Alumni Banquet Here June 6

Invitations have been issued to the fifty-seventh annual alumni banquet to be held Saturday evening, June 6 in the high school. A ham dinner is being prepared by Alumni members and several Mothers. A short business will be held, dinner will be served, a short program will be held and following this, entertainment will be featured. H. Morrell Shields and three others will play music for dancing on one portion of the stage.

The theme of the affair will be the "Alumni Carnival" which will provide entertainment to suit your fancy from visiting the "old picture gallery". Members are asked to keep in mind that this is the next to last senior class to enter the association. There will be 54 members inducted this year. After next year's class enters the association, will be a closed organization.

Plan now to attend your Alumni Banquet Saturday, June 6, at 6:30 p. m. in the high school auditorium. Preliminary plans are being made by Miss Christine Weidman, Miss Betsy Bigler, Arthur Zerphy, Jr., and Mrs. George Albert.

Street Repairs Started

Work was started at Main and Barbara Streets Monday morning on street repairs in the borough. Streets being repaired are those where water mains were laid last Fall.

Council last week granted a contract for the work to Heisey Brothers, of Rheems, for their bid of $5,600. The bid was the lowest of three submitted.

Students Thrilled By Top Hat Club

Seventy juniors and seniors of the high school attended the "Top Hat Club" Friday evening, following the annual prom. The second floor of the fire-hall was transformed to resemble a "New York Night Club" by the Jay-Cees and Joy-Cees to provide a place for teenagers to go following their "big night", the prom.

As the students approached the building a flashing sign greeted them first outside the building plus a billboard announcing all the attractions included in the two floor shows. The "Guests" were greeted by Paul Stoner, as doorman, dressed in his red uniform. Miss Betsy Bigler was the hostess and O. K. Snyder Jr., served as the head-waiter. The waiters were Harold Zimmerman, Nicholas Leitner, Ammon Hoffer, Warren Hayman and Norman Garber. The guests were presented menus by the waiters to order anything that the steward, Michael Pricio, had prepared assisted by the assistant steward, Gene Eicherly.

Candy vendors were Miss Christine Weidman and Mrs. Leitner, who also photographed those at tables. A black and white color theme prevailed with palms and greens around the room. The centerpiece on each table were black glass top hats which were filled with pretzel bits.

Morrell Shields served as the master-of ceremonies for the two floor shows. Performers included William Gassman, vocalist; Dr. David Schlosser, pianist; O. K. Snyder, Jr., magician and the Bottlers from East Donegal High School. The Bottlers included John Musser, Ross Eshleman, Paul Kauffman, Jack McKain, Stephen Doles and Mr. Shields. Three Jay-Cees, Harold Zimmerman, Henry Isgar and Earl Rhoades, presented a pantomime of the Andrew Sisters. An orchestra played for dancing between floor shows. Breakfast was served by the chef, Gerald Hostetter assisted by Mrs. Eicherly, Mrs. Hostetter, Mrs. Pricio, Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. Stoner, and Miss Wilma Jane Domnell. Breakfast included bacon and eggs a la Top Hat, toast and coffee.

Wilbur Beahm, high school principal and Mrs. Beahm, and Mr. and Mrs. George Broske were guests of the affair. Preceding the opening the affair at midnight, the townspeople visited the room between 9:30 and 10:30 p. m.
