OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

Maybe I'm being contrary, but I sure do like the parking meters. I had five stops to make on Main St., the other morning and dog-gone if I couldn't park at every business place, all I needed was a couple pennies. Ordinarily I'd have carried the packages a couple blocks or more.

I'm putting some of this cool air in the deep freeze, so—come a hot, humid day come on over, I'll give you a bagful.

Anna Mae (Little Willie) Wills has a new use for Scotch tape that she oughta send in for the TV Commercial. She repairs her bicycle with it!

Dewey Hornadius Jr., our new Poet gave us this one:

If "Mouse Myers" should run for President
He wouldn't be a dope;
He'd only kiss the babies who,
Were old enough to vote

Pretty good Junior.

Roscoe Hassinger was standing up on the Post Office corner talking to a boy in the Air Force. When he made the statement he wanted to be a flyer the Air Force pilot ask "Why". The answer was quick and direct as Roscoe looked back at the Fire House roof, "I'd like to fly over a pigeon just once."

I was thrown out of an antique shop the other day. All I did was walk in and say, "What's new?" — My feathers are still ruffled.

Cpl. James Markley, who is stationed in England says: "It's no wonder the British are always borrowing money. They spend it by the pound."

A hostess on a flight west said to the passengers: "Fasten your money belts, please." I don't know how true the statement is, but Jane (Funk) Tanis told me.

I know a guy who can't sleep. Even when it's time to get up. . . . He'd better see a doctor.

Russell Gantz told me when he was a kid, they called him flannel. He used to shrink from washing.

I think I'll start a new business. I'll make square marbles for kids who'd like to shoot dice. — O. K. It was only an idea. I usually get plenty of these brain storms come September.

Cappy Mumma told me he's getting richer everyday. He discovered a wonderful way to save money. He said, "I just forget who I borrowed it from."

A fellow on Mount Joy street told me his wife didn't exactly lose her figure, she just scattered it around.

Speaking of families my mother-in-law has a nice open face. It's open day and night.

There's a guy in town who is so cheap, that when he serves highballs he puts knots in the straws.

But just remember girls, a fight wad is better than no wad at all.

Dot Garlin found that naps can be most confusing. Last Sunday she was visiting friends and decided on a short siesta. During her nap one of her friends took off her stockings and put a pair of men's socks on her feet, when she woke she wasn't shure she had put them on before she left her home or not.

Bill Dommel Jr., supt. of the broom and mop dept. at Newcomers Motors would greatly appreciate if someone could tell him where he could locate some FELT lock washers. His boss sent him to the parts department for one, and it seems that they didn't have any in stock. — Don't you know Bill, that felt is hard to get during war times?

Remember girls, if you want a strong silent man, get yourself a Northwoods hunter. They only open their traps about three times a year.

Someone has written that it is not the mountain ahead that wears you out, it is the grain of sand in our shoe. The little disappointments, the little troubles are often the toughest ones to lick. That's why this motto carries such an inspirational punch. It inspires a man to be bigger than his problems. Write it in your mind: "The measure of a man is the size of the thing it takes to get his goat."

The Machine That REVOLUTIONIZED Potato Harvesting
Chews Vines To a Mulch
* Ends vine tangle * Speeds the harvest
* Assures maturity * Builds the soil
Are you still battling a vine-tangled, bogged-down harvest? Roto-Beater owners from coast to coast say this modern method speeds the work as it improves quality and builds the soil.
Roto-Beater's mile-a-minute rotating rubber flails whip vines and weeds to a mulch. Rolls up and down the fields without lost time. Makes a perfect path for the diggers to work with nothing in the way.
