OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

Joe (The Barber) Detwiler, had a strange customer one day last week... A man with a very heavy beard, riding a mule drove up to his shop, tied his mule to one of the parking meters and came into his shop to ask Joe if he would shave his beard off...

Officer Neiss is getting ready for the coming hunting season, he sent his gun away to have it cleaned and told them to repair the crack in the barrel... Boog got a reply a couple days later informing him they would clean the gun...

One hot day last summer a little boy was walking along behind a very large woman, so closely in her footsteps as to be annoying. Finally she turned on him, demanding why and threatening to call the police.

Farmers have tried many tricks shooting dynamite, various kinds of traps, poisoned grain, all sorts of mechanical devices have been tried in an effort to frighten birds out of the cornfields.

Harold Newcomer used to spin a tale about his invention of a marvelous lifelike scarecrow. It was made of tin, he said, and not only waved its arms at irregular intervals, but emitted a loud yell every few minutes.

Two ghosts sat upon an overturned tombstone to talk shop. "By the way, pal, asked one, "do you believe in human beings?"

A young Marietta St. blonde gave her tall young hubby this bit of advice before he left for work: "The night before last you came home today. If you come home this afternoon tomorrow, I'll go to Mother!"

Nothing is funny when you're hungry or your feet hurt.

Johnny Dillinger asked Dick, "Daddy, can you tell me why telephone operators are always women?"

A local gentleman went to Guy Spittler junk yard to buy a trash barrel and was charged $1.03 for it. "That three cents couldn't be sales tax, could it?" he asked. Guy shook his head.

A number of Main Street housewives got into a neighborhood row, and Officer Good arrived in time to prevent a free-for-all.

Mart Robinson, of Florin was telling the fellows the other morning, that when he worked for Garth Snyder, they put their tobacco in the silo...

Two Mount Joy St. men were discussing they quit drinking.

1st man: "I haven't touched a drop in over two months."

2nd man: "Neither have I pal, but don't you think we better knock on wood?"

1st man: "Absolutely. Let's go pound on a bar."

2nd man: "No it wasn't Russ and his neighbor."

A sweet young thing (at her first baseball game)—"Oh, I like this; Let's stay and see that part over again where he makes the home-run."

A WISE OWL

AGAIN HONORED

Kauffman T. Keller, internationally-famous native of this borough, who again was singled out this week as one of the four outstanding industrialists of the nation.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. George Gring, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gring of Berkshire Heights, Reading visited the Jacob Arndt family of Fairview street, Saturday.

Mrs. Jennie Stutzman, Palmyra, visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey, West Main St., over the weekend.

The following were guests of a party Saturday in honor of Nadine Bailey's eighth birthday, namely: Lillian Good, Ronnie Arndt, Barry Coover, Judy Nissey, Jerry and Judy Barrick, Cora McGowan, Jimmie Bangler and Don and Terry Bailey.

Nadine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey, West Main St., this borough.

Mrs. I. M. Morris returned on Tuesday from New York after an extensive buying trip for Fall dresses, winter coats and accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Breneman and son, Lester and Mrs. John Zerphoy, spent Saturday visiting Mrs. Lee Stehman in Newville, Cumberland County.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lenker and daughter, Geraldine, of Millersburg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Breneman and son, Marietta Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Almer Tanis of Newport, R. I. spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Funk.

KOSER DONATES BLOOD
Abram S. Koser, seaman 3/c, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin L. Koser, R2 Mt. Joy was among crewmembers of the submarine rescue vessel USS Kittiwake to donate blood for the Armed Forces Blood Bank at the Submarine base at Norfolk, Va.

The Kittiwake has earned her "well-done" from the Arctic Circle to the Panama area. During fleet maneuvers in the Arctic, she operated within two degrees south of the Circle, and in the Panama area a diving record of 501 feet was set from her decks.

There survive a son, Bernard W., Lancaster 77; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Hemsley, Aidie, Va., and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held today (Thursday) at 1:30 p. m. at the Fred F. Groff Funeral Home, with interment in Eberly's Cemetery, this borough.

Air Raid

To just how the alarm will be sounded here with a number of individual plants reluctant to use whistles and thus bring operations at a standstill for the seven-minute period. A similar lack of interest is being shown, Mr. Bennett revealed, by persons asked to assume some of the various civil defense posts here.

The theoretical period of attack will begin some time after 1:50 with the usual intermittent signal. No attempt will be made to simulate conditions of an actual raid, as marked tests performed during World War II. The all-clear signal will be sounded at 1:56 and will end at 1:57 P. M.

Latitudinarians
Who were the Latitudinarians? A party in the Church of England in the 17th century which strived to find a theological basis broad enough for men of different views to unite upon and thus put an end to the embittered controversies of the time.

Mortuary Record

GEORGE W. ECKINGER
George W. Eckinger, 38, Elizabethtown, died Monday of a heart attack. Chester Eckinger of this borough, is a son.

CLAYTON G. STRICKLER
Clayton G. Strickler, eighty-two, of Salunga, died suddenly at noon Saturday at the home of Miss Elizabeth S. Witmer, with whom he resided.

Dr. J. S. Kendig, Salunga deputy coroner, said death was caused by a coronary occlusion. A son of the late Ephraim and Susan Grosh Strickler, he retired several years ago after working many years as a carpenter.

There survive a son, Bernard W., Lancaster 77; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Hemsley, Aidie, Va., and two grandchildren.

Council

Ask For Stop Sign
The request of residents of Comfort Alley and David Street for a slow or stop sign at the intersection will be studied by the borough police committee. No request has been made for stop signs in other parts of the town, members of council asserted.

Open Bids
Bids were opened for the purchase of 900 feet of 12-inch corrugated pipe for the Pinkerton Road and a contract was awarded to Lancaster Valite, Inc. of Lancaster, for $1.38 per foot.

A contract for painting the Fire-Hall was awarded to H. W. Buller, of Florin, for his bid of $445.

Burgess Fish announced that he will represent the borough at a meeting of the Pennsylvania Boroughs Association in Norristown this Saturday.

B-R-R-R!

It got cold with a vengeance Wednesday morning, just in case you did not get up in time to realize that fact. And for proof, Mrs. Evelyn Miller, of 224 East Main Street, reported that early Wednesday morning she as attracted by the din being set up in her backyard by starlings. Upon investigation she found that the bird-bath was completely frozen over.

Reduce Losses of Foals

Some of the horses that are romping home ahead of the field today owe their victories—and their lives—to new scientific discoveries. According to veterinarians at the University of Kentucky, losses of unborn and new born foals due to infections have been reduced 20 percent in the bluegrass area of Kentucky within the past few years. Better means of diagnosing ailments of foals and improved disease-fighting drugs are cited as principal factors in the loss reduction.
