Parents Urged To Remind Their Children Laws Apply To Bikes

With the coming of Spring it's time again for parents to remind their bike-riding boys and girls that traffic laws apply to them as well as to motorists, advises Edward P. Curran, Safety Director of Keystone Automobile Club.

"There are Bicycle Laws and a Bicycle Code governing use of bikes on public highways and thoroughfares, but too often they are disregarded or even unknown to many persons," he continued. "It's very important, therefore, that parents make certain that their sons and daughters realize that when riding their bikes in traffic they are just as responsible for their own safety and that of others as those driving automobiles and trucks.

"Bike riders are required to obey all traffic signals and signs, use proper hand signals for turns, ride on right side of highways close to curb, park vehicle in safe place, stop and render assistance in case of accident and report to police, assume liability for any damage resulting from careless and negligent operation of bike when other party is not guilty of negligence, stop while passengers are boarding and alighting from street cars, and keep bike in safe operating condition.

"Bike riders are forbidden by law to hitch on or hold fast to any other vehicle, carry an extra passenger on the handlebars or any other part of bike, en-
