1928 and broke ground and guided in the building of his denomination's church at Johnstown, Pa. After serving five years there, he was stationed in Chicago, Ill., and then in Ohio. He served as the Presiding Elder of the Western District of his denomination for eight years.

After the active years as pastor and Presiding Elder, Rev. Deck accepted the post as Superintendent of the church's home for the aged at Myerstown, Pa. However, he preferred the active ministry and at last yielded to the request of the Conference to serve a pastorate. He was then stationed at Mt. Joy and has spent a very happy and useful time of service here. During his ministry the church had made spiritual and material progress. The complete redecoration of the church edifice, inside and out was done during Rev. Deck's pastorate, and the purchase of the nearby Annex was also accomplished.

The members of the local congregation are joining with friends nearby and members of the pastor's family to celebrate this anniversary. A committee from the Mt. Joy congregation are in charge of the event and a speaker from this charge will be one of the features of the unusual service.

The pastor's family will be present in their first reunion for a number of years. A daughter, Mrs. Raymond E. Dreyer of Chicago, Ill., will be present with her husband and two children, Carl Jean and David Ray. Another daughter, Mrs. Harold Faust, wife of a Presbyterian pastor in western Pennsylvania, will be present with their two children. The two sons, Rev. Oscar Deck of Gap, Pa. and Rev. Wilbur Deck of Mt. Joy, will be present with their families. Special numbers will be presented by several members of the family. A church and family social hour will follow the service in the nearby Annex.
