The director will be Miss Marion Barrett, of the national Girl Scout staff, an expert in camping.

Mary Ann, who is 17, is a senior in Mount Joy High School. She has been a member of Troop 108 eight years and with her troop took a 1,600 mile trip to Canada in 1950. She served as a delegate to the senior planning board and was Senior Scout representative to the Girl Scout Convention in Boston.
