THE LOW DOWN
—from—
HICKORY GROVE

As I amble around, here and there, on Main Street and off, and listen to the pros and cons on politics—and then put 2 and 2 together—I conclude that too many candidates figure the average voter is not such a hot sketch. Too many of our Big figure "once a sucker, always a sucker"—they know we been voting like a yokel for many a moon now. Also they don't catch on that a worm can turn. Also they don't know that a boisterous few—with a personal ax to grind—are not the average, substantial citizens.

The average substantial citizen airs his views and gripes to his neighbors—he don't hop the rattler and head for Potomacland as does the guy or dame who says he or she represents the folks back home who want bigger Govt.—bigger labor bosses—bigger and better dam—bossed schools—more farm floors. Fact is the folks back home never seem and don't even know the guy or dame who says they bleed for the home folks.

So I deduct—finally, and this year—the sucker shoe is on the other foot. The folks back home are gonna lower the boom on Big Govt. That is what I pick up by here and there listening. This coming autumn will tell who is the yokel and vice versa.

Yours with the low down,
Jo Serra
