HAPPENINGS — of — LONG AGO

20 YEARS AGO
February 7, 1933

Many checks were missing in the mail. Banks, post office department and postad authorities were wrestling with the mystery. A letter from the Union National Bank was sent to Lancaster Trust Co. and mailed on January 29th containing $6,000 in checks and failed to reach its destination. It was believed the crooks were looking for Liberty Bonds or other securities.

Marriage licenses were issued to Christian Z. Young, Mount Joy and Cecilia Leah Bates, of Florin; Benjamin S. Diner and Stella S. Brandt, both of Rapho Twp.

Walter Garber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newpher Garber, of North Barbara street was confined again after having been confined to bed suffering from burns. So many of the moulders at the Grey Iron Works were off sick Saturday and Monday, the foundry had to be closed.

Mr. H. S. Newcomer recently removed the frame stable and is now having the frame Exchange hotel building removed. One of the most modern brick warehouses and business places in this town will be erected.

15 YEARS AGO
February 3 1938

A chimney fire was extinguished at the home of Levi Mumma, near Milton Grove. Fire Chief Ray Myers said there was no damage.

Mrs. Mary Horst, Mt. Joy R2 fell and fractured her right hip and is seriously ill at this time. She resided with her nephew, Hiram Ehleman, Mount Joy R2.

Mr. E. S. Gerberich, president of the Gerberich-Payne Shoe Co., was invited to Washington, D. C. by President Roosevelt. He accepted the invitation and attended a conference of business men to discuss the problems to improve business conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Greenawalt, of Harrisburg, celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary at Hostetter's. An unusual occurrence was the fact that among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Strickler, of near town, who would celebrate their anniversary that same year. The Greenawalts and Strickler's are the respective parents of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Strickler, of this borough.

"Jimmy" Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Roberts, Marietta St., returned from a Philadelphia hospital where he underwent an operation for the removal of a supernumerary tooth.

John W. Heisey, Mount Joy R2 was admitted to a hospital suffering head injuries received when he was kicked by a horse while working in the stable on his farm.

Dr. Thome treated Mrs. Wm. Longenecker, Mt. Joy R2, for a crushed finger received when the door of the automobile was slammed, catching her hand.

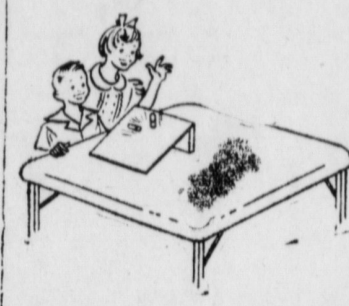

The Supreme Court of the State of Penna. upheld the constitutionality of the so-called Goodrich Bill, which eliminated the Poor Houses from Penna.

A few items taken from the "Happenings of Long Ago" in this issue for 1905: Dr. E. W. Garber installed a new lighting plant at his pharmacy. A 500 candle-power and costs 1-3 of a cent to run it and burns 94 per cent air. A telephone was installed at the Wm. Gantz Farmers Inn hotel. S. G. Graybill has a large force of men cutting ice on the Cameron Ponds at Donegal. Levi Nissley, son of Martin Nissley, was appointed page boy of Legislature for 1905-06. The roads in Rapho Twp. are still blocked with snow. Supervisors are trying to open them but able bodied men do not care to shovel snow at $1.15 per day.

Game for Young or Old

IT'S FUN for youngsters and grown-ups alike—the tumblebug game. For the bugs, get some capsules from your druggist. Drop a ball bearing into each, close the capsule and mark it with a colored tape, so that each player will know his own bug.

The only other equipment needed for the game is a playing board. Cut a piece of Presdwood about one foot square and nail it to a block of one-inch lumber four inches wide and as long as the playing board, to form a ramp. You'll need to plane the block of wood to the proper angle to make the Presdwood fit evenly.

Up to four players can participate with a board the size of the one described. Each player holds his capsule in an upright position at the top edge of the playing board. At the signal to "go," the bugs are released to tumble end over end down the ramp. The one reaching bottom first is the winner.

Paris Nissly was enjoying a sleigh ride, his sleigh upset breaking the dashboard and ended the ride.

10 YEARS AGO

The Mt. Joy Hi-Crier was awarded 2nd prize by the Penna. School Press Ass'n. in the thirteenth annual contest for senior high school newspapers.

Olivia Linard, East Donegal street, this borough, fractured her right wrist when she slipped on ice and fell.

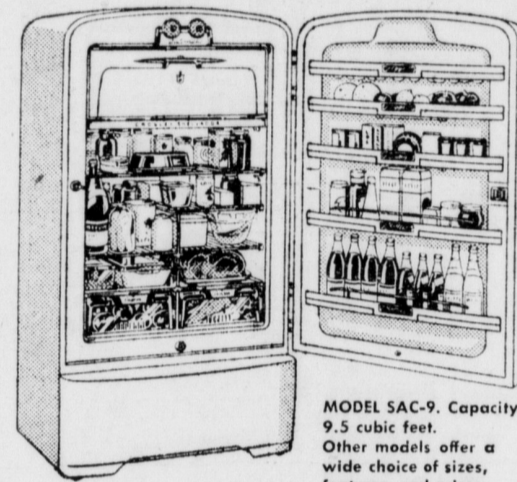

Chief of Police Elmer L. Zerphney, celebrated his 16th year as an officer of law in Mt. Joy. Just to celebrate he made an arrest that day.

At Borough Council meeting secretary Bailey reported the census of our borough, just recently taken, was 2,377.
