Lancaster County Gas Company is now LANCASTER COUNTY GAS DIVISION THE UNITED GAS IMPROVEMENT COMPANY

The merger of the Lancaster County Gas Company with The United Gas Improvement Company and its other utility subsidiaries, has resulted in a change of name for the local gas company.

Effective at the close of business on December 31, 1952, Lancaster County Gas Company became the Lancaster County Gas Division of The United Gas Improvement Company. This is the only change to be made, as the result of the merger, in the supplying of economical gas service to the area.

Actually Lancaster County Gas Company has been a part of the U.G.I. System of utility companies since 1949. As the Lancaster County Gas Division of the U.G.I., the same group of 165 local people will continue to make it their daily job to see that modern, efficient gas service, at the lowest possible cost, is brought to your home, your business, your industry, for the hundreds of uses for which you have established its preference.

NEWCOMER MOTORS, Inc. Mount Joy, Pa.

Under The Basket

The Mount Joy Rams lost their first game recently to Lititz High by a score of 75-54. It was the first loss after six consecutive wins.

After leading by a margin of 8 points throughout the game, the Rams folded in the last quarter where they were outscored 16-5. From this corner it looks as though the local team will have to play much better ball in order to match the record of McCue, Wilson and Company, who won the Eastern Regional Championship in 1951.

Bill Zimmerman and Jay Metzler led the Ram scoring with 19 and 15 points respectively.

The Junior Varsity lost their third consecutive game 37-24. Germer led the Rams with 11 points.

The Rams regained their winning ways by defeating Coach Houck's hometown, Biglerville, 64-31. Once again it was a team victory, something that was lacking in the Lititz game. Kear, Zimmerman and Klugh led the scoring with 12, 10, 10, points respectively. Nine players gained the scoring column.

The Junior Varsity broke their losing streak of three games by winning 53-10. Zeller Wagner and Weber led the Ram scoring with 15, 9 and 8 points respectively.
