Lively Discussion Over More Parking Meters Marks Council Meeting

New Police Car Purchased From Newcomer Motors

A lively discussion, pro and con, over the placing of additional parking meters on side streets here, marked a meeting of the Mount Joy Borough Council Monday evening.

The discussion followed the action of Burgess Charles Fish in vetoing an ordinance passed by council at the May meeting to place additional meters here.

Burgess Fish followed up his veto with an expension of the reasons why he dig not favor more meters here councilman Jim Spangler took the opposite side of the question in the discussion.

The members of council failed to renew the motion to override Burgess Fish' veto, the matter of more meters was

Paul Welliver Claims We Have Less Than Half Needed

Despite all efforts put forth to build up an organization, Mount Jov's Civil Defense setup is in danger of completely collapsing, Paul Welliver, chief warden, announced this week. "At present we have just about half the personnel needed to put on a minimum effort in case of an emergency," Welliver asserted.

"Recently we sent out approximately fifty letters to citizens of the borough, asking them to agree to serve as wardens. Of this number, we re-eived only ten replies. "Added to the twenty voluneers we had previously, this gives us a force of about thirty wardens-half the minimum re-
