I hope Joe enjoys the liberty as much as I have and that the hot weather doesn't get him down too much. The climax is very hot and the water is very clear and blue. I am typing this letter in Savannah, Georgio which is our last liberty port before going out on our last manuever. Our purpose in this operation is to lay some top secret type buoy which is to help amphibious landings at night. We are not allowed to say to much about it, but I don't know enough about it to say anything anyway. We are to return to Norfolk, Va. and on the 13 November for two weeks tender availability which will also include leave and liberty for the ship over the holiday. We will be leaving for the Med. in January for a six month cruise.

Observing the rules of the road pays off in safer, happier traveling. The same courtesies extended on your "telephone highways" brings quicker, happier telephone service for you and your telephone neighbors. It always pays to use your telephone sharingly—to space a series of calls—to release the line for emergencies—to answer promptly. Remember, your telephone line is a highway of communication to and from the whole world. To enjoy it fully, share it with your neighbors.
