

It took a lot of planning and hard work to build up my farm, and my bank helped in many ways.

We're glad to offer advice on money matters, loans, and other convenient banking services that will help folks around here to run prosperous farms.

Could Not

—taking some steps in the walker—walking in parallel bars—walking with the aid of crutches—walking with the aid of canes—and walking unassisted.

She could not do this alone. She had orthopedic surgeons, therapists, nurses, school board, service clubs, blind Association, Farm Women, interested individuals, her family and many friends help her.

Dr. John E. Noss, chairman of the local Easter Seal Sale summed the whole thing up by saying—"Joan is one of many boys and girls who need your help." Continued, Dr. Noss, "A total of $18,000 is needed for Lancaster County Society for Crippled Children and Adults to continue this humanitarian work."

"You helped her, too. Every time you bought Easter Seals, you assured Joan that you were back of her—fight—to help her help herself."

"Won't you continue your interest in them by giving—and giving generously to the Easter Seal Sale? Mail your yellow envelope back today, or mail your contribution to Crippled Children c/o Lancaster Post Office" concluded Dr. Noss. "Yours will be the happier Easter for it."

80 Voices Will Give A Palm Sunday Musical

The Junior, Youth, and Senior Choirs of 80 voices, will combine in leading a Palm Sunday morning musical service of worship, this coming Sunday at 10:30, in the Washington Street Church of the Brethren, Elizabethtown. There will be individual presentations by the choirs, and "Open The Gates of the Temple" will be sung by the Combined Choirs. The Junior Choir, directed by Mrs. Matthew Meyer, will appear for the first time in their new vestments. Mrs. John Pfautz and Mr. Galen W. Herr direct the Youth and Senior Choirs, and Mrs. Galen W. Herr will serve as the Organist. Pastor Nevin H. Zuck will officiate in the dedication of the new vestments, and the congregation will join in a special offering to provide for the gowning of all the choirs.

EASTER PROGRAM WILL BE HELD ON PALM SUNDAY

The Colebrook Lutheran Sunday School will hold their Easter program on Palm Sunday at 7 p. m. Rev. Rinica will be the speaker, also special music and recitations. Every one is invited.
