OWL LAFFS

BY A WISE OWL

A young boy on East Donegal Street asked his father, what's the difference between a gun and a machine gun?
 His Daddy replied: "Oh a big difference. It's just as if I spoke and then your mother spoke."

I asked our new man, Russ, what the boss said to him when he called him in the office last Wednesday?
 Russ: "He asked me whether I couldn't sandwich in a little more work, as I always seemed to have a long enough loaf."

I don't know what's wrong with my wife, the other day she bought a new hat, and when I told her that she made the hat look ten years younger, she practically threw me out of the house. — I guess she lost her sense of humor.

Over at the fire house the other night Bill Sheaffer was telling the boys, that there were 110 hidden taxes in a new pair of shoes.
 Mushy Good said, "No wonder they hurt our feet."

A Barbara street 3-year old lad had become very much interested in hearing about the habits of various domestic animals. One day when his mother was ordering bacon in the grocery store he asked loudly, "Mommie, does the piggie lay the bacon right in the A&P?"

This will never come to pass:
 A back-seat driver, out of gas:
 —Dewey Hornatius Jr.

Clyde Nissley told me "Men still die with their boots on—but one boot is often on the accelerator."

An indignant Scotchman sent a letter to our Editor last week saying "If you don't stop writing about Scotchmen being so stingy," he penned, "I'll stop borrowing your paper."

A Mount Joy street conscientious father was dispensing advice to his son who was about to be married.
 "Co-operation is the foundation of successful marriage," pop said solemnly. "You must do things together. For instance, if your wife wants to go for a walk, go for a walk with her. If she wants to go to the movies, go to the movies with her. If she wants to do the dishes, do the dishes with her."

The son listened dutifully, then asked: "Suppose she wants to mop the floor?" — the answer was delayed as mother walked in the room.

Bill Enck told me a banana skin is what a man sits on the side-walk and talks to — — I seen Bill talking to chairs over on the side-walk of the fire house.

A New Haven street man told me he, and his wife have a troublesome problem. Her problem is to keep her figure, And mine is to figure her keep.

Little Junior was bragging to Pop about his accomplishments at school that day.
 "Why, I was the smartest boy in my class," said Junior. "Teacher asked how many legs a dog has and I said three."
 "But that's not right."
 "Maybe not," replied Junior, "but I was the closest one to it."

Bill Zeamer told me "Regardless of the world situation, a good round steak will still make a good square meal. — You don't suppose he's trying to boost business?"

Irvin Fritz told me Saturday night that he has been having such lovely dreams lately that he is now wearing glasses to bed every night.

Cappy Mumma says: "If you want to see how a man shrinks things, just save some money for a rainy day."

Here's one Jimmy Markley sent from England (I should say Sgt. Markley).
 A young soldier lost his rifle. Brought before the colonel he was told he'd have to pay for it.
 "Suppose I lost a tank, sir?" asked the soldier.
 "Surely I wouldn't have to pay for that."
 "Yes," replied the colonel. "Even if it took the rest of your army career to do it."
 "Gosh," said the soldier. "Now I know why a captain goes down with his ship."

Well that's the last time I must write this column for this year.
 "Happy New Year folks."

To Welcome

 purpose. First, the project will welcome new people moving into the town. Second, it will introduce the new people to the merchants and in turn it will introduce the merchants to the new people. Third, it will introduce the new people to the industries of Mount Joy.
 When the group decided on the idea, a committee of five set out to visit the merchants and industries to see what they thought of the idea. They indicated enthusiastic approval of the idea so the project was launched. It was decided that newcomers must live within the limits of Mount Joy. Gift certificates from merchants are limited to a maximum of $1.00. The project will be available to new families, new wives and new husbands. The Joy-Cees will supply certificates which will say "Welcome to Mount Joy. This certificate, when presented in person, entitles you, John Doe to $1.00 dollars or cents in merchandise at The Jones Store. This project is being made possible by the Joy-Cees."

The committee will visit the new people and present them with a basket in which will be certificates, gifts, souvenirs, a letter of welcome from Burgess Fish and an information bulletin which will include church information, club, organizations, doctors, dentists, and various schedules. The town will be introduced to the new citizen by way of an article in The Bulletin.

The hardest part of the project will be to collect the names of new people moving into town. This is where the people of the town may help make the project a success. If anyone knows of anyone new moving into the town, they may call or write The Bulletin 3-9661; Mrs. Geo. Albert, 3-5181; Mrs. Nicholas Leitner, Ph. 3-3933; Miss Wilma Dommell, 3-6751; Mrs. Paul Stoner, Jr., 3-6581; Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, Jr., 3-4081; and Mrs. James Roberts, 3-4273.

When the Joy-Cees have completed their first visitation, a complete list of articles which are included in the basket will be listed in the Bulletin with the name of the first people to get the benefit of the project.

The merchants and industries have cooperated nearly one hundred percent. The list includes:

- Eicherly's Dry Cleaning, Garber Oil Company, H. S. Meckley, Plumbing, Harold Zimmerman, tinsmith, Union National Bank, First National Bank, Grey Iron Casting Co., Bachman Chocolate Co., Gerberich-Payne Shoe Co., Kunkle's Oil, Seiler Printing Company, Reist's Seeds and the Sico Company.
